INTRODUCTION

The contents herein is the result of research over a period of fifteen years on the family bearing the name variously spelled as Benadum, Benedum, Bennethum and other slight variations.

The original settlers in America have not yet been established. This is a partial record of the descendants of Johannes Bennethum (1765-1828), George Benadum (1766-1838) and Peter Benedum, dates of birth and death not known, but of about the same generation as Johannes and George. Whether they were related is not yet established but they all are first found in the same vicinity in eastern Pennsylvania in the latter part of the 18th century.

It is my intention to continue my research in the family history with the hope of discovering the first of the name in America, and the relationship, if any, of Johannes, George and Peter and as many more of their descendants as possible, for publication at a later date.

This record, although far from complete, is published in the hope that it will create some interest in the family history and serve to bring in more complete information in the future. It will serve as a framework to which other names can be added.

Without the help of many other, this record would not have been possible. Much of it is the result of original research in the Church and public records of the counties of eastern Pennsylvania and Ohio. Many hours were spent checking tombstones in graveyards. However, much also was furnished by different members of the family, or family reunion groups, who were interested in keeping a record of their family groups. I want particularly to thank Fredric Kloos, Blanche Bennethum, Nellie Bonadum Swartz, Michael Joseph Bollman, Ruth Bonodum Neely, Thomas R. Bonodum, and Clarence E. Bonadum for their contribution of the record of large family groups and the many others who furnished information concerning their immediate family groups. I also want to thank Russell A. Bonadum for his technical advice, material and printing which made the publication of this record possible.

There are probably errors, aside from typographical, in this record. If any are found, I hope that the finder will notify me so that corrections may be made.

It is also requested that anyone who has additional information will send it to me so that a more complete record of the family can be compiled.

JOHANNES BENNETHUM

JOHANNES BENNETHUM is the earliest known ancestor of a large number of descendants, some of whom spell their name BENADUM, some BENNETHUM, and others with a variety of spellings. Records concerning him indicate that his name was originally spelled BENEDUM but through the transition of early American spelling he died under the name of JOHANNES BENNETHUM. His oldest son, John, who left Pennsylvania in about 1838 adopted the spelling of BENADUM after he arrived in Ohio and his descendants use that spelling. However, the descendants who still live in Pennsylvania and those who left at a later period use the spelling of BENNETHUM.

My old family Bible lists him as John, Sr., born March 15, 1765, died December 22, 1828, and Barbara, his wife, born March 6, 1765, died April 23, 1845.

The graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Berks County, Pennsylvania, contains the gravestones of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and BARBARA BENNETHUM, side by side, which bear the following inscriptions:

JOHANNES BENNETHUM, born March 15, 1765, died December 22, 1828
MARIA BARBARA BENNETHUM, born March 5, 1765, died April 23, 1845.

So there is no doubt but that the Bible refers to the same persons who are buried at Womelsdorf.

According to family legend our ancestors were French Huguenots. In support of that legend is a statement contained in the book, German and Swiss Settlements of Pennsylvania, by Kuhns, at page 241:

"Some are of French origin, which by combined German and English influence have received a not very euphonious form:" one of the names listed is - BENETUM.

Montgomery's History of Berks County, Pennsylvania contains the statement, "Among the earliest families of Womelsdorf were the BENNETHUMS."

In support of the theory that the original spelling of the name was BENEDUM, I have found several families now living in Germany and Austria who spell their name BENEDUM and through correspondence I have been told that the family originally came from the south of France and that some of their ancestors had emigrated to America in colonial days.

In searching for early records in Pennsylvania it must be remembered that many of the original records were written in German by persons who spelled the names of the persons about whom they were making the record according to their own interpretation as to how the name should be spelled from the way that it sounded to them. Also, now many of the old records have been translated into English and the spellings again varied with the translator.

As an example, the first record of JOHANNES BENNETHUM is his marriage recorded at the Trinity Luthern Church of Reading, Pennsylvania as having occurred on December 9, 1783. One translation of the original record is as follows:

JOHN PENEDON and BARBARA MUETICH, both of Bern township, married December 9, 1783 in presence of William Busch by Rev C.F.Wildbahn.

Another translation is as follows:

JOHN PEENEDUM and BARBARA MUENCHIN, both of Bern township, married December 9, 1783 in presence of William Busch by Rev C.F.Wildbahn

In this connection it should also be stated that Barbara's name is also found under a variety of spellings, the original apparently being Muench or Munch (with an umlaut over the u) later being anglicized as Minig, Minnich or other variations.

Other early records concerning JOHN or JOHANNES (BENEDUM, BENNETHUM or BENADUM) are as follows:

The baptism records of St Daniel's Church, Robesonia, Berks Co., Pa (commonly known as the corner church) show that JOHN BENETUM and wife BARBARA were sponsors at the baptism of Elizabeth Jeckley, daughter of Mathias and Elizabeth Jeckley, born June 30, 1794.

Bern township, Berks County, Pa., tax list of 1785, recorded in Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, Vol 18, lists JOHN BANIDON as a taxpayer.

Heidelberg township, Berks Co., Pa. tax list of 1792 lists JOHN BENETON as a taxpayer - the first year he is shown in Heidelberg twp, where he apparently lived thereafter.

The census of 1790, page 43 for Tulpehocken twp, Berks County, Pa. lists JOHN BENEDUM with a family of four males, three females and one other person.

Deeds recorded in the Berks county court house at Reading, Pa., show that he was a tanner by trade and purchased and sold several tracts of land, mostly in Heidelberg twp or the town of Womelsdorf between the years 1794 and 1821. The deeds are too numerous to list all of them but the following serve as a sample to show that his name was spelled in a variety of ways but a comparison of the property involved in the deeds proves regardless of the spelling of the name, that the same person was involved. These deeds also illustrate the fact that his name was originally spelled BENEDUM but that it finally developed into BENNETHUM.

The earliest deeds found are those dated Feb 10, 1794, recorded in Book A, Vol 20, page 533, and a warranty deed involving the same property dated Aug 5, 1794, recorded in Book A, Vol 20, page 126, as follows:

Mardin Scholl to JOHN BENEDUM, tanner, of Heidelberg twp., Berks Co., Pa., 24 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres in Heidelberg twp for 787 pounds.

The next is a deed dated Feb 23, 1795, recorded in Book A, Vol 20, page 531.

Conrad and Mary Stouch to JOHN BENODUM, tanner, of Heidelberg twp., Berks Co., 12 acres, 106 perches mentioned as being bounded in part by other lands of John BENODUM, for 290 pounds, 3 shillings, 7 pence.

Another deed dated Nov 14, 1801, recorded in Book A, Vol 20, page 535:

Samuel Wegley and Mary his wife to JOHN BENINGTON of Heidelberg twp., Berks Co., four tracts in Heidelberg twp, one of 11 acres 109 perches, one of 6 acres 7 perches, one of 26 acres, and another of 21 acres 53 perches for a price of 845 pounds, 10 shillings, 6 pence.

In a deed dated April 2, 1821, recorded in Book A, Vol 20, page 507, the land described in in deeds recorded in Book A, Vol 20, page 531 (Stouch to BENODUM) and page 534 (Wogley to BENINGTON) was disposed of along with other lands as follows:

JOHN BENNETHUM and wife BARBARA to Jonathan Waidman. This deed involved land being held for credits and the consideration was $2445.67½.

We therefore see that in deeds which definitely establish identity, the name was variously spelled as BENODUM, BENINGTON and finally BENNETHUM. The name is found spelled in other deeds as: JOHN BENEDUM, JOHN BENTHUM and JOHN BENNADUM.

There are many deeds involving the purchase or sale of property but apparently John did not do well with his tannery business because in 1820 he was required to pledge his land and property for the benefit of creditors as shown by the following deed. Book A, Vol 31, page 238:

This indenture made this first day of March 1820 between JOHN BENNETHUM of Heidelberg twp, Berks Co., tanner, and BARBARA his wife of the one part, and Frederick A. Stultz, same twp, John Miller, Cumru twp, and GEORGE BENNETHUM, Heidelberg twp, Lebanon Co., Whereas, the said JOHN BENNETHUM on the day of the date hereof is jointly indebted to divers persons which by reason of his misfortune and losses he is unable to pay at present, and whereas the said JOHN BENNETHUM has concluded and agreed to transfer all goods and chattles for the good of creditors, etc. property mentioned was tanyard and buildings thereon in Heidelberg twp and other lands including 45 acres, 16 acres, 16 acres in woodland and 47 acres in Born twp.

The records of Dauphin Co., Pa. also show that he owned land in that County. At the time of the deeds, Dauphin County was adjacent to Berks County and Heidelberg twp of Berks Co was adjacent to Heidelberg twp in Berks Co, so land in Heidelberg twp in either county was in the same vicinity. Heidelberg twp was originally part of Lancaster Co but in 1752 part of it was incorporated in Berks Co and in 1785 the remaining part was incorporated in Dauphin Co. Later, after the dates of these deeds, Dauphin and Berks counties were separated by the new county of Lebanon, most of which was taken from Dauphin. The old Heidelberg twp of Dauphin Co is now located in Lebanon Co.

Sheriff's Deed, Book 1, page 117, Jan 29, 1810.

Deed poll by Henry Wolf, esq, High Sheriff of Dauphin Co to JOHN BENEDUM, being 18 acres in Heidelberg twp, Dauphin Co., for 137 pounds, 10 shillings.

Deed recorded May 15, 1812. Indenture made April 5, 1812 between JOHN BENNETHUM, Jr., of Heidelberg twp in the County of Berks, a tanner, and BARBARA his wife, on the one part, and Ludwig Fisher of the same place on the other part. Sells 14 acres, water rights, buildings, ponds, races, etc., for 4700 pounds. Land is mentioned as being bounded by other lands of JOHN BENNETHUM.

JOHANNES BENNETHUM and his wife MARIA BARBARA MENIG probably had thirteen children. The identity of some is well established by records, as follows:

CHILDREN OF JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

The Baptism records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulpehocken,

ANNA MARIA, daughter of JOHANNES PENNETON and wife MARIA BARBARA, born Feb 1, 1795, baptized Mar 15, 1795, sponsors George & Anna Kohl.

HENRY, son of JOHN PENNETON and wife (not named) born March 26, 1799, baptized May 5, 1799, sponsors Michael Munch and Catherine Pickle.

MICHAEL, son of JOHN and BARBARA PENNETON, born November 6, 1806, baptized December 19, 1807, sponsors parents.

The following are shown in my family bible as being children of John and Barbara.

JOHN, Jr., born March 25, 1786.

JOSEPH, brother of John Jr. born June 15, 1799. (However, since the records of Christ Luthern Church show that Henry was born in March 1799 the year of Joseph's birth must be incorrect).

PETER, brother of John Jr., born April 1793.

The following are established by other means, as stated:

GEORGE. his gravestone in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf shows that he was the son of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG and was born February 15, 1789.

ELIZABETH. She is established as the daughter of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG by reason of the records which show that she was the wife of John Leininger and that their son, Peter Leininger, was named as the grandson of BARBARA BENNETHUM when he was appointed administrator of her estate after her death. Letters of Administration, Berks Co., Book 16, page 249. Her gravestone in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf shows that she was born May 3, 1791.

The following are believed to be children of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG but records to establish the relationship have not yet been found:

SARAH or SALLIE, date of birth not recorded and not otherwise identified except by records showing that she married Peter Weiss at Christ Luthern Church in 1822.

DAVID. Born Aug 15, 1800. His descendants say that he was the son of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG. He is buried at Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf.

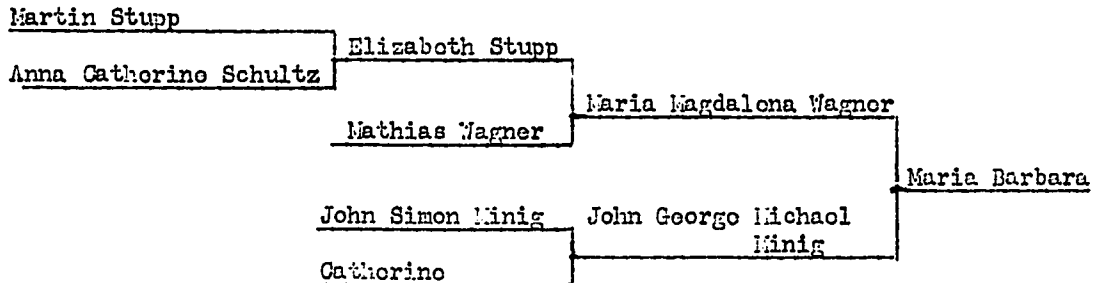

JOHN MINICH. Born May 16, 1809. Presumed to be the son of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG by reason of his middle name. He lived and was buried at the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf.

JA COB. Children of his were baptized at Christ Luthern Church and at Zion Luthern and Reformed Church between 1817 and 1820.

BARBARA. Date of birth not recorded but she is shown to have married Peter Weiss at Christ Luthern Church on February 3, 1808.

MARIA BARBARA MINIG. Wife of JOHANNES BEHNETHUM was born March 6, 1765 and died April 23, 1845 according to the inscription on her gravestone in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Memonasdorf, Pa. According to my old family Bible she was born March 6, 1763 and died April 23, 1845. Her death is recorded in the records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulphocken, at page 441, as having occurred on April 25, 1845, age 80 years, 1 month, 17 days. Her grandson, Peter Leiningor, was administrator of her estate as recorded in Book 16, page 16 of the Administration Records of Berks Co. She married JOHANNES BEHNETHUM on December 9, 1783 at the Trinity Luthern Church of Reading, Pa.

I have not yet personally traced her ancestry but Prof Fredric Kloos, a descendant of her son DAVID BEHNETHUM, Swarthmore, Pa, has made a search of the records and believes that her ancestors were as follows:

Simon (or John Simon) Muench or Minig was born July 21, 1700, and died Feb 17, 1782 and is buried in the old graveyard at Bernville, Berks Co., Pa. His wife, Cathorine (maiden surname not known) is also buried there. The tombstone, not now existing) shows that she was born January 1700 and died December 12, 1773 and in wedlock 46 years with Simon Minnich and had three sons and five daughters.

NOTE: There are many spellings of the name here spelled as Minig. Other spellings are Munch, Muench, Muenchin, Munich, Minch, Ming, Minig, Minnig, etc.

