PREFACE

The account of the English ancestry of our Elkinton family was printed in the July 1945 issue of THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST. It was made ready for printing at the suggestion of Mr. Donald Lines Jacobus, Editor of that valuable and excellent periodical, whose interest, in part at least, arose from his interest in American descendants of the mediaeval Wahull or Woodhull family.

It was expected that the story of the descendants of George Elkinton in America would be presented as a second article in THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST, but it was found that it would be too long if, as was desirable, later generations were included. Therefore, it was decided to print the accumulated material in this form.

Though the family has never been large, and though the number of living descendants in male lines is relatively small, nevertheless through female lines there are many descendants, to whom, as well as to descendants in male lines, it is believed this account of the family will be of interest.

In this hope it is presented.

THE ENGLISH ANCESTRY
OF THE
ELKINTON FAMILY OF

BY ARTHUR ADAMS, Ph.D., F.S.A.

In an article in THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST, some account of the ancestry of George Elkinton, of Burlington County, New Jersey, was given. It disclosed the ancestry of George Elkinton as far as the family has so far been traced, and dealt with some of the notable families brought into the Elkinton ancestry by the marriage of William Elkington (Elkinton), grandfather of George, to Alice Woodhull at Mollington, Oxfordshire, in May 1588. This material is reprinted here.

An account of the Woodhull family is found in Jacobus's Bulkeley Genealogy, New Haven, 1933, pp. 59-62. It is not intended to cover any ground covered by Mr. Jacobus, except as may be necessary for the sake of making connections clear. Rather, the intention is to trace some of the families brought into the ancestry by Woodhull marriages. Mr. Jacobus says, page 82, that "it is believed that other royal lines could be found for Grace Chetwood through the Chetwoods and Wahulls [Woodhulls], but we have not been at the trouble to verify them." This paper will show the accuracy of Mr. Jacobus's belief.

THE ELKINGTON DESCENT

1. RICHARD ELKINGTON, of Cropredy, Oxfordshire, where he was a Churchwarden in 1543, is the first proved ancestor of the Elkinton family. His will is dated 8 Jan. 1557, and was proved 31 March 1558. (Peculiar of Cropredy, Arch. & Cons., Oxford Series 1, Vol. 6, p. 254.) He provides that he shall be buried in the Church of Cropredy, and gives small legacies to the Church. He leaves his wife, Alice, one-third of his goods. He makes his son John Elkinton his executor, and leaves his goods

He was buried in Mollington 23 Dec. 1624. His will is dated 10 Dec. 1621 and was proved 10 Feb. 1624/5 (Peculiar Court of Cropredy). It was doubtless the house left to Joseph Elkinton, son of his brother Joseph, with remainder to George Elkinton, another son of his brother Joseph, that in time descended to the heirs of George Elkinton, and that was recovered by the suit brought in their behalf by their attorney, John Gill. It was the affidavit made by John Wills, 1 Dec. 1733, in connection with their suit that gave the information as to the parentage and place of birth of George Elkinton that was so helpful in placing the Elkinton family and working out their genealogy in England.

THE WOODHULL FAMILY

Arms: Or, three crescents gules.

When Mr. Butler reported the marriage of William Elkington, of Mollington, co. Oxford, to Alice Woodhull, of Mollington, 16 May 1558, because of the importance of the Woodhull family of Mollington and Thenford as a branch of the mediaeval Wahull family, it became of the greatest importance, genealogically, to place Alice Woodhull in the pedigree of the family. Mr. Butler succeeded in doing this promptly and satisfactorily.

It is the purpose of this part of this paper to show the descent of Alice Woodhull from Fulke Woodhull, of Warkworth and Thenford, Fulke Woodhull being No. XV in Mr. Jacobus's Woodhull pedigree given on page 61 of his Bulkeley Genealogy.

The Visitation of Oxfordshire, Vol. V, p. 198, of the Harleian Society Publications, and Harvey's Hundred of Willey, p. 353, shows that this Fulke Woodhull had in addition to the Nicholas followed in Mr. Jacobus's pedigree the following children: Thomas, and Lawrence, of Mollington, who married Alice, daughter and co-heir of Edmund Hall, of Swerford, Oxfordshire.

Since it is not the intention to repeat unnecessarily any of the material in the Bulkeley Genealogy, we begin our account of the Woodhull ancestry of Alice (Woodhull) Elkington with this Lawrence Woodhull of Thenford.

1. LAWRENCE WOODHULL married, first, as we know from her father's will, ALICE HALL, one of the daughters and co-heirs of Edmund Hall of Swerford. He married, secondly, MARGARET LUSHER, who is mentioned in his will.

This will is dated 20 March 1549, and was proved 10 Sept. 1551, at Northampton. He leaves $\frac{3}{4}$ to the poor in Thenford and $4d$ to the Church in Peterboro. To his wife, Margaret, he leaves £6:13:4 in money, and a debt of £20 owed to him by her father. He mentions his sons, Fulke, Edmund, Nicholas, John, Crescent, and Francis, and daughters Agnes, Mary, Alice, Joan, Jane, and Bridgett. He makes his son Fulke and Thomas Neyll, Parson of Thenford, his executors, and makes his cousin Paul Doryll, overseer.

