Notes of Some Allied Families

Dedication

I humbly dedicate this book to my beloved wife, Nina, whose patience and understanding made it possible for me to continue the daily research that was necessary to complete the book. Otherwise, the notes and material that make up this book would still be in my files and would have eventually been lost to posterity.

Her encouragement and sympathy for my "hobby" have made this book a reality.

PREFACE

This book, though not a complete genealogy of any of the four main families is as complete as I have been able to make it in five short years of research. It is hoped that what I have compiled and put into print will be an impetus to other relatives, to someday carry my research farther back into history on all of the families concerned.

No matter how humble our beginning, we should all have pride in our fore-fathers and deep respect for their beliefs, for had they not had the fortitude to seek "new pastures" we might be living in a land not nearly so kind to us.

It is my belief that, no matter how distantly related we are to each other, we should try to keep in closer contact and kindle the family relationship that we are a part of and so often neglect.

Many of us enjoy belonging to organizations that our ancestors made possible, such as the Sons or Daughters of the American Revolution —this is possible for all descendants of Reuben Pyles, for he served as a Private in the Abbeville County, South Carolina Troops during the Revolutionary War — others may prefer the Colonial Dames or Society of Colonial Wars and this is possible thru William ap Thomas, who served as a Burgess from Elizabeth City County, Virginia in 1655 to 1658. No Revolutionary or Colonial Wars data has yet been found for the descendants of the Lucas family alone. It is hoped that someday some form of patriotic service will be found that was performed by one of our Lucas ancestors.

A word of caution to all descendants of our Lucas family. Although there were other Lucases in South Carolina from the late 1700's on down thru the present day; our family cannot be connected with them. To delve further in our Lucas past, we must go to Robeson and Bladen Counties, North Carolina in the late 1700's to 1800 and begin from there, either back into other North Carolina Counties or to Virginia or Maryland. Otherwise, to search South Carolina further will be a waste of time and money, as I have already had the state of South Carolina searched completely in all counties where Lucases were known to have been.

I would be happy to have any correspondence with any relatives who desire to contact me for I have much more data on the families than there was room to put in the book, such as wills, deeds, etc. Someday, if time and finances are right, I would like to do a reprint of this book to add in additional data that I may uncover or receive from relatives. I would deeply appreciate any additional data anyone can send me on the families covered in this book, so that I can bring my records even more up-to-date.

I would like to caution the readers about the spelling of names in this book. In the majority of cases the spelling of names is correct, however, in some cases they are not since the names, dates, etc. were sent in from various people in various sections of the country and many people spelled them as they sound. If I do have someone's name spelled wrong, please forgive me since I did not have the time to write each member personally.

The authenticity for the Dodson records should be accepted as correct since I did not have space to show all copies of deeds, will, marriages, birth records, etc. but have these records in my personal files. The authenticity for the Lucas records such as marriages, births, deaths, etc. have been gathered from numerous sources and especially from correspondence with relatives, personal visits, from tombstone inscriptions, etc. and Bible records and here again my space was too limited to cite each reference. And lastly, the early census records of the various counties where relatives were known to have lived.

Anyone who ever desires to contact me, please follow the instructions below:

Write me in care of my parent's address, which is: 3024 North Woodridge Road, Birmingham 13, Ala. If for some reason the letter is return, then write the Episcopal Bishop of Alabama, c/o Carpenter House, Birmingham, Ala., and ask for my correct address or have them forward your letters to me, as they will always have my correct address.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation and gratitude to the following relatives for their generous assistance in helping me to compile this genealogy: Mrs. Jennie Lucas Webster of Winfield, Ala.; Mrs. Minnie Lucas Davis of Durant, Miss.; Murry Lemuel Lucas of Winfield, Ala.; John C. Estes of Guin, Ala.; Lewis Carr Henry of Washington, D. C.; A. Lewis Dotson of Salt Lake City, Utah; Willard L. Dodson of Wyandotte, Mich.; William A. Waller of Mobile, Ala.; Mrs. L. A. Draper of Anniston, Ala.; Elbert Lee Dodson, Sr. of Tuscaloosa, Ala.; The Rev. Elias Dodson notes compiled and edited by the late Frank Fuller of Memphis, Tennessee; Rochester H. Rogers of Rochester, New York; Murdock F. Lucas of Cayce, South Carolina; U. Hudson Gantt of Pelion, South Carolina, Elmer Elijah Lucas of Leesville, South Carolina; Mrs. J. David Haltiwanger of Batesburg, South Carolina; Mrs. J. Albert Dees of Corinth, Mississippi; Jesse Levi Rish of West Columbia, South Carolina; James Thomas Lucas, Winfield, Ala., and many, many others too numerous to mention. And especially my mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Emmett Lucas, Sr.

The identification of the various descendants of all families undertaken in this genealogy will be by separate families such as Dodson, Lucas, Pyles, etc. and the code is as follows, based upon the decimal letter system:

The earliest immigrant of the family is lettered a; his children are lettered aa, ab, ac, etc. The children of the oldest child are lettered aaa, aab, aac, etc., of the second child, aba, abb, abc, etc.; and so on through each succeeding generation, each descendant having as many letters as the number of the generation to which he belongs and the letters show exactly his line of descent.