MARTIN STUPP, listed as MARTIN STUB on the list of the 5th party which sailed from Rotterdam, July 15, 1709. Taken from embarkation list from Holland, in Early Palatine 18th Century Immigrants, by Walter Knittle. He is also listed on the New York Assistance list for 1710-1712 as having four adults in his family. The will of Martin Stupp is recorded in the Abstract of Wills, Vol 1, page 109, for Berks Co., in the Pennsylvania Historical Society. He is also listed as one of the original congregation of Christ Luthern Church, Tulphocken. Berks County Historical Review, Vol 4, page 109. Martin Stup was listed as naturalized at Albany, New York 1715/1716. See MacWorthys Book of Names.

JOHN BENADUM, son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Linig, born March 23, 1706 (probably in Berks Co. Pa) and died March 19, 1860 in Fairfield County, Ohio. His surname was recorded as BENETHUM in records in Berks Co. Pa., but after he moved to Ohio in about 1838 he went under the name of BENADUM. He married Nancy Ann (probably Benedum, daughter of Peter Benedum and Nancy Ann Kurtz) and they had twelve children.

The record of his birth or baptism has not been found. Authority for the relationship is my old family Bible which contains the following entries:

John Benadum, Sr., was born March 15, 1765
Barbara Bonadum was born March 6, 1765
John Bonadum, Sr., died December 22, 1828
Barbara Bonadum, his wife, died April 25, 1845.

John Bonadum, Jr., was born March 23, 1786.

The dates of birth and death of John Bonadum, Sr., and Barbara Bonadum, wife of John Bonadum, as recorded in the family Bible, correspond with the dates of birth and death of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Bennothum recorded on their tombstones in the graveyard of the Zion Lutheran and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Berks Co., Pennsylvania.

Further, the sponsors at the baptisms of the children of John and Nancy Bennothum, as recorded in the records of the Zion Lutheran and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa., serve to establish the relationship.

The children of John and Nancy Bennothum were baptized as follows, according to the church records:

NELSON, son of John and Nancy Bennothum, born July 9, 1814, baptized Dec 23, 1828, sponsors - John George and Frau Kaiser.

GEORGE, son of John and Nancy Bennothum, born Oct 21, 1817, baptized Dec 23, 1828, sponsors - George and Sarah Bennothum.

DAVID, son of John and Nancy Bennothum, born Feb 15, 1820, baptized Dec 23, 1828, sponsors David and Christina Bennothum.

MARIA, daughter of John and Nancy Bennothum, born April 2, 1822, baptized Dec 23, 1828, sponsors John and Elizabeth Leininger.

SARA REITH, daughter of John and Nancy Bennothum, born July 11, 1825, baptized Dec 23, 1828, sponsors Henry and Sarah Reith.

HENRY, son of John and Nancy Bennothum, born Sept 22, 1826, baptized Dec 23, 1828, sponsors - Henry and Nancy Bennothum.

ANNA, daughter of John and Nancy Bennothum, born May 5, 1829, baptized Dec 5, 1830, sponsor - Barbara Bennothum.

CATHERINE, daughter of John and Nancy Bennothum, born Dec 18, 1831, baptized January ?, 1835, sponsors - parents.

EMMUEL, son of John and Nancy Bennothum, born Oct 15, 1834, baptized Aug 22, 1836, sponsors - parents.

PETER, son of John and Nancy Bennothum, born April 10, 1837, baptized May 12, 1837, sponsors - parents.

Johannes Bennothum died on December 22, 1828 and six of the children of John and Nancy Bennothum were baptized on December 23, 1828. It is logical to believe that they were baptized when the family was gathered together for the funeral at Womelsdorf. Further, George, David, Henry Bennothum, and Elizabeth Leininger and Sarah Reith were children of Johannes Bennothum and were aunts and uncles of the children whom they sponsored and were also apparently present in Womelsdorf for the funeral of their father.

The dates of births recorded in the baptism records correspond to the dates of birth of the children of John and Nancy Bonadum, except that the Bible shows only the names and dates of birth, but not the names of the parents, as follows:

Nelson Bonadum was born July 9, 1814
John Bonadum was born March 22, 1816
George H. Bonadum was born October 21, 1817
David Bonadum was born February 15, 1820
Mary Bonadum was born April 2, 1822
Sarah Bonadum was born July 8, 1824 *
Henry Bonadum was born October 22, 1826 *
Anna Bonadum was born May 5, 1829
Catherine Bonadum was born December 13, 1831 *
Emanuel Bonadum was born October 15, 1834
Peter Bonadum was born April 15, 1837 *
Isaac Bonadum was born September 7, 1838.

Dates of birth as recorded in the Bible and as recorded in the records of the Zion Lutheran and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf correspond exactly except for those marked (*). The dates of birth recorded in the Bible were apparently written from memory so it is assumed that the baptism records are correct.

It is noted that John Bonadum, born March 22, 1816, and Isaac Bonadum, born September 7, 1838 are not named as being baptized. I have no further record of John so it is assumed that he died before 1828 when the other members of the family were baptized. Isaac Bonadum was probably born after the family moved to Fairfield County, Ohio. He is otherwise shown to have been the son of John and Nancy Bonadum, as will be here-in-after shown.

The family apparently moved to Fairfield County, Ohio and settled in Baltimore, a small village near the county seat of Lancaster after Peter was baptized. The marriage records of Fairfield County, Ohio show that the oldest son, Nelson, married Sarah Meyers on September 29, 1839.

No records were found to show that John Bonadum or Bennothum owned any property in Berks Co., Pa, before moving to Ohio and the property records of Fairfield Co., Ohio do not show when he acquired property but he died leaving several lots in the village of Baltimore. His will is as follows:

I, John Bonadum, of Baltimore, Ohio, do make and publish this to be my last will and testament. Item first, it is my will that my just debts and all charges be paid out of my estate. Second, should my son David outlive me I give to him the horse I now own called Belly, should said horse live after my death. Third, after my death I wish all my property both real and personal disposed of at public sale to the highest bidder and the proceeds distributed equally among my children, the personal property to be sold on credit of nine months and the real estate for one third in hand and the balance in equal annual payments. I hereby constitute and appoint Henry G. Black, of Baltimore, Ohio, my Executor of this my last will and testament. In testimony hercof I have herounte set my hand and seal this 4th day of January AD 1858.

WITNESSES: R.D.Sutphon
Asa Clark

/s/ John Bonadum

The will is recorded in Book 5, page 116, Probate Court of Fairfield County, Ohio and was probated March 30, 1860.

As a result of the provisions of the will to sell the property a petition was filed in the Probate Court of Fairfield County, naming the following as interested parties;

Henry G. Black, executor of John Bonadum, deceased vs

Nelson Bonadum, George Bonadum, David Bonadum, Henry Bonadum, Emanuel Bonadum, Isaac Bonadum, Nelson Allis and Sarah Allis his wife, George Littlejohn and Catherine Littlejohn his wife.

It therefore appears that of the twelve children of John and Nancy Bonadum, only six sons and two daughters were living at the time of his death, otherwise the others would have been named.

The petition shows that John Bonadum died in possession of the following real property located in Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio: Lots numbered 265, 280, 281, 282, 283, 287, 290, 293 and a tax title to lot 289. These lots are shown by the plat of the village to have been located on North Granville St, just south of Pawpaw Creek.

He was very methodical in the keeping of his records because the executor's accounting contains a complete file of many notes for such items as board, lumber, pasturage for his horse, etc., and accounts receivable. Since his wife Nancy Ann had died in 1852 it appears that he boarded with several persons. In 1859 one bill shows that he boarded with his son Nelson at $2.00 per week. Another, that he and his youngest son Isaac boarded with John H. Holland in 1858.

Tombstone inscriptions in the graveyard at Baltimore are as follows:

JOHN BENADUM, died March 19, 1860, age 72
NANCY A. BENADUM, wife of J. Bonadum, died
Oct 8, 1852, age 63 years, 10 months, 8 days.

If the date of John Bonadum, Jr., as recorded in the Bible, March 23, 1876, is correct, he would have been almost 74 years old instead of 72 as recorded on the tombstone.

The date of death of Nancy Ann Bonadum, as recorded in the Bible is October 8, 1857 (or 1852). It is difficult to read because of being blotted. If she died in 1852 her date of birth would have been on or about January 1, 1789.

NANCY ANN BENADUM, born January 1, 1789, died October 8, 1852 was probably the daughter of Peter Bonodum and Nancy Ann Kurtz. See the records concerning Peter Bonodum and his descendants on later pages. I have not yet been able to prove the relationship but information contained in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio, published 1891 by J.H. Beems & Co contains biographical sketches of some of the descendants of Peter Bonodum's son who moved to Carroll County, Ohio in 1838. The reference to Peter Bonodum and his daughter Nancy are as follows: "The Bonodum familt traces their ancostry back to the early settlement of Pennsylvania, whether, Peter, the great-grandfather of the present generation came when a young man. Of the early history of him but little is known save that he came from Germany, and in this country was engaged in farming and stock dealing. He married and reared a family of whom are the following:  "NANCY, married John Bonodum, she also moved to Ohio near Lancaster and reared a son named John and there she died." **

A record of the marriage of Nancy Ann Bonodum and John Bonadum have not yet been found but they lived in the same vicinity in Pennsylvania and the names taken in connection with the recorded history make it reasonably certain that they are the person referred to, as having married and moved to Ohio near Lancaster. One main discrepancy is that John and Nancy are not shown to have reared a son named John although they did have a son John.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN and NANCY BENADUM - FIRST GENERATION

NELSON BENADUM, Born July 9, 1814, died June 26, 1864. Oldest son of John and Nancy Bonadum. My old family Bible shows that he was born July 9, 1814 which corresponds with the baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa. He was apparently born in Berks County, Pa and moved with his parents and the rest of the family to Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio in about 1838 when his younger brother was baptized in Womelsdorf and 1839 when he was married in Fairfield County, Ohio.

Marriage records of Fairfield County, Ohio show that he married Sarah Moyers on September 29, 1839. They had three children:

Adam Bonadum, born date unknown
David Bonadum, born January 15, 1849
Nancy, born March 20, 1851

He entered service with Co F, 17th Ohio Volunteer Infantry on February 20, 1864 at the age of 49 and died of laryngitis while in service at New Albany, Indiana on June 26, 1864. He is buried at the National Cemetery at New Albany, Indiana, Grave No. 1393, Section B.

His widow, Sarah Moyers Bonadum, received a pension under claim No. WO 137236 from June 27, 1864 to the date of her death on April 1, 1889. This claim also shows that he was survived by one child under the age of 16, being Nancy who was born on March 20, 1851.

After his death, his widow and his children as parties, sold property listed as lots No. 167 & 168 in the town of Baltimore, Ohio to William Cook on April 15, 1870. Deed Book 35, page 612, Recorder's Office, Fairfield County, Lancaster, Ohio.

Sarah Moyers Bonadum is buried in an unmarked grave at Baltimore, Ohio. Nothing is known at present concerning the ancestry or date of birth of Sarah Moyers Bonadum.

JOHN BENADUM, Born March 22, 1815 according to the family Bible. I have no further information concerning him and since he was not baptized with the other children of John and Nancy Bonadum on December 23, 1828 at Womelsdorf, Pa., it is assumed that he died before that time.

GEORGE H. BENADUM, Born October 21, 1817, died September 17, 1895. The old family Bible shows that he was born on October 21, 1817. He was apparently born in Berks Co., Pa., because the records of Zion Luthern and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa., show that he was baptized on December 23, 1828 as the son of John and Nancy Bonnothum, sponsored by George and Sarah Bonnothum. George Bonnothum was an uncle, brother of his father. He apparently moved from Berks Co., Pa., to Baltimore, Fairfield Co., Ohio about 1838 with the rest of the family.

Marriage records of Fairfield County, Ohio show that he married Sarah Bonadum, daughter of Mathias Bonadum and Anna Dovo, on July 29, 1847. Mathias Bonadum (1-28-1796/4-6-1886) was a son of Rev George Bonadum (3-3-1766/3-29-1837) who originally lived in Cumberland Co., Pa., but moved to Fairfield County, Ohio in about 1806.

George and Sarah Bonadum had six children

Elizabeth, who married _____ Cooper
Florence Lodomia, born Aug 23, 1856, married Thomas George Swinohart
Melissa, who married _____ Blakely
John Elsworth, born June 2, 1865, married Sarah E. DeLong.
William Wallace, died Oct 11, 1866 at the age 16 yrs, 5 mo, 22 days
Anna, who married Monroe Hoshor

He left a will which is recorded in Book 13, page 284 of the Probate Court of Fairfield County, Ohio. The will was probated on October 7, 1893 and he left his home on Lot No. 184 in the village of Lockville, Fairfield Co., Ohio to his widow and then to his children. The following were named as next of kin.

John Bonadum, son, Lockville, Ohio
Alicio Bonadum, daughter, Lockville, Ohio
Florence Swinohart, daughter, Lockville, Ohio
Cora Plattner, grand-daughter, Lockville, Ohio

His widow, Sarah Bonadum Bonadum (a sister of Mary A. Bonadum who married David Bonadum, a brother of George H. Bonadum) died December 28, 1900 at Lockville, Fairfield County, Ohio.

DAVID BENADUM, Born February 15, 1820, died December 25, 1874. Family Bible and baptism records of the Zion Luthorn and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa both show the same date of birth. He was apparently born in Berks Co., Pa because the church records show that he was baptized on December 23, 1828 as the son of John and Nancy Bonnothum. He was sponsored by David and Christina Bonnothum. David Bonnothum was his uncle, a brother of his father. He apparently moved from Berks Co., Pa to Baltimore, Fairfield Co., Ohio in about 1838 with the rest of the family.

Marriage records of Fairfield County, Ohio show that he married Mary A. Bonadum, daughter of Mathias Bonadum (1-28-1796/4-6-1866) and Anna Dove on January 11, 1844. Mathias Bonadum was a son of Reverend George Bonadum (3-3-1766/3-29-1837) who originally lived in Cumberland County., Pa., but moved to Fairfield County, Ohio in about 1806.

There is no record that David and Mary A. Bonadum had any children but it is said that they raised Colista Ann Bonadum, a younger sister of Mary.

David Bonadum is buried at Baltimore, Ohio and his tombstone shows that he was a member of Company E, 66th Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

Mary A. Bonadum, his wife, was born September 5, 1827, daughter of Mathias Bonadum and Anna Dove. She died March 13, 1907 and is buried at Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio.

She left a will which is recorded in the Probate Court of Fairfield County, Ohio in which she named the following persons as her next of kin:

Elizabeth Martin, sister, Lawrence, Kansas,
Colista A. Lane, sister, Shelbyville, Indiana
E.F.Holland, nephew, Lancaster, Ohio

Kattie A. Barr, grandniece, Carroll, Ohio
Lillie D. Hoshor, grand-niece, Carroll, Ohio
Ada M. Hoshor, grand-niece, Carroll, Ohio
Ida M. Hoshor, grandniece, Carroll, Ohio.