2. FULKE WOODHULL, son of Lawrence Woodhull, of Thenford, was one of the Executors of his father's will. He married, according to the Oxfordshire Visitation pedigree, confirmed by other evidence, ALICE, daughter of Henry WICKLIFFE of Addington, co. Northampton.

Fulke Woodhull's will is dated 9 July 1574, and was proved at London (P.C.C.) 16 May 1575.

He mentions his wife, Alice, sons Leonard, to whom he leaves the manor house at Mollington, Edward, to whom he leaves a house, William, to whom he leaves £60, George, to whom he leaves three houses, and Thomas, and daughters Frances, £40, Bridgett, rent of five houses and £60, Wawford, Anne Oldener and her husband £10, Elizabeth Butler, and Margaret. He mentions, not by name, children of sons Leonard and Thomas, and of daughters Elizabeth Butler, and Margaret. He mentions Edward, Judith, and Katherine, children of his daughter Wawford. He speaks of his brother Edmund. He says, concerning his sister Mary, "as for her legacie 2 kyne a breder and 10 sheep and now on my bequest 40/- and my wife to have keeping of her and after then my son Edward or else George Woodhull during her life." It is this sister, Mary, who is said to have married William Nicholls, of Willen, co. Buckingham.*

*The terms of this will imply that Mary was an unmarried sister of Fulke.—D. L. J.

He says "my will is that mother Wicliffe [is] to have her keeping at my wife's hand so long as my mother Wicliffe liveth." He makes his wife Alice and his son Edward executors and residuary legatees and appoints his brother Edmund and his son Leonard overseers.

The will of Alice Wodhull, of Mollington, widow of Fulke, is not dated, but was proved 15 June 1590. She asks to be buried in the church at Mollington and leaves 6/8 to the Church and 10/- to the poor there. She mentions Edward Woodhull, Elizabeth Butler and her two sons, Mary Houghton, Katerine Collins, Alles, daughter of George Wodhull (40/ at eighteen), Francis, son of Edmond Grevill, Alles Wodhull, daughter of Leonard, daughters of Thomas Odhulle (10/- apiece), Edward, son of John Juell, Alles Wilkins, John Gorstelow, William Bendige, to whom she leaves £10 and provides that her (the testator's) cousin [grandson], Antony Wodhull, shall take the money and keep him for life, William Wodhull, Margaret Norbery, and Francis [Frances] Sely. She makes her son Edward Wodhull, of Mollington, residuary legatee and executor, and makes Mr. Anthony Woodhull, Gentleman, and Richard Gorstelow, overseers.

3. THOMAS WODHULL, of Thenford, son of Fulke, made his will 25 March 1592; it was proved at London (P.C.C.) 6 May 1594.

To his wife, Margaret, he leaves £20 owed by his cousin, Nicholas Wodhull, £22 owed him by his brother John Jewell, £5. owed by Mr. Fynes, and £3. owed him by his cousin Mr. Michael Coles. To his daughter Elizabeth Hudford, he leaves 30/- owed by Peter Haynes, 40/- owed by his brother-in-law John Giles, and £30, at Candlemas 1593. To his nephews [grandsons] Richard and Anthony Elkington, at twenty-one, he leaves 20 marks owed him by their father. To his daughter Johane, he leaves £20. owed him by his cousin Mr. Anthony Wodhull, to be held in trust for her by his overseers, Mr. Boule and John Gee till she reaches the age of twenty-three. To her he likewise leaves £16 owed him by Mathew Knight, mercer in Banbury. To his daughter Bridgett, he leaves £40. to be paid at Mayday 1597; to daughter Judith £40. at the age of twenty, and leaves his apparell to his brother William Wodhull. To the poor of Thenford and Cropredy he leaves 18/- owed to him by Sir William Saunderson. To John Norbery and his sister Jane he leaves 20/-; to Briget Seelye 20/ at twenty-one. He leaves six yards of "frise" for gowns for his wife, all his children, his sister Stokes, his sister Seelye, and his sister Norbery. To every one of his brother William Woodhull's children, five in number, he leaves 6/8. He makes his cousin Nicholas Wodhull, of Then-ford, and his cousin Anthony Wodhull, of Mollington, his executors and residuary legatees, and makes Mr. Boule and John Gee overseers.

The baptisms of the following of his children are found in the Register of the Church at Mollington.

4. i. ALICE, 1570.
- ii. ELIZABETH, May 1571.
- iii. JOAN, 3 May 1573.
- iv. JUDITH, 25 Dec. 1584.

4. ALICE WOODHULL, baptised in Mollington in 1570. She married there, 16 May 1588, WILLIAM ELKINGTON, of Mollington, who was baptised at Cropredy 22 July 1547. He was buried at Mollington 15 July 1609, and she was buried there 8 Nov. 1639.