For convenience in counting, a space, corresponding to a decimal point, is left after the fourth letter.

Another method, used by myself, in identifying more carefully and easily my descent from the first ancestor of each of the families compiled here, I pick out an ancestor about four generation or so from the first one or the immigrant and label this person with a capital letter N as a fixed symbol, rather than having so many letters such as aaaa aaaa aaa — therefore it could be NNNa with the first N being in reality aaaa aaa.

EARLY DODSON HISTORY

The name of Dodson (sometimes spelled "Dotson") is said to have been derived from the ancient Anglo-Saxon baptismal name of Dod combined with the primordial suffix son and it was probably originally taken by the son or sons of a man named Dod, although some authorities say that it was taken from the name of Daud, Daud being an ancient nickname for David. It was found on the ancient records in the various forms of Daudson, Dawdson, Dodshon, Dodsun, Dodsshun, Doddson, Dodeson, Dodson, Dotsone, Dotsun, Dodsonne, Dotsonne, Dotson, Dodson, and others of which the last two are the forms most generally accepted in America today.

Families of this name were to be found at earlier dates in the English counties of Somerset, Cornwall, Northampton, York, Oxford, Cambridge, Salop, Durham, Sussex, and London, and were for the most part of the landed gentry and yeomanry of Great Brittain.

Among the earliest records of the name in England were those of Magota and Johnnes Dodson of Yorkshire before 1379, and those of William, Elias and Johnnes Daudson of Yorkshire about the same time. However, no connected link of these early Yorkshire lines has been found. There are also numerous earlier records of the name of Dod, from which many of the Dodsons and Dotsons of later periods were undoubtedly descended. Among these were those of one Dodd of the time of the Norman conquest, about 1066, Doda or Dod of the middle of the thirteenth century. Benedict Dodd of Northamptonshire before 1273, and Peter Dod of Oxfordshire as well as Richard Dod of Cambridge and of William Dod of Shropshire at slightly earlier dates.

In the middle part of the thirteenth century one Dotson or Dodson is said to have resided in County of Cornwall, and by his wife, a Miss Hay, he is believed to have been the father of Thomas who married a Miss Molyns and had John who was the father by his wife, Margaret Enys, of Thomas who married Elizabeth Pipe and had issue by her of Robert who was the father, in the early thirteenth century, by his first wife, Thomasine Buller, of Thomas and Elizabeth, and probably issue by a second wife, Mary Pollard.

Of the Sussex County line of the family in England, the Reverend Jeremiah Dodson was living about the middle of the seventeenth century, and his cousin, Sir William Dodson, was councilman and alderman of London in the latter half of that century. Of these the Reverend Jerimiah Dodson left a son by the same name.

About the end of the seveneenth century record was found in the County Durham of John Dodshon or Dodson who was the father by his wife, Frances, of a son named Nicholas who married Frances Foster and had issue by her of a son named John and several daughters.

It is not definitely known from which of the many illustrious lines of the family in England the first emigrants of the name to America were descended, but it is believed that all of the Dodsons and Dotsons were of ancient ancestry, and in many cases, of common origin at a remote period.

Probably the first of the family in America was Benjamin Dodson of Virginia as early as 1635. No definite record has been found, however, concerning his immediate family descendants. It is possible that he was related to the Thomas Dodson who resided in Charles River County, Virginia in 1643, and to the Anne Dodson who was living in Virginia in 1652, but this is not certain.

About 1650, if not before, one Anthony Dodson is said to have emigrated from England to Scituate, Massachusetts where he was married in 1651 to Mary Williams Williams. His children were probably Sarah, Gershon, Mary, Jonathan, Patience, Pethia, and Eunice, and there may have been others.

Of the sons of the emigrant Anthony, Jonathan is said to have married Abigail Gannett and to have been the father by her of Jonathan, Anthony, Deborah, Mary, Sarah, Hannah and Gershon.

About the middle of the eighteenth century two brothers of this family, James (whom some authorities call Richard and William Dodson are said to have come from England to Virginia and settled near Richmond. The first of these brothers is believed to have been the father of, possibly others, a son named William who married Mary Franks and was the father by her of Emanuel, William, John, Squire, Henry, Saul and seven daughters.

The descendants of these and probably other branches of the family in America have spread to practically every state in the Union and have aided as much in the growth of the country as their ancestors aided in the founding of the nation. They have been noted for their energy, industry, integrity, piety, perseverance, fortitude, patience, loyalty and courage.

Among those of the name who fought in the War of the Revolution were Richard Dotson of Virginia, Charles, George, Robert, John, Richard Dodson of Virginia, and numerous others from various New England Colonies. John, Richard, Thomas, Anthony, Jonathan, William, Robert, James and Henry are some of the Christian names most highly favored by the family for its male members. One of the members of the family who has distinguished himself in America in more recent times is John E. Dodson, noted actor, who was born in England in 1857 and came to the United States in 1889.

Probably the most ancient and frequently recurrent of the numerous coats-of-arms of the English family of Dodsons or Dotsons is described as follows;

Arms—"Argent, a bend engrailed azure between two Cornish Coughs proper."