After providing for certain specific bequests and payment of debts and expenses she left her estate as follows: E.F. Holland, one fourth of the residue; to her sister Colista A. Lane, one fourth of the residue; to her sister Elizabeth Martin, one fourth of the residue if living and if not to Elizabeth's daughters, Susie Delilah Martin and Mary Elizabeth Martin; to the five children of her deceased sister Sallie Bonadum (Sarah Bonadum, wife of George M. Bonadum) 1/5 each of one fourth of the residue - John Bonadum, Alice Bonadum, Florence Swinehart, Bessie Cooper, Annie Hoshor.

MARY BENADUM, Born April 2, 1822. Family Bible and the baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa., both show the same date of birth. She was baptized as Maria, daughter of John and Nancy Bonnothum on December 23, 1828 and was sponsored by John and Elizabeth Leininger. Elizabeth Leininger was her aunt, a sister of her father. I have no further information concerning her but she was apparently not living in 1860 when her father died because she was not made a party to the action to dispose of his property.

SARAH BENADUM, Born July 11, 1825 according to the baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa., The family Bible gives her date of birth as July 8, 1824. She was baptized as Sarah Ann, daughter of John and Nancy Bonnothum on December 23, 1828 and was sponsored by Henry and Sarah Reith. Sarah Reith was her aunt, a sister of her father.

Marriage records of Fairfield County, Ohio show that she was married to Nelson Allis on November 10, 1844. They had one son:

George W. Allis, born July 6, 1845.

She was still living in 1860 because she was named a party to the action when her father's property was disposed of after his death.

The following record concerning her and her descendants is contained in a History of Fairfield and Perry Counties, Ohio - Graham, page 267:

Allis, George W., carriage maker and blacksmith, Post Office, Baltimore, Liberty Township. Born July 6, 1845, son of Nelson and Sarah Bonadum Allis. Married Catherine Sullivan by whom he had a family of four children; George born Aug 10, 1866, died Aug 10, 1866; Albert T. born July 4, 1868, Sarah J. born April 11, 1870; Hattie born Feb 6, 1872, died April 9, 1874. His wife died November 11, 1872 and he married Mary Bahala.

No further information.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN and NANCY BENADUM - FIRST GENERATION

HENRY BENADUM, Born Soptombor 22, 1826 according to the baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa. The family Bible gives his date of birth as October 22, 1826. He was baptized at Womelsdorf on December 25, 1828 as the son of John and Nancy Bonnothum and was sponsored by Henry and Nancy Bonnothum. Henry was probably his unelo, brother of his father. The sponcor Nancy Bonnothum was probably his mother because the wife of Henry Bonnothum was named Cathorine.

Records of Fairfield County, Ohio show that a Henry Benadum married Mary Hayden on March 14, 1853. There were other Henry Benadums living in Fairfield County at the time who were doscendants of Rev George Benadum so I can not state for certain that it was this Henry who married Mary Hayden but it seems probable because I believe that I have olininated the other Henrys. I have found no record of them having any children and have no further information concerning him except that he was named a party in the action to dispose of his father's property in 1860 so he must have been living at that time.

ANNA BENADUM, Born May 5, 1829. The family Bible and baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa both show the same date of birth. She was baptized on December 5, 1830 as the daughter of John and Nancy Bonnothum and was sopedored by Barbara Bonnothum, probably her grandmother. I have no further information concerning her and she was probably not living in 1860 because she was not named a party in the action to dispose of her father's property.

CATHERINE BENADUM, Born Dec 18, 1831 according to the baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa. The family Bible gives her date of birth as Dec 13, 1831. She was baptized on January ?, 1853 as the daughter of John and Nancy Bonnothum, sponsored by her parents.

Marriage records of Fairfield County, Ohio show that she married George D. Littlejohn on March 7, 1858 and they had at least one child:

Lizzie Littlejohn, died October 20, 1887

She was named a party in the action to dispose of her father's property in 1860 so she must have been living at that time. I have no further information concerning her except the following:

History of Sandusky and Ottawa Counties, Ohio - Beers, page 772

James C. Curtis was married Jan 14, 1878 to Lizzie, daughter of George D. Littlejohn of Baltimore, Ohio and two children came to them, Eugene born March 11, 1879, died December 22, 1881, and Ethel, born September 15, 1885 is residing at present with her grandmother Mrs Curtis in Allen twp and is attending school in Toledo. The mother of these children died Oct 20, 1887 and Mr. Curtis married the second time in 1892 to Della Green. James E. Curtis was born September 18, 1854.

The fact that Cathorine was not named a parent of Lizzie when Lizzie was married would indicate that she died before 1878.

EMANUEL FRANKLIN BENADUM, Born October 15, 1834. The baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa and the family Bible agree on the date of birth. He was baptized on Aug 22, 1836 as the son of John and Nancy Bonodum (Note the difference in spelling from that used when the other children were baptized). He apparently moved from Berks Co., Pa to Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio in about 1838 with the rest of the family and after his married moved to northwestern Ohio and died at Toledo, Ohio on June 29, 1916 at the age of 81. He was married in 1853 to Pauline Keller and they had ten children:

John Bonadum, twin, died in infancy
Henry Bonadum, twin, died in infancy
Franklin Emanuel Bonadum, born Dec 2, 1857, died Jan 12, 1938
Isaac M. Bonadum, born Jan 22, 1859, died Sept 14, 1946
Lafayette Washingtob Bonadum, born April 10, 1861, died Nov 19, 1934
Ida May Bonadum, born April 3, 1863, died May 30, 1934
Emma Etta Bonadum, born Oct 31, 1864, died July 14, 1939
Dora Amelia Bonadum, born June 8, 1868, died Oct 23, 1916
Della Bonadum, born June 27, 1871, living at 1539 South St, Toledo, Ohio
Jonnie Bonadum, born June 8, 1874, died June 5, 1944

The following article from the Toledo News Bee in 1903 in connection with the celebration of his Golden Wedding Anniversary tells something of his life:

"When I first came to this section, said Mr. Bonadum to the News Bee man, there was a solid forest. Fifty years ago, Baltimore, Ohio, to which I first came was about half Bonadums, while now there are but a few left.

Following our marriage, Mrs Bonadum and I resided in Baltimore, Pemberville, and Gena, Ohio. Then we moved into the wilderness nearly forty years ago near Millbury, Ohio, and there I cleared a farm out of the solid forest. Here we resided for 35 years, up to three years ago when we moved to Toledo, where we have been residing since.

Mrs Bonadum is 66 years of age, while I am three years her senior. Ten children have been born to us, five boys and five girls, all living but two boys. The first two born to us were twins and they did not live long after their birth. We have thirty-two grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. We have had eleven reunions and the one to be held in June will naturally be the happiest in our history.

Mrs Della Bonadum Karchner, a daughter, furnished the following information: After Emanuel left the farm and came to the city he kept a team of horses. He became discontented sitting around doing nothing so he formed a butter and egg route through the country and was known as the "Little Butter and Egg Man". While on the farm they ran a little store in connection with their house. They were also great church people - Methodists.

Uncle Man, as we called him, visited our home several times when I was a boy. He gave my parents a great amount of information concerning the family history and they wrote it down and put it away never to find it again. If I had that information now it would solve many of the problems in tracing the family history. It was he who said that the family was of French Huguenot origin, and it is believed that he said that the family originally settled in one of the southern states before going to Pennsylvania.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN AND NANCY BENLUM * First Generation

PETER BENLUM, Born April 18, 1837 according to the baptism records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania. The family Bible shows that he was born April 15, 1837. He was baptized May 12, 1837 as the son of John and Nancy Bonothum. (Note that they had reverted back to the "th" instead of the "d" as had been used when Emanuel was baptized but they used only one "n" instead of the "nn" as had been originally used in the spelling of the name.) I have no further information concerning him and he was not living in 1860 because he was not made a party in the action to dispose of his father's property.

ISAAC N. BENLUM, Born September 7, 1838 according to the family Bible. There is no record of him having been baptized at Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania so the family must have moved from Berks County, Pa to Baltimore, Fairfield, County, Ohio before his birth or shortly thereafter because his oldest brother, Nelson, was married in Fairfield County in 1839. Records in connection with the settlement of his father's estate show that he was living with his father shortly before his father's death in 1860 and he was named a party in the action to settle his father's estate so he must have been living in 1860.

The Civil War Roster shows that an Isaac F. Bonadum served as a private in the 2nd Regiment of the Ohio Volunteer Infantry, having entered service on August 3, 1863 and mustered out on August 25, 1865. However, the National Archives has no record of him having filed a claim so identity could not be established. I have no further information concerning him.

Descendants of JOHN and MARY BENADUM - SECOND GENERATION

ADAM BENADUM, Son of Nelson Bonadum and Sarah Meyers. I have no information relative to the date of his birth or death or the name of his wife. He was probably born in Baltimore, Fairfield Co., Ohio and later moved to north-western Ohio where his descendants now live. He had three children:

- Floyd Bonadum, 71 years old in 1953, lives at Clay Center, Ohio
- Stella Bonadum, who married ? Plantz
- Lilly Bonadum, who married ? Youngs

DAVID BENADUM, Son of Nelson Bonadum and Sarah Meyers. Born in Baltimore, Ohio on January 15, 1849. Married Cathorine Knight on March 5, 1871 in Fairfield Co., Ohio and they had five children. They lived in Baltimore, Lancaster, Reynoldsburg and Columbus, Ohio. He operated hack lines in central Ohio carrying mail, passengers and freight until the advent of the electric interurban lines. After that he retained his horses and operated school buses and ice delivery routes at Reynoldsburg where he lived until shortly before his death on October 29, 1928 at the age of 79. He is buried at Silent Home Cemetery in Reynoldsburg.

Cathorine Knight Bonadum was born at Lancaster, Ohio on Sept 22, 1854, the daughter of Elias Knight and Phoebe Miller. She died at Reynoldsburg, Ohio on May 30, 1928 at the age of 73 and is buried at Silent Home Cemetery at Reynoldsburg. Her ancestors are as follows: Her grandfather, Branson Knight, came from Plum Creek, Stafford Co., Virginia and her father Elias Knight was born in Stafford Co., Va. but later moved to Fairfield Co., Ohio where he had a farm near Lancaster. Her grandmother, Ann Fritter came from Plum Creek, Stafford Co., Va. and moved to Royalton, Ohio in 1818. Her grandparents on the Miller side came from near Reading, Pa., and died at Bucyrus, Ohio.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

ELIZABETH BENNETHUM. Probably the daughter of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig. Born May 3, 1791, died March 15, 1881. I do not have proof of her birth but records indicate that she must have been the daughter of Johannes Bennothum and Barbara. She was the wife of John Leininger and a Peter Leininger is mentioned as the grandson of Barbara Bennothum when he was appointed Administrator of her estate. Letters of Administration Berks County, Pa., Book 16, page 249. Further, John and Elizabeth Leininger are shown to have been sponsors at the baptism of Maria Bennothum, on December 23, 1828 at the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf. Maria Bennothum was the daughter of John Bennothum (Bonadum) a son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig. Johannes Bennothum had died on Dec 22, 1828 and it is logical to believe that the children of John were baptized when the family was gathered together for the funeral and the aunts and uncles of the children acted as their sponsors.

John and Elizabeth Leininger were also sponsors at the baptism of John Andrew Bennothum, son of Michael and Rebecca Bennothum, born March 9, 1836, baptized April 15, 1836 at Zion Luthern and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa. Michael Bennothum was a son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig.

Elizabeth Leininger is buried in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa. Her tombstone inscription is as follows:

ELIZABETH LEININGER, wife of John Leininger
Born May 3, 1791
Died March 15, 1881
Age 89 years, 10 months, 12 days.

No further information.

SARAH or SALLIE BENNETHUM. Probably the daughter of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig. Record of her birth and dates of birth and death have not yet been found. Records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulpehocken, show that she married HENRY REITH in 1822 so she would have been at the age to have been their child.

Reith was the German spelling of the name which later became Reed. There are many Reiths or Reeds in Hoidelberg township, Berks County, Pa and in Lebanon County, Pa. A church called Reeds Church is at Stroudsburg and practically all the tombstones in the cemetery bear the name of Reith or Reed

Henry and Sarah Reith were the sponsors at the baptisms of grandchildren of Johannes and Barbara Bennothum thereby indicating a close relationship. Records of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa show that they were the sponsors for the following children:

Henry (twin) son of Michael and Rebecca Bennothum, born March 9, 1836, baptized April 15, 1838.

Elizabeth Leininger, who would be a sister of Sarah, was a sponsor of the other twin.

Sarah Ann, daughter of John and Nancy Bennothum, born July 11, 1825, baptized December 23, 1828.

This baptism was one of six of the children of John and Nancy Bennothum which occurred on Dec 23, 1828, one day after the death of Johannes.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

BARBARA BENNETHUM. Probably the oldest daughter of Johannes Bonnothum and Maria Barbara Minig, on the basis of her age and the fact that her name was Barbara which would be consistent with the first daughter being named after the mother. The only records which I have concerning her is the record of her marriage. The records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulphockon, show that Barbara Bonnothum married Peter Weiss on February 3, 1808. Recorded at page 343.

ANNA MARIA BENNETHUM. Daughter of Johannes Bonnothum and Maria Barbara Minig. Authority for this is the record of her birth recorded on page 139 of the records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulphockon, as follows:

ANNA MARIA, daughter of JOHANNES PENNETON and wife MARIA BARBARA, born February 1, 1795, baptized March 15, 1795, sponsors: George and Anna Kohl.

She is said to have married Michael Bollman on October 15, 1813, he being from Heidelberg township, Lobanon County, Pa, and their descendants are now living in Lobanon County. I have no record of their marriage and no further information. See Page 59b&c

JOSEPH BENNETHUM. Son of Johannes Bonnothum and Maria Barbara Minig. Authority for this is my old family Bible which shows Joseph, brother of John, Jr born on June 15, 1799. However, the records of Christ Luthern Church show that Henry was born on March 26, 1799 so the date of birth of Joseph as recorded in the Bible could not be correct. I have no further information concerning Joseph but in the absence of other evidence to prove the Bible wrong it is assumed that there was a son named Joseph, probably born June 15, 1798.

GEORGE BENNETHUM Son of Johannes Bonnothum and Maria Barbara Minig. I have found no record of his birth or baptism but he is buried in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa., and his tombstone inscription attests to the relationship. It is as follows:

GEORGE BENNETHUM, son of John Bonnothum and Maria Barbara Minig, born on February 15, 1789, entered into marriage 2 September 1810 with Maria Noll and lived 8 years together, the second time on 13 June 1819 with Sarah Gais 32 Years and sired 17 children, 8 sons and 9 daughters and died 23 December 1851, lived 62 years, 10 months, 8 days.

The marriage of George Bonnothum and Maria Noll is recorded in Vol 1, page 503 of the records of Trinity Evangelical Luthern Church, Reading, Pa as occurring on September 2, 1810.

The marriage of George Bonnothum and Sarah Weiss, recorded in the records of Trinity Reformed Church, Tulphockon, is shown to have occurred on June 13, 1819.

Deed Book A, page 351, Lobanon Co., Pa, shows a deed dated March 29, 1820/1830 in which George Bonnothum and Sarah his wife of the village of Newberry, Lobanon County, Pa., sell to John Pottinger part of the land being that formerly belonging to Philip Noll who died leaving a daughter Maria, since deceased, who married George Bonnothum. The name is spelled several ways in the deed. In the body of the deed it is spelled BENETHUM, signed by George as BENNETHUM, and Sarah signed by mark to her name inscribed as BENEDOM.

BERKS COUNTY DEED RECORDS:

Book 162, page 124, dated April 1, 1815
Jacob Millor to GEORGE BEENNADUM of Hoidolborg tw, Lobanon Co.

Book 31, page 238, dated March 1, 1820.
John Bennethum and Wife Barbara of Hoidolborg Twp, Berks Co, transfer all property to George Bonnothum and others for the benefit of creditors.

Book 37, pages 126 and 128, two deeds, same parties, dated Jan 14, 1828.
GEORGE BENNETHUM and wife Sarah of Newmanstown, Lobanon Co., Pa, and HENRY BENNETHUM and wife Cathorino of Tulphockon twp, Berks Co, public house keeper, sell lot on east side of Second St in Womelsdorf and other lands to DAVID BENNETHUM of Womelsdorf, tannor and currior.

Henry and David were brothers of George.

The records of Zion Luthorn and Reformed Church, Womelsdor, Pa, show that George and Sarah Bonnothum were sponsors at the baptism of George Bonnothum, son of John and Nancy Bonnothum, born October 21, 1817, baptized December 23, 1828.

John Bonnothum was a brother of George. Johannes Bonnothum, their father died on December 22, 1828 and six of the children of John and Nancy Bonnothum were baptized on December 23, 1828. This was probably occasioned by the fact that the family was gathered for the funeral.

The will of George Bonnothum is recorded in Book 9, page 568, Berks county. The will is dated December 19, 1851 as shows his residence as Marion twp, Berks County. His wife is shown as Sarah and the following children are mentioned.

Mary	Daniol
Cathorino	George
John	Susannah

Administrators were John Stephen MD, and Daniel Dichl. The will was proved on January 1, 1852.

The inventory of the estate of George Bonnothum, filed on January 15, 1852 lists farm equipment, grain, animals, bonds, cash, book debts, household equipment, etc but no real estate at a total value of \$4114.78 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Daniel Dichl was apparently the son-in-law of George Bonnothum. The marriage of Mary Ann Bonnothum and Daniel Dichl is recorded in the records of Trinity Reformed Church, Tulphockon, as accuring on August 27, 1843.

I can find no record of the birth or baptism of the 17 children of George Bonnothum except the following:

Moravian Church, Bethol Twp, Lobanon County, Pa., which shows:

MARIA BENNEDUM, daughter of George and Sarah Bonnodum, born March 25, 1820, baptized April 30, 1820, sponsors - John and Elizabeth Lobergrith.

GEORGE BENNETHUM (continued)

Maria (or Mary) Bonnothum Diehl is buried in the graveyard of Frieden Luthern Church, Morerstown, Lebanon County, Pa along with her husband Daniel Diehl and three of their children. Her gravestone inscription is as follows:

MARY BENNETHUM, wife of DANIEL DIEHL
Born March 23, 1820
Died December 24, 1883
Age 63 years, 8 months, 29 days.

The date of birth as recorded in the church record of baptism and on the gravestone are two days off but I believe that the evidence is sufficient to show that these records refer to the same persons. Further, I may have copied the dates wrong.

The other gravestones at Frieden Luthern Church, Moyerstown, Pa are as follows:

DANIEL DIEHL, born March 30, 1822, died June 20, 1890.
SARAH EVE DIEHL, born March 6, 1860, died June 6, 1883
DANIEL DIEHL, born March 6, 1853, died June 11, 1885.

The births and baptisms of the children of Daniel Diehl and Mary Ann are recorded at Trinity Reformed Church, Tulpchocken, Jackson Twp, Lebanon Co., Pa, as follows:

MATILDA SUSANNA DIEHL, born April 26, 1840, baptized June 10, 1850, sponsors - Anna Diehl and Susanna Bonnothum.

STEPHANUE BENETHUM DIEHL, born November 11, 1847, baptized Feb 16, 1848, sponsor - John Bonnothum.

DANIEL JOSPEH DIEHL, born March 6, 1853, baptized May 15, 1853, sponsor -
Joseph and Mary Dick. (He died July 11, 1885)

MAGDALENE DIEHL, born July 17, 1885, baptized Nov 13, 1855, sponsor -
Jacob Schaeffer.

A DAM FRANKLIN DIEHL, born December 8, 1857, baptized Feb 21, 1858, Sponsor - Mary Diehl.

Date relative to others who were probably children of George Bonnothum.
Records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulpchocken:
Page 380 - JOHN BENNETHUM married M. RIA HOFFLEFINGER, November 22, 1843.
Page 389 - LEROY KURTZ married SUSANNA BENNETHUM, December 21, 1850.

I have no information concerning the other children of George Bonnothum.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

PETER BENNETHUM, Son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig, Born on or about April 15, 1792 and died September 30, 1857. The authority for the relationship is my family Bible which lists, Peter, brother of John, Jr born April 1793. However, the date of birth as recorded is apparently one year off for the reason that the records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulpehocken, lists a Peter Bennothum as dying on September 30, 1857 at the age of 45 years, 5 months, and fifteen days. This would make his date of birth as April 15, 1792 instead of April 1793 as recorded in the Bible, but is sufficiently close to consider that the Bible refers to the same person.

The records of Trinity Reformed Church, Tulpehocken, Jackson twp, Lebanon County, Pa show that Peter Bennothum married Catherine Mayor on June 15, 1817. Mrs Agnes Bennothum Honnoy, a great grand-daughter of Peter states in her autobiography that when her family left Pennsylvania they went to Freeport, Illinois where her cousin Esrom Mayor operated a hotel. This would serve to establish a relationship between the Bennothum and Mayor families and indicates that it was this Peter who married Catherine Mayor.

Gravestone inscriptions in Aulonbach's Cometary, Berks Co., Pa show that a Catherine Bennothum, nee Mayor, born 1796, died 1871, is buried there.

The records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulpehocken, lists the baptism of the following children of Peter and Catherine Bennothum.

ISAAC, born July 27, 1819, baptized Sept 26, 1819, sponsor Thomas
Umbonhauser

MARIA, born October 7, 1820, baptized Dec 2, 1820, sponsor - Maria Mayor.

The records of Zion Luthern and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa show the following baptism of the children of Peter and Catherine Bennothum.

JOHN ANDREW, born April 8, 1818, baptized April 30, 1818, sponsors -
George and Barbara Mayor.

DAVID, born March 3, 1837, baptized July 14, 1837, sponsors - parents.

There is a tombstone in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church Womelsdorf, Pa., which shows the following:

ELIAS, son of Peter and Kate Bennothum
Born 1827, died 1850, age 23 years

Deeds recorded in Berks County, Pa., refer to Peter Bennothum as follows:

Book 55, page 528, dated August 21, 1819.

Thomas Umbonhauer to PETER BENNETHUM, of Bern township, Berks Co., tanner, 6 lots in Bornville.

Book 41, page 79, dated April 1, 1832.

PETER BENNETHUM and wife Catherine of Bornville, tanner, sell tanyard in village to John Miller.

Although the baptism records do not show a Peter Bennothum, it appears that he did have a son named Peter, also. I have no further information concerning the descendants of this Peter Bennothum except the descendants of his son Peter.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

PETER BENNETHUM, Son of Peter Bennothum and Cathorino Mayor. Born in Berks or Lobanon County, Pa in 1823. Record of baptism has not been found. Originally lived in Meyerstown, Lobanon County, Pa and later moved to Womelsdorf, Berks Co., Pa., a distance of only about five miles. Left Womelsdorf and moved to Cedarville, Illinois and finally Frooport, Illinois. Died Decombor 16, 1907.

The records of Trinity Reformed Church, Tulpohocken, Jackson twp, Lobanon Co. Pennsylvania show that he married Sarah Hoffolfinger on June 13, 1843. They had eight children as follows:

- Agnos Bennothum, born 1-4-1845
- William Bennothum, born 6-4-1847
- Sarah Bennothum, born 8-23-1852
- Peter Bennothum, born 1-24-1849
- Eli Bennothum, born 1-2-1855 (celebrated 100th birthday on 1-2-1955)
- Louiso Bennothum, born 5-8-1857
- Alice Bennothum, born 2-6-1861
- Georgo Bennothum, born 12-14-1865.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

HENRY BENNETHUM. Son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig. Born March 26, 1799. Died in 1868. See Page 59

His birth is recorded in the records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulphocken, at page 152.

HENRY, son of JOHN PENNETON and wife (not named) born March 26, 1799, baptized May 5, 1799, sponsors - Michael Munch and Catherine Pickle.

The spelling of the name as Pennoton instead of Bennothum or the other variations appears reasonable in view of the uncertain spelling of those days and the sound of the name as interpreted by those writing it down. The fact that Michael Munch was a sponsor indicates that Maria Barbara Minig (a variation of Munch) was the mother.

The marriage of Heinrich Bennothum and Cathorine Ruth is recorded in the records of Trinity Evangelical Luthern Church, Reading, Pa., at page 686, as occurring on June 26, 1819.

Doods recorded in Berks County, Pa contain the following with referance to Henry Bennothum.

Book 37, pages 126 and 128, two doods, same parties, dated 1-14-1828. GEORGE BENNETHUM and Wife Sarah of Newmanstown, Lebanon Co, and HENRY BENNETHUM and wife Catherine of Tulphocken twp, Berks Co., public house keeper, sell lot on east side of Second Street in Womelsdorf and other lands to DAVID BENNETHUM of Womelsdorf, tanner and currior.

David and George were brothers of Henry.

Book 39, page 150, November 4, 1824. Sheriff's deed of land of William Botz to Henry Bennothum, being land in Tulphocken twp.

Book 35, page 612, May 25, 1826. HENRY BENNETHUM and Catherine his wife mentioned as being heirs of William Ruth, deceased.

Book 37, page 566. Same parties as above except that Margaret Ruth is also mentioned as the widow of William Ruth.

Book 104, page 96. Mentions Peter Ruth died intestate leaving 5 children; William Ruth, Jonas Ruth, Magdalena who married Henry Binkloy, Elizabeth who married Henry Ruth and Cathorine who married Henry Bennothum.

Book 140, page 471, January 31, 1880 JOHN BENNETHUM of Reading and WILLIAM BENNETHUM of Womelsdorf, executors of the will of HENRY BENNETHUM, convey land in Marion twp to Dr Louis Lovingood.

Book 134, page 471, April 5, 1880 JOHN L. BENNETHUM and WILLIAM BENNETHUM, executors of the will of Catherine Bennothum to John Kintzor, being the property HENRY BENNETHUM dood in trust to Dr. William Moore April 7, 1845 for his wife Catherine Bennothum, Recorded in Book 104, pages 359, 360, 362.

WILL RECORDS, Berks County, Pa.,

Book 12, page 82

Will of Henry Bonnothum, dated February 12, 1868, proved Nov 6, 1868. Mentions wife Cathorino and sons John and William as executors, house on east side of Second St in Womelsdorf.

Book 14, page 9

Will of Cathorino Ruth Bonnothum, dated February 12, 1868, proved Sept 2, 1879. Mentions husband as Henry and sons John and William as executors. Property on east side of Second St in Womelsdorf is mentioned.

The only record of the baptism or birth of any of the children of Henry Bonnothum and Cathorino Ruth are as follows: Recorded in Zion Luthorn and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa.

WILLIAM RUTH BENNETHUM, born December 1, 1851, baptized April 29, 1852, sponsor - Benjamin Echert.

KATE ANN BENNETHUM, born May 18, 1857, baptized May 8, 1858, sponsors - David and Christina Bonnothum.

There is also of record another Henry Bonnothum, who may be the son of this Henry, but the identity is not definitely established.

The records of Trinity Evangelical Luthorn Church, Reading, Pa, Vol 3, page 779, show that HENRY BENETHON married Cathorino Rightmeyer on March 14, 1847.

Records of the same church in Vol 2, page 655 show - ANNA CATHERINA, daughter of HEINRICH and CATHERINA BENNETHUM, born March 30, 1849, baptized July 28, 1849, sponsor - mother

Records of the same church also show in Vol 2, page 589 that HENRY BENNETHUM and CATHERINA were sponsors at the baptism of Emma Cathorn, daughter of Henry and Esther Hotorn, born Sept 21, 1847, baptized 11-7-1847.

Deed records in Berks County show a HENRY BENNETHUM, Jr., as follows:

Book 67, page 102, April 7, 1858

HENRY BENNETHUM, Jr., and wife Cathorino to David Woller, property in Reading.

Book 69, page 510, April 5, 1860.

HENRY BENNETHUM, Jr., and wife Cathorino to Ephraim Armstrong, property of Reading.

HENRY BENNETHUM is recorded as the sponsor at the Baptism of HENRY BENNETHUM, son of John and Nancy BENNETHUM, born Sept 22, 1826, baptized December 23, 1825 at Zion Luthorn and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf. John Bonnothum was a brother of Henry. Their father died on December 22, 1828 and six of the children of John and Nancy Bonnothum were baptized on December 23, 1825, with several of the brothers of John, or sisters, acting as the sponsors. This was apparently occasioned by the fact that the family was gathered together for the funeral of Johannes.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MA. RIA BARBARA MINIG

DAVID BENNETHUM. Son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig. I can find no record to prove this but his descendants say that it is common knowledge in the family that they were his parents.