Crest—"A dexter arm in armour proper, garnished or holding a scourge with four lashes, sable, handle garnished, and the lashes ended with spur-rowels gold."

(Arms taken from Burke's General Armory" 1884)

ENOCH DODSON (Nfc) OF SOUTH CAROLINA

ENOCH DODSON, son of ABRAHAM and BARBARY DODSON, was born ca1748. Since his older sister Milly's birth in 1744 is the only birth record for this family found in RICHMOND COUNTY, it can be surmised that the Abraham Dodson family moved northward about 1745 into that part of PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY that became part of FAUQUIER COUNTY in 1759. It is probable that Enoch lived with his father in Fauquier County in 1767 when Abraham Dodson's will was written, and possibly was still there in 1776, the year when his brother GREENHAM DODSON, signed his will in Fauquier County.

Enoch Dodson married ca1775 and from Fothergill's lists of Virginia taxpayers, it is found that he lived in Prince William County ca1782. Not long thereafter, he removed to South Carolina, as did many others from that part of Virginia and elsewhere at about that time. His name appears in the 1790 U.S. Census as a resident of ABBEVILLE DISTRICT, NEAR FORT NINETY-SIX.

On November 5, 1798, Enoch Dodson was granted 261 acres in the District of Ninety-six, Abbeville County, on the head waters of Bushy Creek of Saluda River (S.C. Grants 44, 292; field notes in Vol. 37, 133).

The assumed identity of Enoch Dodson of Abbeville District and Enoch Dodson of Fauquier and Prince William Counties, Virginia, is in agreement with all known evidence; that is, there are no facts that indicate duality. The name of a slave, Forrester, appears in the Virginia will of Abraham Dodson, 1767, and in that of his son, Greenham Dodson, 1776; then again in a sale of goods and chattels of Enoch Dodson in Abbeville County, South Carolina, in 1816. Moreover, 2 of Enoch's daughters married into the Agnew family and among the Agnew descendants it is considered that the Dodsons were from Prince William County.

WILLIAM DODSON (Nfcb or NN)

WILLIAM DODSON OF FAYETTE COUNTY, ALABAMA, was born in VIRGINIA about 1781 according to the 1850 Federal census (Fayette Co., Ala.), and his occupation was given as a miller. It is assumed by the Compiler that this William Dodson of Alabama is identical with William Dodson of Abbeville County, South Carolina, who came there about 1783 with his parents, ENOCH AND ELIZABETH DODSON, from Prince William County, Virginia, and then in 1811 was named as son and coexecutor with his mother, ELIZABETH DODSON, and his sister's husband, SAMUEL AGNEW. Family tradition among the Alabama Dodsons alleges that they left Abbeville District, South Carolina, because they were harassed by Tories after the Revolutionary War. After extended searches no WILLIAM DODSON OR DOTSON other than he of Alabama has been found in South Carolina or elsewhere that could belong to the ENOCH DODSON family. The search extended to Dotson because some of the descendants of William Dodson of Alabama use the form "Dotson." Although persons named Dotson are found in North Carolina in the 1790 census, none of them seems connectable with the Enoch Dodson family of Abbeville, South Carolina, or the William Dodson or Dotson family of Alabama, either by facts or admissible inferences. Some added evidence for the assumed identity is found in the names of 3 of the children of WILLIAM DODSON OF ALABAMA. He named a son, ENOCH, possibly for his father; a daughter, NANCY, possibly for his eldest sister (but could be for his wife's sister); and a son, JAMES, possibly for his only brother.

Nothing is known about the early training or educational qualifications of William Dodson. On August 25, 1803, when about 22 years old according to the above mentioned census report, there was surveyed for him a large tract of land, 750 acres, in Abbeville District on a branch of Turkey Creek and Broadmouth Creek, waters of the Saluda River. The grant was dated January 4, 1804. (S.C. Grants 51, 17; plat in Vol. 40, 198 of Surveys.) Land records that might show what William Dodson did with this land are reported as destroyed when the courthouse burned in 1872. The probate records in connection with the estate of ENOCH DODSON (d. April 12, 1816) show that his son, WILLIAM, named in 1811 as one of the executors, had moved with his family to Alabama in or soon after 1812. These records show, however, that WILLIAM DODSON was present at the sale of the Enoch Dodson effects on October 31, 1816, and purchased goods and chattels amounting to $314.25. Perhaps he had returned from Alabama to share in the preliminary settlement of his father's estate or his actual relocation in Alabama may have been delayed until 1817 when on February 8 Sally Dodson was granted a church letter of dismissal. Again in 1824 when final disposition was made, William may again have visited Abbeville County to receive $218.65, possibly after his mother's death. WILLIAM DODSON was married to SARAH PYLES, daughter of REUBEN AND ESTHER (ROCHESTER) PYLES, about 1798, probably in Abbeville District, South Carolina. With their children they moved to lands on or near Black Warrior River near a small landing place on the river bank that is now known as Tuscaloosa, Alabama. At that time there were no villages settled by white people in that region, and the Dotson cabin was located in the wilderness among the Indians on land that was near the site that became Northport and later was to be included in Fayette County. The entire region was occupied by Indians with scattered white settlers, most of whom were adventurous white traders who swapped their wares for hides. Even so, some of these whites had their wives and children with them and they sometimes built their shacks around some vantage point for mutual protection.