He is buried in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf, Pa. His gravestone carries the following inscription:

DAVID BENNETHUM
Born August 15, 1880
Died March 26, 1889
Age 88 years, 7 months, 11 days.

Records of Christ Luthern Church, Tulpehocken, at page 369, show that he married CHRISTINA SCHMIDT on August 10, 1828. She is buried adjacent to David and her tombstone bears the following inscription:

CHRISTINA BENNETHUM, wife of DAVID BENNETHUM
Born November 5, 1809
Died August 7, 1881
Age 71 years, 9 months, 2 days.

Montgomery's History of Berks County, Pa., refers to David Bennothum.

Page: 875. A tannery was carried on by David Bennothum.

Page 1109: As early as 1790 members of the Bennothum family had a small tannery east of Womelsdorf on the old state road. This interest has been carried on at that point ever since for the past 20 years by Henry J. Moyer.

Page 874: In 1853 Womelsdorf was incorporated as a borough. Officers listed include DAVID BENNETHUM as a member of the council.

The following deed in the Berks County Court House, at Reading, refer to David Bennothum.

Book 37, at pages 126 and 128, two deeds, same parties, dated January 14, 1828. GEORGE BENNETHUM and wife Sarah of Newmanstown, Lebanon County, and Henry Bennothum and wife Catherine of Tulpehocken twp, public housekeeper, sell lot on east side of Second St in Womelsdorf and other lands to DAVID BENNETHUM of Womelsdorf, tanner and currier.

George and Henry Bennothum were brothers of David.

The records of Zion Luthern and Reformed Church at Womelsdorf show that David and Christina Bennethum were sponsors at the baptism of David Bennothum, son of John and Nancy Bennethum, born February 18, 1820, baptized December 25, 1828. John Bennothum was a brother of David. Their father, Johannes Bennothum, had died on December 22, 1828 and six of the children of John and Nancy Bennethum were baptized on December 23rd with several of John's brothers or sisters as sponsors at the baptisms. This was apparently occasioned by the fact that the family was gathered together for the funeral.

Descendants of JOHANNE S BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

MICHAEL BENNETHUM. Son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Brabara Minig. Authority for the relationship is the record of his baptism recorded in the records of Christ Luthorn Church, Tulpchocken, on Page 175, as follows:

Michael, son of John and Barbara Pennoton, born November 6, 1906, baptized December 19, 1807. Sponcors - parents.

I have no further information concerning Michael Bennothum except the following records of baptisms which are probably those of his children. No record of any other Michael Bennothum has been found of approximately the same age.

Record of Zion Luthorn and Reformed Church, Womolsdorf, Pennsylvania.

Henry, son of Michael and Robecca Bennothum, born March 9, 1836, baptized April 15, 1836, sponcors - Henry and Sarah Rood.

John Andrew, son of Michael and Robecca Bennothum, born March 9, 1836, baptized April 15, 1836 - sponcors - John and Elizabeth Loiningor.

NOTE: The sponcors, Sarah Rood and Elizabeth Loiningor were daughters of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Barbara Minig and therefore probably sisters of Micahol to have served as sponcors of his children.

Joseph, son of Michael and Robecca Bennothum, born July 19, 1833, baptized August 18, 1833, sponcor - Joseph Weiss.

Amolia Rebecca, daughter of Michael and Robecca Bennothum, born Aug 13, 1841, baptized Septomber 18, 1831 - sponcor - Maria Loiningor.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

JOHN MINNICH BENNETHUM. Probably the son of Johannes Bennothum and Maria Brabara Minig. Record of his birth or baptism has not been found but by reason of the date of his birth as recorded on his tombstone in the graveyard of the Zion Luthern and Reformed Church, Womelsdorf, Pa., it appears that he must have been their son as none of the other sons of Johannes Bennothum were old enough to have had children by that time and the family of Johannes Bennothum appears to have been the only family by that name in the vicinity of Womelsdorf. Also the use of Minnich as his middle name is a strong indication that he was a son of Maria Barbara Minig, Minig and Minnich being both variations of the same name. His gravestone inscription is as follows:

JOHN M. BENNETHUM
Born May 16, 1809
Died April 23, 1892
Age 82 years, 11 mo, 7 days

ANNA MARIE LENGEL

John Sylvester Bennothum and Michael Bennothum are living in Womelsdorf. Most of the above who are dead are buried in Womelsdorf.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MA RIA BARBARA MINIG

The following family groups are probably descendants of Johannes and Barbara Bennothum for the reason that they lived in the same vicinity as the other known descendants but I have not yet been able to make the connection.

Monroe and Amanda Bennothum are buried at Womelsdorf. John Bennothum (1844-1903), William Bennothum and wife Sarah are buried at St Daniels Church, Robersonia. George Bennothum and wife Mary Kahl, and, David Bennothum and wife Sarah C. are buried at Elias Church, Newmanstown. John Bennothum, born 7-2-1987 lives at 26 Front St., Womelsdorf, Pa., Sallie Haffa lives at 125 Main St., Womelsdorf. Howard Bennothum, son of Frank N. Bennothum lives on E. Memorial Blvd., Newmanstown. Helen Weiso Gosch lives in Womelsdorf.

Descendants of JOHANNES BENNETHUM and MARIA BARBARA MINIG

The following family group is probably descendant from Johannes and Maria Barbara for the reason that they lived in the same vicinity as the other known descendants but a definite connection has not yet been established. Part of the information was furnished by Mrs Fay B. Ash, 1818 Newkirk, Philadelphia, Pa., and part by some of the Bennethums of Mineral Springs Road, Reading, Pa. who were daughters of John Wollington Bennethum. John Livingood Bennethum is said to have operated a hotel known as the Swan in either Meyerstown or Womelsdorf, Pa. This might indicate that he was a son of Henry Bennethum (see page 44) because Henry also was an inkeeper in Womelsdorf. John L. Bennethum is recorded as a son of Henry Bennethum in the will recorded in Book 134 at page 471, Berks Co. Pa. Descendants say that John Livingood Bennethum had brothers named Nelson, William and Henry and other records establish William and Henry as sons of Henry Bennethum. John Wollington Bennethum was a merchant in Reading, Pa.

 Harry Spangler Bennethum is buried at Charles Even Cemetary, Reading, Pa.
 Irwin Benethum lives at Haydenfield, Pa.
 Graco Benethum Jones lives in Philadelphia
 Fay Benethum Ash lives at 1818 Newkirk, Philadelphia, Pa.

The following family group is probably descendant from Johannes and Maria Barbara but I have not yet been able to make the connection. The father of John Jacob Bennethum is said to have been named George and lived in Newmanstown, Pa but is not further indentified. That is the area in which George, son of Johannes and Maria Barbara lived (pages 38-40). John Jacob Bennethum, his wife Kate C Schaeffer and three of their children; George Jacob, William K. and Stewart E are buried at the Elias Church at Newmanstown, Pa. John Jacob Bennethum and his son George Forrest Bennethum lived at 1400 Girard Ave., Rounding, Pa.

PETER BENEDUM and his descendants

The following is the information which I have been able to uncover to date concerning PETER BENEDUM, common ancestor of a large number of descendants living in Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Oklahoma and other parts of the United States.

I have not yet been able to determine the date of his birth or death, where he was born or where he is buried, but if the following records refer to the same person he was at least eighteen years old in 1872 and lived to at least 1824.

The most complete statement concerning him is contained in a History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio published 1891 by J.H. Booms & Co., which contains biographical sketches of some of the descendants of Peter Benedum's son John who moved to Carroll County, Ohio in 1838. The reference to Peter Benedum is as follows:

"The Benedum family traces their ancestry back to the early settlement of Pennsylvania, whether Peter, the great-grandfather of the present generation came when a young man. Of the early history of him but little is known save that he came from Germany, and in this country was engaged in farming and stock dealing. He married and reared a family of whom are the following:

JOHN: Born July 22, 1793 in Lancaster County and married Mary Carr.

HENRY: who married Sarah (or Elizabeth ?) Yantis and lived in Loudoun County, Virginia on a farm adjoining his father's and in 1841 moved to Harrison County, Virginia settling on a farm near Clarksburg where he and his wife both died.

EMANUEL:

MARIA: married John Quick and they had born to them a son named Armstad. They moved to Ohio near Lancaster and there she died.

NANCY: married John Benedum, she also moved to Ohio near Lancaster and reared a son named John and died.

In 1808 Peter Benedum and his family moved to Loudoun County, Virginia where he was engaged in farming and spent the remainder of his life, dying at the advanced age of 94 years, a zealous member of the Methodist Church and an ardent Democrat."

The following official records relative to a Peter Benedum substantiate the family history as above recorded and show additional facts relative to his activities and family. If the records all refer to the same Peter Benedum, it is shown that he was a member of the 7th Company of the 2nd Battalion of the Lancaster County, Pennsylvania militia in July 1782, being then at least 18 years of age, was in 1788 the husband of Ann, daughter of Stephen Kurtz, bought property in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in 1790, sold the same property in 1806, bought property in Frederick County, Maryland in 1806, sold it in 1814 and moved to Loudoun County, Virginia in or near Leesburg where he bought property beginning in 1814 and had disposed of most of it by 1824. It is also apparent that his wife Ann, or Nancy Ann, died sometime between 1806 and 1813 because he is shown to have married Catherine Yantis in Frederick County, Maryland on November 20, 1813.

The earliest record relative to a Peter Bonodum is that showing that he was a member of the Pennsylvania militia in 1782, as follows:

5th Series Pennsylvania Archives, Vol 7, page 182

"A true and exact return of each and every male white person inhabiting or residing within my district in the 7th Company of the 2nd Battalion of the Lancaster County Militia, between the ages of 18 and 53 years. Taken for the year 1782. Signed by John Gloninger, Sub Lieutenant, Lancaster County, Pa, July 8, 1782.

Listed under private 4th class was: PETER BENEDUM

The next record relative to a Peter Bonodum is that showing that he was the husband of Ann, daughter of Stephen Kurtz, when a settlement of the estate of Stephen Kurtz was made in 1788.

Dood Book C, page 371, Dauphin County, Pa, October 14, 1788.
Tripartite between John Kurtz and Christian Yodor, executors of the last will and testament of Stephen Kurtz, late of the township of Hoidelberg, formerly in the County of Lancaster but now in the County of Dauphin, of the first part; and Christian Zug and Barbara his wife, PETER BENEDUM of the township of Hoidelberg in the County of Dauphin and ANN his wife, Jacob Lantz and Magdalona his wife, Christian Kinig and Catharina his wife, John Hart and Mary his wife, they the said Barbara wife of Christian Zug, ANN wife of PETER BENEDUM, Magdalona wife of Jacob Lantz, Catharina the wife of Christian Kinig being the daughters of Stephen Kurtz, and Peter Bonodum being also the guardian of the estate of Jacob Kurtz, one of the sons (a minor) of the said Stephen Kurtz, deceased, of the second part, and Stephen Kurtz, oldest son of the said Stephen Kurtz, deceased, of the third part.

(NOTE: The name was spelled BENITUM in most parts of the instrument)

The estate involved 210 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres located on a branch of Little tulpohocken Creek in Lancaster County, Pa appraised at 2000 pounds. The share of each of the heirs was 285 pounds, 14 shillings, three pence and a half penny.

Ann signed by mark to her name written as ANN BENITUM
Peter signed his name PETER (BENEDUM) or (BENETUM) difficult to decipher the writing.

Peter Bonodum is next found in the records of Lancaster County, Pa, as follows:

Dood Book LL, page 381-390, August 14, 1790.
David Whitmer to PETER BENEDUM, 385 $\frac{2}{5}$ acres in Leacock township for 2,216 pounds, 16 shillings, 7 pence in gold and silver.

Dood Book W. Col 3, page 121, March 22, 1806.
PETER BENEDUM and wife NANCY of Leacock township, sell 213 acres, 102 perches located on the north side of Poquea Creek to James Brisley. This was part of the same land purchased from David Whitmer in 1790.

It is noted that in 1788 a Peter Bonodum or Benitum was shown as being the husband of Ann, daughter of Stephen Kurtz, and in 1806 as being the husband of wife named Nancy. It has been observed from reviewing the old records that it was common to combine the names Nancy and Ann as Nancy Ann, so for that reason it is reasonable to assume that the Peter Bonodum referred to as the husband of Ann Kurtz in 1788 and the Peter Bonodum with wife named Nancy when he sold property in 1806 was one and the same person, and that his wife was named Nancy Ann. There is no record of another Peter Bonodum in the same area. In this connection it is also noted that the Nancy Bonodum referred to as having married John Bonodum is also identified as the Nancy wife of John Bonnothum or Bonadum referred to in all the records as Nancy but the old family Bible gives her name as Nancy Ann and her gravestone carries the name Nancy A. Bonadum. (See descendants of Johannes Bonnothum)

It is therefore apparent that Nancy Ann Kurtz was the mother of Peter's children.

It is stated in the history of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio that John Bonodum, son of Peter, was born in Lancaster, County, Pa on July 22, 1793. The gravestone of Henry Bonodum in the cemetery at Bridgeport, W. Va., shows that he died June 11, 1861 in his 73rd year making him born in 1787 or 1788. Nancy A. Bonadum was born on or about 1-1-1789 according to her tombstone in the graveyard at Baltimore, Ohio which shows that she died 10-8-1852 at the age of 63 years, 10 months, 8 days.

The dates of birth of the other children of Peter Bonodum have not yet been found but the marriage records of two of them have been found in Loudoun County, Virginia.

Henry Bonodum married Elizabeth Yantis on June 22, 1815.

Maria Bonodum married John Quick on October 27, 1815.

Nancy Ann Bonadum, wife of John Bonadum (see also descendants of Johannes Bonnothum and Maria Barbara Minig) is buried at Baltimore, Ohio, (a small town near Lancaster, county seat of Fairfield County). She may be the daughter of Peter Bonodum, mentioned in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties as Nancy who married a John Bonodum, moved to Ohio near Lancaster, reared a son named John and died. This John and Nancy Bonadum originally lived in Berks County, Pennsylvania and their children were baptized at Womelsdorf, Pa between the years 1828 and 1838, the oldest of whom is shown by the records to have been born in 1814. However, although they did have a son named John, I can find no record of him other than the Bible record of his birth date.

Peter Bonodum is next shown in Frederick County, Maryland.

Deed Book WR 28, page 55, deed dated October 17, 1805.

Benjamin Farquahar and others to PETER BENEDUM of Lancaster County, Pa.
Two lots for $3000.00.