All human habitations were exceedingly primitive in character — merely crude shacks for shelter. There were very few long cabins made properly of split logs or small round poles notched and fitted together at the corners. Usually there was only 1 door and 1 or 2 well-barred openings that served as windows. The fire place was often in the middle of the shack with a "smoke hole" above in the roof. Some had chimneys made of clay and stones when available. The back, the jams (ends), and the hearth of the fireplace were sometimes of rocks and clay, but often merely of well-tamped clay-mud shaped in a wooden frame.

WILLIAM DODSON and his family built a log cabin in the wilderness near Northport. It was set upon a low hill with many large rocks around it, and the water supply was a spring that flowed from the foot of the hill distant probably 200 yards or more from the house. The spring supplied water for all household purposes—cooking and drinking water—and that required numerous trips every day to the spring for water.

Indians lived nearby, so close that their children often played with the white settler's children, on the rocky hillsides, among the trees, and in the glades. Probably the men hunted in the forest for food, grazed a few sheep and cattle, and tilled a "patch" of cleared land for corn to be used for their bread. There were no mills in the country at that time, so corn was probably crushed to a coarse meal in a mortar with a pestle. There were no roads—only trails for animals and men—even horses were not plentiful. All those conditions made labor an unending drudgery, especially for women and children of the family; but hardships were common to all white settlers who went there for land.

It is not known how much land William Dodson acquired in Fayette County, Alabama. The county courthouse was burned in 1866 and all its land-title and other records were burned. WILLIAM DODSON was last mentioned in Fayette County, U.S. Census Record for 1850, dated December 5, 1850. He was living in the household of his son-in-law, JAMES YERBY, and his daughter, SARAH YERBY. His age is reported as 69 years, his occupation as miller, and his birthplace Virginia.

LUCAS GENEALOGY

The Lucas genealogy is a very complicated one and extremely hard to trace, especially our Lucas family which came to Tuscaloosa and Fayette Counties, Alabama from South Carolina. The most difficult problem in tracing our family, as well as Lucases in general is the variation in the spelling of the name—it is found often as Lucas, Lukas, Lukus, Luke, McLuke, McLucas and Lucius.

It is only a supposition based on several years of research on Lucases in Alabama, Kentucky, North and South Carolina, that where the name is found spelled Luke, it could actually be a Welch spelling or could have been changed from Lucas during the 1700's; where the name is found as McLuke or McLucas, it is probably one and the same — McLucas — for there was definitely a family named McLucas who came to North Carolina from Scotland and settled primarily in the Peedee section of South Carolina (Marlboro County) and in Robeson County, N. C. However, where the name is found spelled Lukus, Lukas and Lucius, it is most likely due to the county or state officials, who recorded early records such as deeds, wills, being illiterate and spelling names as they sounded — too, many illiterate people, as well as people of various sections of the United States, had pronounciations of various words sounding different from those in other sections and this also could tend to have caused so many variations in the spelling of the Lucas name.

One word of caution must be given all who are interested in tracing the various lines of the Lucas family, especially the Lucases in the various counties of South Carolina and that is: not to think that all S. C. Lucases came from the Jonathan Lucas group who settled in Charleston. The Jonathan Lucas family is probably the most well known of the Lucas families in America but they arrived in America just after the Revolutionary War and filed applications for citizenship in 1800 and as a result, few can claim descent from this group who came direct from England.

Another factor to be taken into consideration is that all Lucases in America did not come from England as might be thought. The name LUCAS is the oldest name in the English language but many of the early Lucas settlers in America came from countries, other than England, such as: France, Spain, Austria, Hungary, Germany, Holland and the Low Countries of Europe.

Most of the Lucases in the Southern states apparently originated in Virginia or Maryland, with the possible exception of a very few who may have come directly to North or South Carolina, and then migrated Southward, Westward and to the "four corners". There were quite a large number of Lucases to come directly to the New England States, especially Connecticut.

My own interest in my Lucas forebearers began at Christmas in 1955 when I was given the original Bible belonging to my great, great grandfather, Charles Daniel Lucas, who was born in 1771—this Bible was printed in 1833. Being curious as to who all the people were, entered in its birth and death record, I began to inquire of relatives and with each new relative found, I wanted to know more of my Lucas family — as a result, this genealogy of our family. This Bible has always passed to a male member of the family bearing the Lucas name — from Charles Daniel Lucas to his oldest son who came to Ala., John Hasten (Hasting) Lucas, Sr.; and then to John's youngest son, Silas Watts Lucas, my grandfather; from Silas Watts Lucas to his oldest son, James Thomas Lucas; and from James Thomas Lucas to his youngest brother, Silas Emmett Lucas, Sr. (my father); and to me. As a matter of interest to my Lucas kin, I also own the old Kentucky muzzle-loading Long Rifle that Charles Daniel Lucas brought with him to Ala. prior to 1830, besides the original picture made of John Hasten Lucas, Sr., prior to his death in 1894.