Deed Book WR 28, page 264, Deed dated December 14, 1805.

Moses Farquahar and others to Peter Bonodum of Lancaster County, Pa. 20½ acres for 310 pounds.

Deed Book WR 29, page 37, deed dated February 2, 1806.

William Farquahar of Wheeling, Va to Peter Bonodum of Frederick County, Md.
117 acres for 2200 pounds.

These deeds when taken into consideration with the sale of property in Lancaster County, Pa. in March 1806 would indicate that he moved from Lancaster County, Pa. to Frederick County, Md., only a matter of a few miles, sometime during the winter of 1805-1806.

It is apparent that Peter's wife Nancy (or Nancy Ann) must have died sometime between 1806 and 1813 because in 1813 he is shown to have remarried.

Marriage Record Index, Vol 2, Frederick County, Md
Peter Benedum married Catherine Yantis, license issued 11-20-1813.

Peter bought several other tracts of land other than those herein mentioned in Frederick County, Md but he did not stay there long because in 1814 he sold his land in Maryland and moved to Loudoun County, Virginia, a few miles farther southwest.

Dood Book WR 47, page 380, deed dated March 28, 1814.
Peter Benedum and wife Catherine of Frederick County, Md to Joseph Haines, 165 acres for $17,347.91.

Dood Book WR 47, page 554, deed dated June 21, 1814.
Peter Benedum and wife Catherine of Loudoun County, Va. to Jacob Switzer. This was a quit claim deed to perfect the title of the same property mentioned in the following deed dated March 28, 1814 in which his residence was given as Frederick County, Md.

Dood Book WR 47, page 555, deed dated March 28, 1814.
Peter Benedum and wife Catherine of Frederick County, Md., to Jacob Switzer. Consideration of $12,462.50.

By reason of the landmarks mentioned in the deeds it is apparent that the Peter Benedum from Lancaster County, Pa., who bought several tracts of land along Little Pipe Creek in Frederick County, Md from members of the Farquhar family is the same Peter Benedum who married Catherine Yantis in 1813 and sold the same lands in March 1814 to different persons and moved to Loudoun County, Virginia by June 1814.

Little Pipe Creek, mentioned in the deeds, is a part of the northeast boundary of Frederick County, Md. Ladiesburg is the principal town in that area. Loudoun County, to which Peter then moved is just southeast of Frederick County, Md, separated only by the Potomac River.

Peter Benedum of Frederick County, Md is further identified with the Peter Benedum of Loudoun County, Virginia by the following deeds recorded in the court house at Leesburg, Va.

Dood Book 2 R, page 51, deed dated March 7, 1814.
John Campbell to PETER BENEDUM of Frederick County, Md. 2 acres for $1500.00

Dood Book 2 R, page 124, deed dated February 26, 1814.

Dood Book 2 R, page 181, Deed dated April 14, 1814.
Stephen Daniel to Peter Benedum, 260 acres for $12,181.00

Dood Book 2 R, page 255, Deed dated May 26, 1814.
Thomas Binns to Peter Benedum, 217 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres and 255 acres for \$12,757.00

Dood Book 2 R, page 230, deed dated April 16, 1814.
George Fitcher, to Peter Benedum of Leesburg, 2 lots in Leesburg for $435.00

There are many other purchases in and around Leesburg, Virginia, too numerous to record all here but by 1817 Peter began to dispose of his properties, mostly to his children.

Dood Book 2 V, page 117, dood dated Aug 9, 1817,

Dood Book 3 G, page 467, dood dated March 10, 1824.
Peter Bonodum and wife Catherino to Henry Bonodum, 105 acres for $500.00

Dood Book 2 Z, page 244, dood dated Nov 17, 1819.
Peter Bonodum and wife Catherino to John Bonodum, 105 acres for $5,279.00

There are many other doods, mortgages and agreements between the years 1814 and 1824 to numerous to record here but the above are sufficient to establish identity of Peter Bonodum, his wife and children, and show something of the amount and value of property which he had.

The dood records in Loudoun County, Virginia show that Peter Bonodum had a son also named Peter. Peter was not mentioned as a son in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio and I have no other information concerning him.

Dood Book 3 C, page 118, dood dated February 13, 1821.
Peter Bonodum, Jr. to John Bonodum, lots in Leesburg, being property conveyed by Peter Bonodum, Sr. to Peter Bonodum, Jr.

One dood of interest is as follows:

"Whereas the said Peter Bonodum, Jr. has been called upon to give security for his good behavior for twelve months himself in the sum of $300.00 and two securities in the sum of $150.00 each." Henry Bonodum and John Bonodum, securities, execute trust agreement with Samuel Blinceo by pledging lots on north side of Loudoun St, being lots which Peter Bonodum Jr purchased from Peter Bonodum Sr.

These doods serve to verify the names of the children of Peter listed in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio.

John with a wife Mary is listed in the mortgage recorded in Dood Book 3 G, page 246.

Henry and wife Elizabeth are listed in Dood Book 3 F, page 463, and they are also shown to have had children named: Sarah Ann, Manuel, William Henry and Catherine. The History of Harrison and Carroll Counties shows that the wife of Henry was Sarah Yantis, but the marriage records in Loudoun County, Virginia shows that Henry married Elizabeth Yantis. Her name is given as Elizabeth in "The Great Wildcatter" the Story of Mike Bonodum, page 9.

Emanuel Bonodum is shown as Manuel in Dood Book 3 F, page 169, and Dood Book 3 G, page 468.

Maria Quick who had a son named Armstad Quick is mentioned in the same deed with Manuel. The statement in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties that Maria Quick moved to Ohio near Lancaster is not consistent with the records in Loudoun County which show that Armstead Quick, son of Armstead Quick, and wife Margaret Quick was born August 15, 1855 on Blue Ridge Mountain, thereby indicating that Armstead, at least, stayed in Virginia.

Descendants of PETER BENEDUM and NANCY ANN KURTZ

Nancy Ann Kurtz was the wife of Peter Bonodum from at least 1788 until after 1806. She must therefore have been the mother of his children because Peter did not marry Caterine Yantis until 11-20-1813.

Descendants of PETER BENEDUM and NANCY ANN KURTZ

JOHN BENEDUM: Son of Peter Benedum and Nancy Ann Kurtz. Born July 22, 1793 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Married Mary Carr and they had nine children. Moved to Carroll County, Ohio in 1838 and died there on July 16, 1876.

From: Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio - J.H.Beems & Co, 1891.

"John, was born July 22, 1793 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and at the age of 14 went to Virginia where he made his home until coming to Ohio. In his early manhood he was married to Mary Carr, who was born December 7, 1797, a daughter of James Carr, one of the early families of Virginia. The children of this union were James H., born May 10, 1817; Charles E. born April 12, 1819; John W. born September 28, 1821; Martha E. born January 16, 1824; Mary A. born April 27, 1826; Joseph T. born November 27, 1828; Amos K. born August 17, 1832; Isaac F. born January 24, 1834; and, Susanna E. born September 14, 1837. In 1838 the family moved to Carroll County, Ohio making the journey in a wagon drawn by a four horse team, consuming ten days in getting to their destination. They settled near Leesville, where they have since remained, engaged in agriculture, and have always been successful in their endeavors. He was a prominent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Leesville, in which he was class leader for several years and died in the faith July 16, 1876. Mrs Benedum departed this life May 15, 1880 and both lie buried in Leesville.

Their children are as follows:

James H. Benedum, born 5-10-1817, died 4-12-1871
Charles Edmund Benedum, born 4-12-1819, died 8-4-1902
John William Benedum, born 9-20-1821, died 8-30-1899
Martha E. Benedum, born 1-16-1824, died date unknown
Mary Ann Benedum, born 4-27-1826, date of death unknown

HENRY BENEDUM: Son of Peter Benedum and Nancy Ann Kurtz. Died June 11, 1861 in his seventy third year which would make his birth about 1788. Married Elizabeth Yantis in Loudoun County, Virginia on June 22, 1815 by Rev John Littlejohn.

From: The Great Wildcatter, The Story of Miko Benedum - By Sam Mallison, Education Foundation of West Virginia, Inc., Charleston, W. Va., 1953.

"However, our interest in Peter centers in his son Henry, already mentioned as living on Loudoun County, Virginia, in the eighteen thirties. Like most Americans of that period he was a farmer. He was prosperous, and had been able to give his children such education as was available in that part of the state. He had married a girl named Yantis, the daughter of a widow his father had married. (Note: Peter Benedum married Catherine Yantis in Frederick County, Maryland, on November 20, 1813). In the late thirties he suffered severe financial loss, possibly the result of the panic of 1837. The following year he and his wife and their nine children were occupying a log cabin three miles from Leesburg. In 1840 Henry Benedum loaded them all, together with some furniture and farm implements into a covered wagon and two-wheeled cart, and started for the far side of the Appalachians.

The cloven were bound for Harrison County in what is now West Virginia. They used the only transportation artery then in existence - The Northwestern Turnpike, which had been laid out by Claudius Crozet, once Napoleon's Engineer.

The road over the mountains was through heavily forested country for the most part unsettled; and it was steep, and broken by constant use. Men pushed across it to the fertile valleys on the other side. The Benedums travelled for three weeks to cover the more than two hundred miles of their journey. " They camped along side the road, sleeping in or under their wagons, or occasionally used the grounds of some settler's cabin. They cooked their meals over camp fires. They were a tired and somewhat bewildered group when they reached the hamlet of Bridgeport, five miles east of Clarksburg, the county seat of Harrison County.

"*However, he was not long in finding a place that suited him - a rolling farm in the hills three miles south of Bridgeport, near now is the town of Grassli. When he bought the property, Henry Benedum lacked the cash to pay the full purchase price. It took years of hard work to discharge the debt that he incurred at the time. But it was paid at last, and that farm still remains in the Benedum family."

"Five sturdy sons and four daughters were doubtless helpful to the new settler in clearing the indebtedness from his acres. In time, three of the girls married; Rebecca, Mary Catharine and Elizabeth. Sarah Ann remained with the family, as did two of the brothers, William and John. The remaining three went out to follow other occupations. Daniel entered the ministry and became a Methodist circuit rider. Charles studied medicine and practiced in Webster Springs, West Virginia, until his death. For a time he also acted as clerk of the county court. Emanuel Benedum, who had been twenty-two on his arrival with the family in Harrison County, soon took up residence in Bridgeport."

The following is a partial list of deeds recorded in the Loudoun County court house at Leesburg, Virginia pertaining to Henry Benedum.

Book 3 G, page 468, Agreement dated March 10, 1824 between Henry Benedum and wife Elizabeth - Robert Hough - Catharine Benedum, wife of Peter Benedum, Maria Benedum Quick and Manuel Benedum, also mentions Armstad Quick.

Book 3 G, page 467. Peter Benedum and wife Catharine to Henry Benedum, March 10, 1824. 105 acres for $500.00

Book 3 G, page 473. Agreement between Peter Benedum, Robert Hough and Henry Benedum, March 13, 1824.

Book 3 G, page 463. Agreement dated April 16, 1824 between Peter Benedum and wife Catharine, Elizabeth Benedum wife of Henry Benedum, Sarah Ann Benedum, Manuel Benedum, William Henry Benedum and Mary Catharine Benedum, children of Henry Benedum.

NOTE: The above is not a complete list of deeds involving Henry because at the time I checked the records I was primarily interested in recording deeds involving Peter Benedum and did not have time to make a complete record of deeds involving other members of the family. There are a great number of deeds involving the Benedum family.

Children of Henry Bonodum and Elizabeth Yantis

Dates of birth are taken from a family Bible in possession of Byron Randolph, cousin of Paul G. Bonodum. The deed recorded in Book 3G, page 463 of Loudoun County, Virginia the four whose dates of birth are shown as living on April 16, 1824 when the deed was recorded. The other children of Henry whose dates of birth are not shown must have been born after 1824.

Sarah Ann Bonodum, born January 1, 1816
Emanuel Bonodum, born January 4, 1818, died October 27, 1909
William Henry Bonodum, born November 2, 1820
Mary Catherine Bonodum, born October 18, 1823,
Elizabeth Bonodum, died June 13, 1862 in 28th year.

EMANUEL BENEDUM Son of Peter Bonodum and Nancy Ann Kurtz. Dates of birth and death not known. He is named as a son of Peter in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio. He is also mentioned as Manuel in deeds recorded in Loudoun County, Va., in which the children of Peter are mentioned. Book 3F page 468, and Book 3F, page 169. No further information concerning him.

PETER BENEDUM, Jr He is not mentioned as a son of Peter Bonodum in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio but several deeds recorded in Loudoun County, Va. involve a Peter Bonodum, Jr.

Deed Book 3C page 118. Peter Bonodum, Jr to John Bonodum, Feb 13, 1821, Involves lots in Leesburg conveyed by Peter Bonodum Sr to Peter Bonodum Jr.

Deed Book 3C page 119. Peter Bonodum of Leesburg to Samuel Blinco, Sept 26, 1820. The deed cites "Whereas the said Peter Bonodum, Jr has been called upon to give security for his good behavior for twelve months himself in the sum of $500 and two securities in the sum of $150 each". Henry Bonodum and John Bonodum named as securities. The transaction involved lots on the north side of Loudoun St in Leesburg, Va. mentioned as lots which Peter Bonodum Jr had purchased from Peter Bonodum Sr.

No further information.

MARIA BENEDUM Daughter of Peter Bonodum and Nancy Ann Kurtz. Dates of birth and death not known. History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio states that she married John Quick and they had born to them a son named Armstad, and that they moved to Ohio near Lancaster where she died. The records of Loudoun County, Virginia show that she married John Quick on October 27, 1815 and that the marriage was performed by Rev John Littlejohn.

She and her son Armstad are also mentioned in deeds of Peter Bonodum recorded in Loudoun County, Va.

Deed Book 3G, page 468 mentions her as Maria Bonodum Quick and also her son Armstad Quick, deed dated March 10, 1824. She and Armstad are also mentioned in Deed Book 3F, page 169, deed dated December 13, 1822.

Descendants of PETER BENEDUM and NANCY ANN KURTZ

MARIA BENEDUM (continued) The birth records of Loudoun County, Va show that Armstead Quick, son of Armstead Quick and wife Margaret Quick, was born on August 15, 1855 on Blue Ridge Mountain. If the Armstead Quick who was the father was the son of Maria Bonodum, then he must not have moved with his mother to Ohio as mentioned in the History of Harrison and Carroll Counties.