It was only thru stories or "tales" passed down in my immediate family that

I was able to fully undertake the genealogy of our family and the most important aid was the old Bible record which gave the progenitor of our Ala. Lucas family. Other extremely valuable aids in the research were my aunts and uncles — Jennie Lucas Webster, Murry L. Lucas both of Winfield, Ala. and Minnie Lucas Davis of Durant, Mississippi, for their knowledge and remembrance of names, places and dates made it possible to continue and make headway. It would have been almost impossible to have ever located where in South Carolina we came from or had relatives, if it had not been for a photograph made in 1900 and owned by Jennie Lucas Webster, before mentioned, of a distant cousin. After a thorough examination of the picture and delicate reproduction of the photo, the name of this relative was made fairly legible (as it had been written underneath his picture) and then thru a series of 1,000 letters to all sections of the country, did one relative recognize the name as kin to him. The name was Macon H. Lucas of Lexington Co., S. C. and the identifier was Murdock F. Lucas of Cayce, S. C. As a matter of interest, this Macon Lucas and one son Henry came to Fayette, Ala. in 1900 to visit my grandfather, Silas Watts Lucas, and upon their return to S. C., Macon sent a photograph of part of his family to my grandfather. It was thought for many years that Macon and Silas Watts Lucas were first cousins but only within the last year was it determined that Macon was a first cousin to John Hasten Lucas, Sr., the father of Silas Watts Lucas. From the identification on the photograph was the detailed search begun, taking me to Columbia, S. C. and vicinity twice with a years time and the employment of a genealogist to do additional research in the counties of South Carolina that I could not reach in my two trips.

The search has been slow and, in fact, I have been able to uncover only one prior generation that was not known — that being the father of Charles Daniel Lucas who came to Alabama and the name of the brother of Charles Daniel Lucas who stayed in South Carolina. It is not known if there were other brothers and sisters nor where they went or who they married, as the records are not too complete. Neither is it known where the father of Charles Daniel Lucas was born but I can only surmise that originally, our group came from Virginia or Maryland. Many of the early wills, deeds, etc. in Va., Md., N. C. will have to be searched before anything definite can be proved — if it can at all.

An old story in our family is that we are "Black Dutch", which I believe to be a corruption of the word Plat Deutch, meaning Low German or from the Low Countries of Europe. This may or may not be true. It is also said that Charles Daniel Lucas and one brother came from England and were tailors by trade and that they had an argument one day over a hive of bees and then split up. This may or may not be true but it is definitely known that Charles Daniel Lucas was a tailor, by a deed made in Marlboro Co., S. C.—however, the deed stated his brother William to be a "Planter."

Supposedly, Charles Daniel Lucas came to Alabama on a hunting expedition, went back to So. Car. and moved his family to Tuscaloosa County prior to 1830— it is definitely known that Charles Daniel Lucas settled in Tuscaloosa Co. as he is listed in the Tuscaloosa Co. census records of 1830 and 1840 and he was also a Deacon in the Springhill Baptist Church in Tuscaloosa Co. in 1830 and 1840 (near Moore's Bridge). He was supposedly a man of large build (6'4' to 6'6') and great strength. Aunt Polly Holliman, his daughter, used to tell of his killing a panther with his bare hands. His grave was dug open about the year 1870 by grave-robbers—possibly searching for skeletons for medical schools but they were scared off and his remains re-interred. This grave is located on a high hill on the Mince Hughes place about 7 miles from Fayette, Ala. towards Newtonville, Ala. and it is surrounded by six Indians graves. I have personally seen this grave and also the remnants of the chimney of the house he once lived in.

It is said by my family that about 1850, his son John Hasten Lucas, Sr. got mad at his father for striking his son, Lorenza Lucas, with a cane (the son of J. H. Lucas, Sr.) and that John, who with his wife and children lived with his parents, packed up his family and his mother, Mary, and moved to upper Fayette County, leaving Charles by himself. Mary Lucas, the wife of Charles Daniel is buried in an unmarked grave in Springhill Baptist Church Cemetery in Fayette Co., Ala. as are John H. Lucas, Sr. and his wife. However, the graves of John and Jane Lucas are marked but the tombstones are crumbling with age.

One of the most difficult things about our Alabama family is that, according to Alabama census records, John Hasten Lucas, Sr. and his brothers, William and Uriah were supposedly born in Kentucky while their sister, Mary, was born in South Carolina. I have never been able, as yet, to find any trace of them in Kentucky or of Charles Daniel, tho' there were several Charles Lucases in Kentucky in early 1800's (Fayette, Bourbon and Warren Cos., Ky.) but were not our group.

Please refer to the footnote section giving copies of wills, deeds, etc. and other valuable records of our own group, as well as those of other Lucas families, which can be used as a basis for further research into the Lucas family for any who are interested. By doing this, much time and expense can be saved in not having to do the basic research I have already undertaken.

Silas Watts Lucas was born and died in Fayette County, Alabama. He served for many years as Justice of the Peace in his community and was also the local "tooth-puller" for his area — since, in the early days, dentists were scarce and these services had to be rendered by various members of the community. He & his wife were members of Old Union Primitive Baptist Church in Fayette County, Ala. In fact, his father-in-law, Lemuel Dodson was one of the founders of this church.

NOTES ON THE LUCAS AND MIKELL FAMILIES OF THE PEEDEE COUNTY

BY WILLIAM LUCAS (1778-1851)

Contributed by A. S. Salley, Jr.

William Lucas, the author of these notes, left South Carolina some time prior to 1805. He subsequently became a citizen of Franklin County, Alabama, serving as a state senator in 1821. (Willis Brewer, Alabama, Her History, Resources, War Record, and Public Men, p. 252)

I, William Lucas, was born on Peedee River, in what is now Chesterfield County, S. C., near the spot where my father, John Lucas was born, on May 12, 1778. My grandfather, by my father's side, was named William Lucas, and was born in the province of Delaware. He descended from English parents; he came to South Carolina when young and married Alice Perkins, who was born on what was called "The Welsh Tract", in Pennsylvania, now Delaware. (She had come to S. C. when young; was descended from Welsh parents; had a brother named Reen Perkins, besides others not recollected. She had a nephew named David Perkins, and was related to the Jameses, Monaghans, Ellisons and Limmermons.)

I had one brother, John, and five sisters: Margaret, Ann, Mary, Sarah and Elizabeth. My sister Margaret married her cousin James McIntosh, and Sarah married Alex. Brown. Elizabeth married Jeremiah Wilson and had several children. After my mother's death, my father married Clarissa Denmark and had a number of children.

LUKE OF GA., RELATED TO LUKE IN MARLBORO CO., S. C.

LUKE, Daniel M. 1778-1858 IRVIN COUNTY

DANIEL M. LUKE was born in South Carolina on Little Peedee River (Note by LBJ: Marion County) in 1778 (1850 Census says 1783) of Scotch ancestry. The name was originally "MacLuke." He grew up and married in South Carolina, Miss Elizabeth Barrentine, daughter of William Barrentine, a Revolutionary soldier of that state. After her death about 1808 in South Carolina, he came to Georgia and married Miss Sarah Horton, born 1815 in North Carolina. In the following list of children the first three were by the first wife and the remainder by the second wife:

1. Daniel M., Jr.—b. 1803, S. C.; m. Mrs. Sarah Miller Dutter.
2. Elizabeth—b. 1804, S. C.; m. 1st Abraham L. McCall, son of David, R. S. (Rev. Soldier) m. 2nd John S. Turner
3. Joshua A.—b. 1805, S. C.; m. Nancy Tomberlin, dau. of John
4. Jasper Marion—b. 1813, Ga.; m. Sarah Land, dau. of John R.
5. Jesse Jackson—b. 1816, Ga.; m. Jane Fletcher, dau. of Joseph
6. Mary—b. 1819, Ga.; m. Samuel Young, 12 Feb. 1846
7. James Clark—b. 1823, Ga.; m. Malinda Covington, 30 July 1844, dau. of Silas.
8. David Perry—b. 1825, Ga.; m. 1st Sarah Abigail Turner, dau. of David; m. 2nd Sarah M. Byrd, dau. of N. W.
9. John G.—b. 1829, Ga.; m. Matilda Covington (Note by LBJ: A Marlboro name.)
10. John Washington Luke—b. 1811; m. Becky Spivey.

Daniel M. Luke came with his first wife's father, William Barrentine, and others of the family connection, to Irwin County about 1823 and settled in the portion now in Wilcox County. He lived there until his second wife's death when he came, in 1845, to present Berrien County and made his home with his son, Jasper, living there until his death in 1858. Jasper M. Luke lived near the head of Ten-mile Bay in Berrien County, and his father was buried in a little cemetery on this farm. Two others of his children, viz., David P. and David J., Jr. (Note: Daniel M. ? moved to Berrien County also, but the others remained in Irwin and were annexed to Wilcox when it was formed out of Irwin in 1854.

Mr. Luke was one of the earliest school-teachers in Irwin County, and supplemented his meager income from this source by farming. He was a member of the Baptist Church in his old home community but on moving to present Berrien County to live with his son, he affiliated by letter with Flat Creek Primitive Baptist Church March 10, 1855, and died a member. He served as Justice of the Peace, etc., was Coroner of Irwin County 1837-1840, and served as sheriff 1840-1842.

CENSUS REFERENCES: 1830, 1840, 1850, Irwin.

Vol. III, p. 198, says Daniel M. Luke, Jr. was listed in 1850 Census as "Mack" Luke, a name he was usually called by.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of Nathaniel Rochester

The Founder of Rochester, N. Y.

I WAS born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, on the 21st of February, 1752. John Rochester, my father, was born at the same place, and died in 1756. Nicholas Rochester, his father, was born in England, and died on the farm where I was born, leaving two sons, John and William.

My mother's name was Hester Thrift, daughter of William Thrift, of Richmond County, adjoining Westmoreland. About 1757, she married a second husband, Thomas Critcher, who removed with his family to Granville County, North Carolina, about 1763.

I had but one full brother, John, who was six years older than I. He returned to Westmoreland County, Virginia, in 1766, married Ann Jordan and settled on the paternal estate, which he inherited as heir-at-law to my father's real estate, father dying intestate.