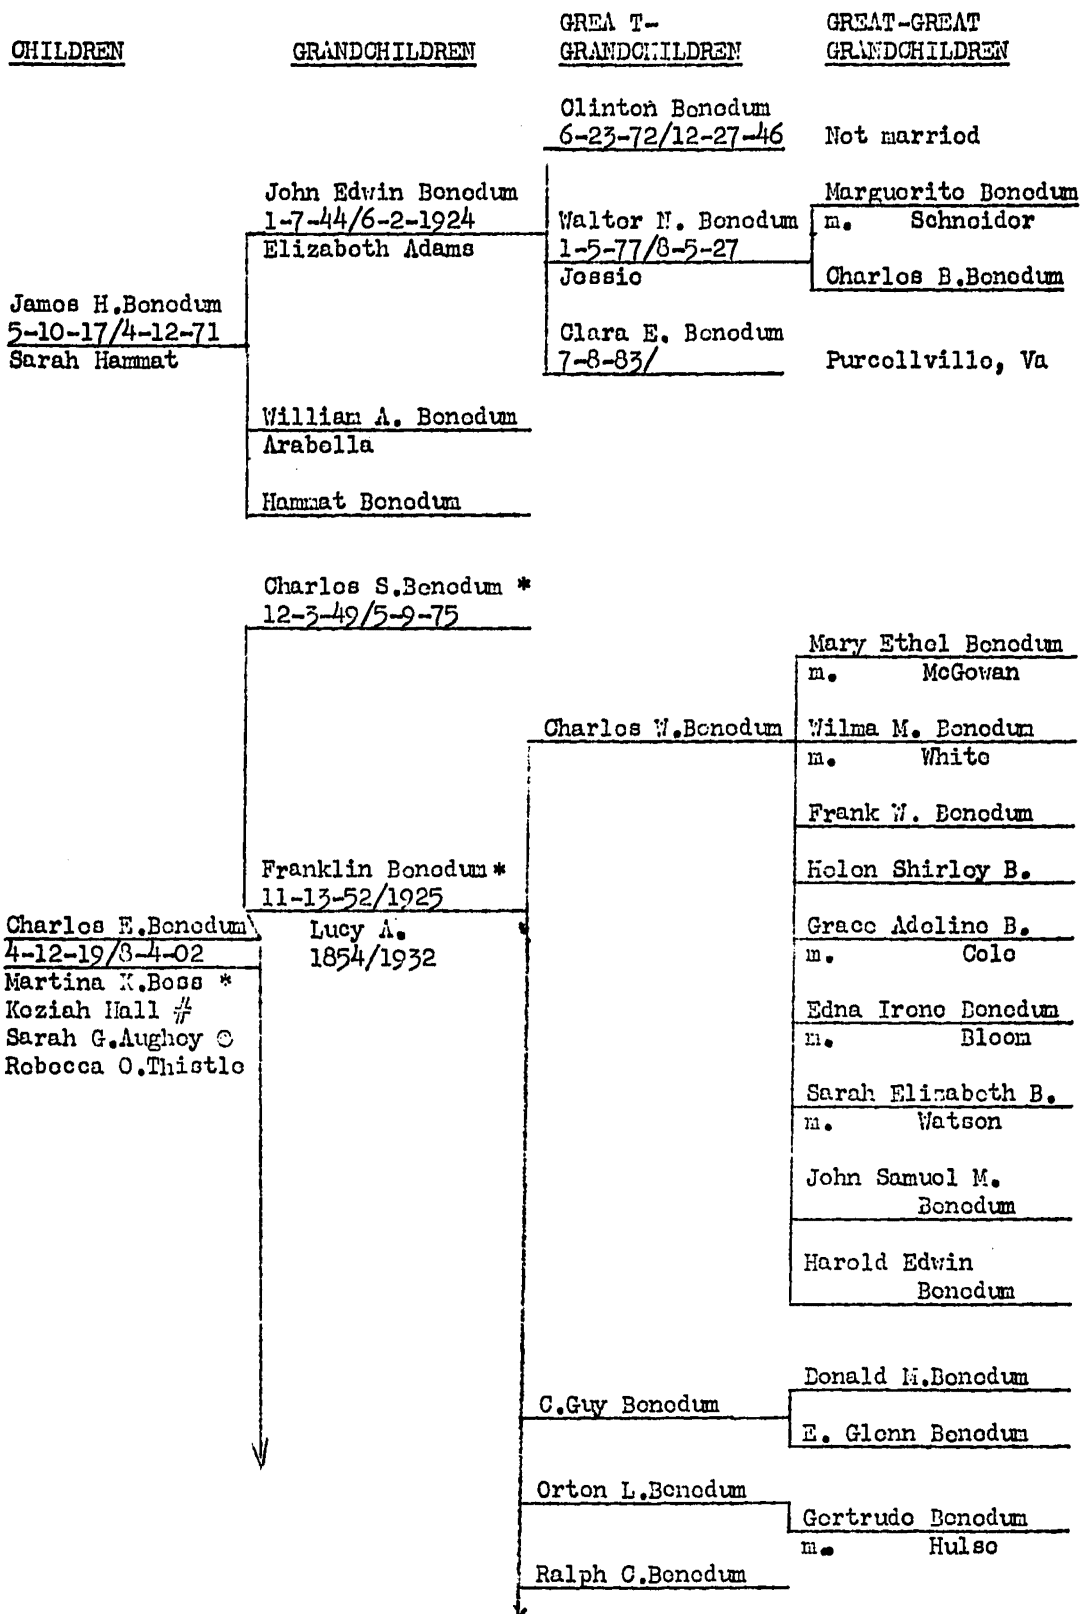

NANCY ANN BENEDUM Daughter of Peter Bonodum and Nancy Ann Jurtz. History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio shows that she married John Bonodum, moved to Ohio near Lancaster, reared a son named John and died. Although I have not been able to prove it, it appears that she must have been the Nancy Ann who was the wife of John Bonadum, son of Johannes Bennethum of Womelsdorf, Berks County, Pa. At about the time they would have been married the family of Johannes Bennethum was living in the southwest corner of Berks County and the family of Peter Bonodum was living in Frederick Co, Maryland., having lived before in the east part of Lancaster County, Pa. The children of Nancy Ann and John Bonadum were baptized in the Zion Luthern and Reformed church at Womelsdorf between the years 1828 and 1837 under the name of Bennethum. The family moved to Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio in about 1838 and Nancy Ann died there on October 8, 1852 at the age of 63 years, 10 months, 8 days, making her date of birth as about January 1, 1789. John Bonadum, her husband was born March 28, 1786, the son of Johannes Bennethum and Maria Barbara Minig, and died in Baltimore, Ohio on March 19, 1860.

Their children were as follows:

Nelson Bonadum, born July 9, 1814, died June 26, 1864
John Bonadum, born March 22, 1816, no further information
George H. Bonadum, born October 21, 1817, died December 17, 1893
David Bonadum, born February 15, 1820, died December 25, 1874
Mary Bonadum, born April 2, 1822, no further information
Sarah Bonadum, born July 11, 1825, Married Nelson Allis
Henry Bonadum, born Sept 22, 1826, no further information
Anna Bonadum, born May 5, 1829, no further information
Catherine Bonadum, born December 18, 1831, married George D. Littlejohn
Emanuel Franklin Bonadum, born October 15, 1834, died June 29, 1916
Peter Bonodum, born April 18, 1837, no further information
Isaac Bonadum, born September 7, 1838, no further information.

For more complete information concerning her descendants see under the descendants of Johannes Bennethum and Maria Barbara Minig.

CHARLES EDMUND BENEDUM Son of John Bonodum and Mary Carr, born April 12, 1818 in Loudoun County, Virginia. Died August 4, 1902 and is buried at Loosville, Ohio.

From: History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio, J.H. Booms & Co, 1891

Charles Edmund Bonodum, retired, with residence in Loosville, Carroll County, Ohio was born April 12, 1819 in Loudoun County, Virginia, a son of John Bonodum, of whom mention is made elsewhere in this work. Our subject when 19 years of age, came to Ohio, and was employed in clearing and farming the home place for about six years. He then concluded to learn the trade of tinsmithing, and in 1854 went to Washington, D.C., making the journey, which occupied seven days, on horseback. Soon after arrival in the city he entered the employ of a tinsmith, and remained until he had fully mastered the details of the business, after which he worked as a journeyman until 1855, in which year he came to Ohio and opened a tinware and stove store in Loosville. This business he carried on until 1889, when he retired from active labor, leaving the business to his sons.

On February 20, 1849, Mr Bonodum was united in marriage with Miss Martina K. Boss who was born August 17, 1826 in Loudoun County, Virginia, daughter of S. H. Boss, who was in his lifetime one of the leading merchants in Loosville. In early life Mr Boss was married to Elizabeth Fox, who bore him the following named children; Mary, Margaret, Martina K., Jane, Julia, Virginia, Sarah, and James. Mr Boss was in religion a member of the M.E. Church and in politics a Whig. On November 11, 1865 Mrs Martina K. Boss Bonodum passed from earth leaving five children, of whom the following is a record; Charles S. born December 3, 1849, died May 9, 1875, Franklin born November 13, 1852, Thomas A. born August 20, 1855, died February 19, 1879, James H. born February 15, 1858, William G. born May 17, 1860.

CHARLES EDMUND BENEDUM (continued)

On February 8, 1868, Mr Benedum was united in marriage with Keziah Hall who was born in Maryland July 25, 1824, and died September 28, 1873 leaving one child, Lillian, born September 3, 1869. Our subject was united in marriage May 26, 1874 with Sarah G. Aughey, who died January 15, 1888, leaving one child Edgar A. who was born December 10, 1875 in New York. On August 21, 1888 Mr Benedum was married in Urichsville, Ohio to Rebecca O. Thistle, who was born in Cumberland, Maryland. In religion our subject is a Presbyterian, in politics a Democrat. *

His children were as follows:

Charles S. Benedum, born 12-3-1849, died May 9, 1875
Franklin Benedum, born 11-13-52, died 1925
Thomas A. Benedum, born 8-20-1855, died 2-19-1879
James Harvey Gartrell Benedum, born 2-15-1858, died 7-9-1935
William G. Benedum, born May 16, 1860
Lillian Benedum, born 9-3-1869
Edgar A. Benedum, born 12-10-1875.

JOHN WILLIAM BENEDUM: Son of John Benedum and Mary Carr. Born September 28, 1821 in Loudoun County, Virginia. Married Mary E. Gartrell on September 18, 1848 and they had four children. Died August 30, 1899 and is buried at Leesville, Ohio. Mary E. Gartrell Benedum died April 27, 1878 and is buried at Leesville, Ohio.

From: History of Harrison and Carroll Counties, Ohio, J.H. Beems & Co, 1891.

"The early life of J.W. Benedum was spend in Loudoun County, Virginia and coming to Orange township with his father he has remained ever since, having been closely identified with the leading citizens in all public matters leading to the benefit of the section. He is a warm friend of education and takes a deep interest in the advancement of the cause of his section; in church matters he has always taken an active part, joining his society at the age of 18, and has had nearly all the offices of the church. A liberal supporter of the church, and a kind neighbor, he is well known and esteemed by all. While his edication was confined to the common schools, he has done much toward educating himself, and is today one of the best informed men in his section. He is a self made man, having made his own success entirely, at present owning 500 acres of as good land as there is in the county. On September 18, 1848 he was married to Mary E. daughter of Lawson Gartrell, one of the early settlers of Carroll County, and the children born to this union were as follows: Mary Elizabeth, born May 21, 1849 (now Mrs J.P. Dutton and living on a farm in Orange township near Leesville, Carroll County, Ohio), Thurscy Adeline, born March 14, 1851, married James Price and living on a farm in Monroe township near Dell Roy, Carroll County, Franklin born May 7, 1854, married Elizabeth Haugh and is now located in Sherrodsville, Ohio successfully engaged in the livery business, and, John Wesley born May 27, 1859, married Ida Randalls, and residing on the old homestead farm in Orange township. On April 11, 1878 Mrs Benedum died and in 1880 Mr Benedum married Clara, daughter of Adonijah and Jerisha (Miller) Crane; no children have been born to this marriage." His children were:

Mary Elizabeth Benedum, born 5-29-1849
Thurscy Adeline Bonedum, born 3-14-1851
Franklin Benedum, born 5-7-1854
John Wesley Bonedum, born 5-27-1859, died 6-30-1932

JOSEPH P. BERNDOM; Farmer, PO Allentown, was born in Leesville, Virginia November 27, 1826, son of John and Mary (Carr) Bonerdom who were married in Virginia, moved to Ohio in 1834, settling in Carroll County, where they died a few years since. Our subject came to this county in 1864 and settled in German township where he still resides. He was married in Tuscarawus County to Miss Elizabeth Holmes, daughter of William and Margaret (Junkins) Holmes who now reside in Hardin County, Ohio. To this union have been born nine children; William, Mary, John, Charles, Margaret, Oby, Bertha, Thirsey and Ida, all now living but Margaret. Mr & Mrs Berndom are members of the Methodist Church of Allentown, Ohio.

OBITUARY of Joseph Thomas Benedum.

"Joseph T. Benedum was born in Loudoun County, Virginia, November 27, 1829; departed this life February 23, 1904, age 74 years, 2 months, and 26 days. Joseph T. Benedum was a son of John Benedum and Mary Carr Benedum who were respectfully of Maryland and Virginia.

John Benedum was a devout member of the Methodist Church and was for many years a class leader. Death overtook him when he was 84 years of age in Carroll County, Ohio. Mary Carr Benedum was likewise a member of the M.E. Church dying at the advanced age of 86. John and Mary Carr Benedum were the parents of nine children, viz; James Edmund a tinner by trade at Leesville, Ohio. William, a farmer at the same place; Martha wife of George Long, Mary Ann wife of John Moore of Tuscarawus County, Ohio, the only survivor of the nine children, Joseph T. the subject of this theme, Amos K. who died in the service of his country, Franklin of Carroll County, Ohio, and Susanna wife of Dr. Brower of Coshocton, Ohio.