I had three full sisters, Ann, Phillis and Hester. The first married Benjamin Raglan and removed to the State of Georgia. The second married Samuel Moore and remained in Granville, North Carolina, and the third married Reuben Pyles, and removed to Ninety-Six, Abbeville County, South Carolina. Soon after the death of my brother, his oldest son removed to Danville, in Kentucky, and took all his brothers and sisters with him.

My step-father, Thomas Critcher, died in Granville County, North Carolina, in 1778, leaving three sons, Thomas, James and John, and two daughters, who married two brothers, Elijah and Charles Mitchell. My mother died in 1784, after raising ten children and losing five when they were young.

THRIFT. (FRITH)

"I leave to my son Nathaniel Thrift and my daughter Esther Critcher $1.00 apiece, if they come themselves to receive it." In this will William Thrift does not mention his wife, therefore, we conclude she pre-deceased him.

The wife of William Thrift was Anne Gower, (pronounced Gore) daughter of John Gower, Richmond Co., Va. Will Book No. 5, (1725-1753) page 20. This will is dated 12/3/1725 and probated 10/3/1728. In this will John Gore bequeaths to his daughter Anne Thrift a negro boy names Chace. Also he bequeaths to his daughter Winnifred Gower a negro named Lime. William Thrift was born in 1699.

The identity of Ann Gower Thrift is further established by the will of her sister, Winnifred Gower who died unmarried and bequeathed to her sister certain personal property. It, also, mentions her brother William Thrift. This will is in Richmond Co., Va. Will Book No. 5. Page No. 81.

Daughter Joan Williams and Rebecca Williams, who was God-Daughter. (Grand Daughter.) Witnessed by; Rupert Beckerherd and Lewis Jones. Wife, Elizabeth above, later married William Davis.

Will of Nathaniel Thrift is dated 2/25/1735/6. Richmond Co., Va. Will Book No. 5. Page No. 276.

Nathaniel Thrift, the son of Nathaniel Frith was married to Elizabeth Parsons.

Esther Thrift (Rochester Critcher) died 1773 in Westmoreland Co., Va. and was born 9/6/1726.

William Thrift was born 9/20/1699 and died 1776 in North Farnham Parish, Richmond Co., Virginia.

Will of Elizabeth Parsons Thrift (and Nathaniel) Richmond Co., Va. Will Book No. 5, Page No. 276 dated 2/25/1735/36.

Esther Hester Thrift's birth recorded in North Farnham Parish register in Virginia State Library.

William and Anne Thrift had three daughters all christened Esther, the first two died in infancy.

WILLIAM AP THOMAS

Will of William Ap Thomas is found in the Manuscripts Division of the Library of Congress. It occurs in a land clause case involving the sons of Ann AP Thomas Parsons Robinson. It involves: Will proved 18 June 1679.

William AP Thomas died 1678 or 1679 and left a will dated 1678 and probated 1679 in which he devised land in Elizabeth City Co., Va., to his daughter, Ann AP Thomas. After the death of John Parsons, father of Ann's three children (i.e., William John and Elizabeth) and while Anne was a widow, she deeded the land which her father left her to her two sons with the reservation that she was to preserve a life interest in the income from the said land.

John Parsons was of New Poquoson Parish, York Co., Va. and the property called Beaver Dams and was bounded by William Hampton's patent assigned to William Ap Thomas of 12/11/1640.

Ann AP Thomas (Parsons-Robinson) deeded 5/20/1720 and assigned the land to her son William Parsons. Anne died in 1742 and John Parsons Jr., (brother to William) died in 1753 leaving issue John Parsons III, his eldest son.

John and Ann ap Thomas Parsons deeded 400 acres of land to William Parsons, and this property is in question because John Parsons 3rd brings suit against his uncle William Parsons. Judgement granted for the defendant on 4/10/1763.

All of this became part of records of the British Colonial office and is in Library of Congress.

"ap" means either "son of" or "Junior". It is a Welch particle used before the people of that country had surnames.

Also, see Va., Miscellaneous Papers, 1675-1770 — Sheets Number 39, 40, and 41.

PARSONS

Will of Anne Robinson, Widow Elizabeth City Co., Va. — Abstract, Dated 23 July 1736, Probated 29 Nov. 1741.

LEGATEES NAMED IN FOLLOWING ORDER:

Son — John Parsons. Grandson — Son of John Parsons — Grand-daughter Mary Parsons, daughter of John Parsons. — Son — William Parsons — "loving" Daughter — Elizabeth Thrift (26 shillings) Daughter — Ana Moore. Grandson — John Hawkins, son of Samuel Hawkins — Grandson — Samuel Hawkins, son of Samuel Hawkins — Grand daughter — Anne Hawkins, son (sic) Samuel Hawkins — Grandson — William Parsons, son of William Parsons.

John Parsons, husband of Anne AP Thomas Parsons died in 1711. Anne, the widow of John Parsons married 2nd Anthony Robinson who died 1727. (Parson's sons are named in his will in York Co., Va.)

It is clear from these dates that Anne's daughter must have been born to her by her husband Parsons because William Thrift, son of Nathaniel Thrift and Elizabeth Thrift was born in 1699. (See No. Farnham Parish Register in Va. State Library.)