Joseph T. Benedum at nine years of age moved with his father to Carroll County, Ohio. There in 1854 he married Elizabeth Holmes. To this union were born, viz; William, a farmer also of Allentown, Ohio; Mary, wife of Thomas Long, Allentown, Ohio; John, a farmer also of Allentown, Ohio; Margaret Ellen, deceased; Charley, a resident of Los Angeles; Bertha, wife of James Kennedy of Allentown, Ohio; Thyrza, wife of Charles Shook of Allentown, Ohio; Obodiah Harvey of Spencerville, Ohio; and Ida, wife of Cyrus Staver of Allentown, Ohio. In 1861 he moved to Tuscarawus County, Ohio where he remained until 1863 when he moved to Allon County, Ohio and soon purchased the farm now owned by William. He lived in and near Allentown until the time of his death. At the time of his death he was living with his daughter Mary Long. His illness lasted five weeks. Erysipelas being the deadly disease which took him away. ***"

GEORGE BENADUM

GEORGE BENADUM: was born March 3, 1766 and died March 29, 1837. He is buried at the United Brethern graveyard near Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio (now called Liberty Chapel). According to the family history his father emigrated from France. He was a tanner by trade and an ordained minister of the United Brethern Church. He emigrated from near Carlisle, Pennsylvania in about 1807 and settled on a farm in Bloom township, Fairfield County, Ohio. His wife was named Magdalena and they had thirteen children as follows:

Magdaleha	Born January 23, 1788
John	Born July 7, 1789
Elizabeth	Born March 11, 1791
George	Born September 16, 1792
Jacob	Born March 12, 1794
Mathias	Born January 28, 1796
Gatherine	Born January 16, 1798
Christina	Born February 3, 1799
Philip	Born October 3, 1801
Peter	Born February 11, 1804
Susan	Born November 10, 1806
Sarah	Born December 5, 1808
Daniel	Born December 20, 1811

I have not yet been able to determine the names of the parents of George Benadum or the maiden name of his wife, Magdalena.

The first record of a George Benadum is contained in the census of Pennsylvania for the year 1790, at page 43, Berks County, as follows:

George Benadum	1 male over 16 (head)
	1 male under 16
	2 females (including head)

George had one son, John, and one daughter, Magdalena, born prior to 1790 so the above census record evidently pertains to him. If that is correct he must have lived in Berks County before moving to Cumberland County, Pa. It appears probable that he was related to the Johannes Bennethum who also lived in Berks County at about the same time in view of the fact that a son of Johannes Bennethum, John Benadum, moved to Fairfield County, Ohio in about 1838. There must have been some relationship or contact between the two families for them to have left Pennsylvania and settled in the same county in Ohio.

The deed records of Cumberland County, Pa., of which Carlisle is the county seat, verifies the family story that he emigrated from near Carlisle, Pa in about 1807.

Deed Book EE, Vol 1, page 363 - dated August 16, 1804, recorded Jan 5, 1820.

George Benadum, yeoman, of Frankford twp and Magdalena his wife sell 80 acres, 132 perches in Frankford twp to Abraham Hickenel, being the same property which was purchased by George Benadum from John Bended and wife Barbara on April 2, 1802. Sale price 567 pounds.

Deed Book Q, vol 1, page 538 - dated May 31, 1806, recorded June 2, 1806.

George Benadum of Frankford twp and wife Mary sell 50 acres and 8 perches in Pennsborough twp (Frankford twp was cut from the original Pennsborough twp) to Leonard Minnich of Hoidelberg twp, Berks Co for 350 pounds, being the same land which George Bonadum purchased from Thomas Parker.

GEORGE BENADUM

In view of the difference in the name of the wife mentioned in the deed this may be another George Benadum but it is also possible that her name may have been Mary Magdalena, as the two names were often combined. It is interesting to note that the sale was made to Leonard Minnich. Johannes Bennothum (3-15-1765/12-22-1828) who lived in Berks County was married to Barbara Minig (Minnich), so the sale may indicate some connection between the families.

History of the Church of the United Brethern in Ohrst, by A.W.Drury, published by the Otterbein Press, Dayton, Ohio in 1924 contains many references to Reverend George Benadum.

Page 297: On June 22, 1810, Newcomber (early Bishop of the Church of the United Brethern) says that he crossed the Ohio River near Wheeling, passed through Zanesville and on the 10th came to the home of Abraham Heistand and George Benadum, United Brethern ministers living in Fairfield County, the former from Virginia and the latter from Pennsylvania.

Page 320: George Benadum, more than anyone else contributed to the building of the Church in the Scioto region. He combined great fervor with peace and persevarence. He became a member of the old conference in 1803 and of the Miami conference in 1810. He died in 1837.

Page 308: He was living in Pennsylvania in 1806. He obtained title to land in Fairfield County, Ohio on July 10, 1806 and from that time seems to have resided and preached in that county, although his residing in Pennsylvania was not entirely given up.

From Pioneers of Fairfield County, Ohio, by C.M.L.Wiseman, at page 109:

"Reverend Benadum of Bloom township, a United Brethern, preached often at the home of Mr. Showley on Walnut Creek.

Deed Book E, page 256, Fairfield County, Ohio shows that George Benadum purchased land from R. Courtright on July 10, 1806. His name was spelled BENETUM in the deed.

His will is recorded in the Probate Court of Fairfield County, Ohio under date of April 17, 1837, Case No 1607, Book 2, page 498. His name is spelled in the will as BENNEDUM or BENEDUM but his signature to the will looks somewhat as follows, thereby indicating that he may also have used the spelling of BENNETHUM:

George Bennetsum

He named Magdalena as his wife and the following children:

John, who was disinherited because of money given to him.

George

Jacob

Katherine Hartman, wife of Henry Hartman

Christina Duff, wife of Reuben Duff

Mathias

Daniel

Magdalena

Philip - executor.

It therefore appears that the other four children, Elizabeth, Feter, Susan, and Sarah must have died prior to 1837 since they were not mentioned in the will.

Descendants of GEORGE BENADUM (1766-1837) and wife MAGDALENA - Their Children

MAGDALENA BENADUM: Born January 23, 1788. Was apparently still living in 1837 because she was mentioned in her father's will. No further information.

JOHN BENADUM: Born July 7, 1789, died before 1837 as his heirs were mentioned in George Benadum's will. No further information.

Elizabeth Benadum: Born March 11, 1791. Apparently died before 1837 as she was not mentioned in her father's will. No further information.

GEORGE BENADUM: Born September 16, 1792. He was apparently still living in 1837 because he was mentioned in his father's will. No further information.

JACOB BENADUM: Born March 12, 1794. Apparently still living in 1837 as he was mentioned in his father's will. No further information.

MATHIAS BENADUM: Born January 28, 1796. Died April 6, 1866. Buried at Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio. Married Anna Dove, daughter of Henry Dove on April 27, 1819 and they had eight children:

Lydia Benadum	Born April 15, 1820
Elizabeth Benadum	Born May 14, 1822
Mary Magdalena Benadum	Born November 10, 1824
Mary Ann Benadum	Born September 5, 1827
Sarah Benadum	Born December 29, 1831
Susanna Benadum	Born November 5, 1829
Colista Ann Benadum	Born September 8, 1834
George Benadum	Born March 11, 1839, died March 15, 1839

Therefore all of the children of Mathias Benadum who survived were girls. His wife Anna Dove Benadum is said to have died on May 30, 1841 at the age of 34 years and 21 days. If that is correct she would have been born about May 9, 1807 and would have been only 12 years old at the time of her marriage in 1819.

CATHERINE BENADUM: Born January 16, 1798. Mentioned in her father's will as being the wife of Henry Hartman and was apparently living in 1837. No further information.

CHRISTINA BENADUM: Born February 3, 1799. Mentioned in her father's will as being the wife of Reuben Duff and was apparently living in 1837. No further information.

PHILIP BENADUM: Born October 3, 1801, died May 24, 1885. Married Mary Loofborough in Fairfield County, Ohio on November 24, 1840 and they had six children:

Charles R. Benadum	Born April 3, 1842
George Benadum	Born September 13, 1843
Thomas Benadum	Born September 17, 1845
John Benadum	Born July 3, 1847
Hariette Benadum	Born January 21, 1849
Catherine Benadum	Born October 15, 1851.

Descendants of GEORGE BENADUM (1766-1837) and wife MAGDALENA - Their Children

PETER CARLISLE BENADUM: Born February 11, 1804. Died September 6, 1895.
A deed recorded in Fairfield County, Deed Book 16 at page 260, dated June 2, 1849 indicates that his wife was named Clarisa. He had the following children:

James K. Benadum	Born 1829
Philip F. Benadum	Born 1833
William S. Benadum	Born 1838
Henry H. Benadum	Born 1835
John R. Benadum	Born 1841
Susan Benadum	Date of birth not known
Mary Benadum	Date of birth not known

Peter C. Benadum is mentioned in the History of Fairfield County, Ohio by Scott as being a County Treasurer in 1857.

SUSAN BENADUM: Born November 10, 1806. She is not mentioned in her father's will so she must have died before 1837. No further information.

SARAH BENADUM: Born December 5, 1808. She is not mentioned in her father's will so she must have died before 1837. No further information.

DANIEL BENADUM: Born December 20, 1811. Married Lucy Leonard and they had one child as follows:

George Washington Benadum	Born August 12, 1838

Descendants of ALLEN BENADUM (1817-1893) and Susan EBRIGHT

Parents of Allen Benadum are not known to me but Clarence E. Bonadum, a grandson of Allen, Attorney at Law of Muncie, Indiana says that Allen Benadum was a grandson of George and Magdalena Benadum. Marriage records of Fairfield County Ohio show that he married Susan Ebright on February 9, 1835. These marriage records also show that William Benadum married Mary Ann Ebright on November 29, 1835. It appears that brothers may have married sisters. A deed recorded in Fairfield County, Ohio dated November 26, 1838 mentions William Benadum and wife Mary Ann, Allen Benadum and wife Susannah, the wives being heirs of Philip Ebright.

From obituary of Allen Benadum:

Allen Benadum was born at Lancaster, Fairfield County, Ohio October 5, 1817. Departed this life at his home in Muncie, Indiana, January 9, 1893, aged 75 years, 2 months and 4 days. ****

Brother Benadum was an apprentice boy and during his apprenticeship, when about 16 years of age, was happily converted to God, joining the M.E.Church. He was a trustee when Simpson Chapel was erected in Muncie *****

Brother Benadum was married to Savannah R Ebright at Lancaster, Fairfield County, Ohio, February 15, 1838 by Rev E. Spurgeon. To them were born 9 children, 7 sons and 2 daughters. Three sons, James, Rufus and Louis preceded him to the better land. The two daughters, Mrs Mary Garrard, Mrs Elmira Drake and four sons and mother are left to mourn his loss.

Brother Benadum moved to Muncie, Indiana in the year 1850; lived here six years, then moved to the farm in Harrison township where they lived until ten years ago, when they moved back to Muncie and have lived here until the present. ***

CLARENCE E. BENADUM: Son of Spencer Benadum and Grandson of Allen Benadum. Attorney at Law, Benadum Building, Muncie, Indiana. Author of Black Shirt, published by Dorrance and Company, Philadelphia, Pa., and Bates House, published by Greenberg, N.Y. 22, N.Y. The cover contains the following information concerning Clarence E. Bonadum:

"Clarence E. Bonadum is one of the nation's outstanding trial lawyers. He comes from a long line of farmers and soldiers. His father was a cavalryman in the Union Army, and the author is indebted to him for his battle descriptions in the book.

Mr. Bonadum was born and reared on an Indiana farm and attended Valparaiso University. At twenty-one he homesteaded land in the Black Hills country and also tried his hand at mining there. Then he crossed the Arctic Circle in search of gold. In World War I he was a sergeant of field artillery. For thirty years he has practiced law, and his courtroom pleas have been widely acclaimed."

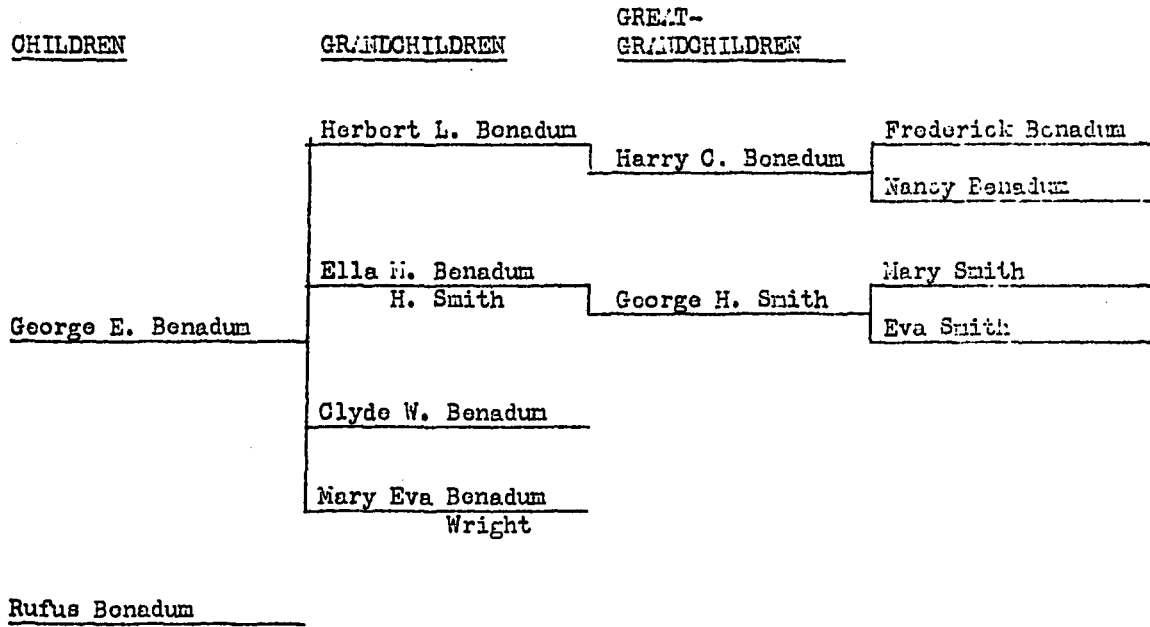

Information for the chart of the descendants of Allen Benadum was furnished by Mrs Ella Benadum Smith, 818 W. North St., Muncie, Indiana.

Clarence E. Benadum is engaged in the practice of law with Ralph V. Cecil in Muncie, Indiana.

Descendants of GEORGE BENADUM (1766-1837) and wife MAGDALENA

There are many other descendants of George and Magdalena Benadum other than those recorded here but they have not yet been sufficiently identified to show just where they fit in. The property records of Fairfield County, Ohio contain the names of many other Benadums. It is believed that most of them are descendants of George and Magdalena rather than John and Nancy because of the dates involved and also because I have accounted for most of the descendants of John and Nancy. (Pages 8 to 36).

In addition to the property records which are too numerous to record here there are the following published accounts of some who are believed to be descendants of George and Magdalena Benadum.

History of Fairfield County, Ohio - Miller