In (Old) Rappahannock Co., Va. Order Book 1683—1686, pages 117, 144 and 116 there is evidence that Elizabeth Parsons lived in this area (which was location of North Farnham Parish) in May 1685 when she brought suit against one William Gitt for collection of debt due to her from said Gitt. Also, it is clear, from this reference, that the court in which this suit was brought was held in the house of John Parsons and was known as the "North Court" which places it in the present Richmond County where the Thrift family lived; therefore, I conclude that Elizabeth Parsons of No. Farnham Parish was identical with Elizabeth (Parsons) Thrift mentioned in the will of Anne (AP Thomas Parsons) Robinson as her "loving daughter" Elizabeth Thrift.

Did Peter Dunkin marry Richard West's sister?

William Rochester born ca. 1680. Died 1750. Married 1st Phyllis Dunkin, daughter of John of Westmoreland Co., Va. and grand-daughter of Peter Dunkin.

Peter Dunkin Sr., father of John and grandfather of Phyllis, had following issue: Peter, William, John, Elizabeth, Ann, Alice and James.

Peter, Sr., in addition to John seems to have had: (1) Elizabeth Dunkin; m. Geo. Harrison; (2) Ann Dunkin; m. Dennis Cornhill; (3) Ellen Dunkin-died without issue; (4) Rebecca Dunkin; m. Thomas Kerty?; (5) Matthew Dunkin; (6) Wm. Dunkin; (7) Charles Dunkin; (8) Henry Dunkin; m. Dorothy - Wm. died without issue. Charles' wife was apparently Frances -

GOWER - GORE (Hobbs, Greene, Meads, Clarke)

When John Gower made his will, his wife was Susannah - . She was not the mother of his children mentioned in his will. Their mother was Esther Green, daughter of Richard Green and his wife Anne (Hobbs) Green. Anne (Hobbs) Green was daughter of Richard Hobbs and his wife Mary (Meads) Hobbs who was a daughter of Thomas Meads of -

In Richmond Co., Va., "Miscellaneous Records" 1699 - 1724", page 118, there is under date of 10/12/1714 an "acknowledgement" (i.e., receipt) by Mrs. Anne Green, widow, from John Gower for all dues belonging to him by right of Hester, his wife, and (he) acquits and discharges said Mrs. Ann Green, relict of Mr. Richard Green, deceased, from "all debts, dues and demands, bills, bonds and accounts from the beginning of the world to the present date."

Also; Richmond Co., Va., Order Book 4, Page 74. Date; 10/4/1705 Anne Green appointed administratrix of the estate of Richard Greene, deceased.

In (Old) Rappahannock Co., Va., will book 2, page 109, there is the will of Henry

Clarke which is dated 1678. In this will he names his son-in-law, Francis Gower. "Cavaliers and Pioneers" by Nell Marion Nugent (1934), page 251, date 11/15/1653 on original grant of 280 acres to Francis Gower. Same book page 310, date 1655 this 280 acres plus 250 more was patented to said Francis Gower. The additional 250 acres of this patent was land which had been assigned to Francis Gower by James Williamson for the use of his son, James Gower.

James Gower died unmarried and willed to his brother the above mentioned 250 acres (see Rappahannock Co., Va., Deed Book 5, page 511. This will dated 3/30/1666.)

In 1675 Francis Gowner deeded this land to his brother, Stanley Gore (see Rappahannock Co., Va., Deed book 5, page 512, Deed of Gift.)

The service claimed is for the ORIGINAL GRANT of 280 acres to Francis Gower, Sr., November 15, 1653.

Francis Gower Sr., and wife sold land to Pettit, (see old) Rappahannock records 1656-1664 pages 127-128) Deed of Francis and Mary Gower to Pettit for 280 acres.

John Gower died 9/26/1726. Richard Green may have been a son of Nathaniel Green.

Richard Hobbs may have been a son of Thomas Hobbs. Richard Green died about 10/4/1705 and wife Anne died after 10/12/1714. Francis Gower Jr., was living 3/30/1666 in Old Rappahanock Co., Va.

Stanley Gower and Margaret (Peirce) Gower had two sons: Peirce Gower who married Frances Carpenter and Stanley Gower who married Winifred (Greene) Spencer who was a sister of Esther (Greene) Gower. Peirce Gower has a daughter named Margaret.

Francis Gower married Anne Clarke, daughter of Henry Clarke and Joan (—) Clarke of old Rappahannock County, Virginia. The names of three children are known: Stanley (who married Sarah Jackson); Francis (who presumably died in infancy); and John who married Esther Greene and Susannah — .

Stanley Gower who married Sarah Jackson lived in Richmond County, Virginia. He had: John, Catherine, Frances (who married William Sisson); and Stanley who married Martha —; and Anne who married Joshua Singleton. You erroneously show her husband as John Singleton. And you show Catherine as wife of John; she was his sister.

The children of John Gower who married Esther Greene and Susannah — were: Francis who married Rachel — ; Anne who married William Thrift; Winifred who died unmarried; and Elizabeth who married Edward Jones.