An account of their descendants is given in the Elkington portion of this paper.

THE HALL FAMILY

As we have seen, Lawrence Woodhull, of Thenford, co. Northants, married Alice, daughter and co-heir of Edmund Hall, of Swerford.

Here we outline what is known of this Hall family, beginning with Richard Hall, father of Edmund, the earliest ascertained ancestor.

1. RICHARD HALL, of Swerford. The 1634 Visitation of Oxfordshire, presented in Vol. V of the Publications of the Harleian Society, includes pedigrees of both the Woodhull family of Mollington (page 266) and of the Hall family of Banbury (page 270). The arms of the Hall family are: Quarterly 1 and 4, Argent, an eagle displayed gules. The arms at the time of the Visitation were engraved on a monument in Swerford Church. At the time the writer visited the Church (1939), no trace of the monument was to be found. The monument was to Richard Hall and was in the Chancel of the Church. The Harleian Society Visitation, page 271, gives what was left of the inscription in 1634.

Page 14, of the same volume, speaks of the arms of the Hall and related families in the Manor House in Swerford. This Manor House was taken down many years ago. The Visitation says that he was a Judge of assize in the time of Henry VII. He was a plaintiff—as feoffee—in chancery proceedings in 1502-3.

Richard Hall died 11 Nov. 1508 (Monumental Inscription at Swerford). His will is dated 20 August 1508 and was proved 23 November 1508 (P.C.C.). He directs that he be buried in the Chancel of the Parish House in Swerford “before thymage of our blessed lady," and leaves 12d to the mother Church of Lincoln for forgotten tythes. To Sir Thomas Hall, Parson of Westote Barton, he leaves a salt of silver that my [the testator's] mother left him, and a gilt goblet, to pray for his soul. He leaves to Elizabeth, late wife of Edmund Hall, twenty sheep, and forty sheep to either of Edmund Hall's daughters. To Edmund Blounte, he leaves twenty wether sheep. He says, "I will the pece that was Edmund Hall's of the gift of Dame Katherin Rede, his grandmother be distributed or value thereof for the souls of Dame Katheryn, Edmund Hall, and Elizabeth, late wife to me the sd Richard to preests & in other almys deeds." He makes Sir Thomas Hall, Parson of Westote Barton, his executor with power to dispose of the rest of his goods as he thinks best.

It is evident that his wife, Elizabeth, was a daughter of Dame Katharine Rede and, as we shall see in our discussion of the Rede family, of Sir Edmund Rede, of Boarstall, co. Bucks.

2. EDMUND HALL, of Swerford, son of Richard Hall and his wife Elizabeth; of whom we know only what we learn from the will of his father. He evidently pre-deceased his father, leaving a widow, Elizabeth, living in 1508, whose family name has not been learned.

3. ALICE HALL, daughter and coheir of Edmund Hall, married LAWRENCE WOODHULL, of Thenford, co. Northants. (See account of the Woodhull family for further details.)

THE REDE FAMILY

Arms: azure three pheasants or.

Since Richard Hall, of Swerford, Oxfordshire, married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Edmund Rede, of Boarstall, co. Bucks, it now, therefore, devolves on us to give some account of the Rede family.

The most important single source of knowledge concerning the family is the Boarstall Cartulary, edited for the Oxford Historical Society by the Rev. H. E. Salter, Vol. LXXXVIII, Oxford, 1930. Much about the Rede and related families will be found in White Kennett's Parochial Antiquities. He used the Boarstall Cartulary also.

It will suffice here for the most part to give the Rede line and the lines of descent of some of the families brought into the Rede ancestry by marriage without going into the details of the evidence for the facts. The reader is referred for them to the Boarstall Cartulary, White Kennett, and Lipscomb's History and Antiquities of the County of Buckinghamshire. Lipscomb's work is not entirely free of errors, nor are the accounts of some members of the family found in the History of Parliament, Biographies of the Members of the Commons House 1439-1509, edited in 1936 by Col. Josiah Wedgwood.

1. JOHN REDE, Sergeant of Law, married CICELY, daughter and coheir of JOHN MARMION of Checkenden.

2. EDMUND REDE, of Checkenden, married CHRISTINA, daughter and heir of ROBERT JAMES, of Wallingford, co. Bucks, whose wife was Katherine, daughter and coheir of Sir Edmund de la Pole, Knight, brother of Michael de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk. The wife of Sir Edmund de la Pole, Knight, was Elizabeth, daughter of Richard de Haudlo, who was born July 14, 1362.

Edmund Rede died October 8, 1430. His heir was his son, Edmund, who was aged sixteen and more at the time of the Inquisition Post Mortem, April 9, 1431. The inquisition on the estate of his widow Christina was taken 13 Henry VI (1434).

3. SIR EDMUND REDE, Knight, married, first, AGNES, daughter of Sir JOHN COTESMORE, Knight, Chief Justice of England, by whom he had issue William, Thomas, Alan, and Joan. He married, secondly, KATHERINE, daughter of WALTER GRENE, of Hayes, co. Middlesex, widow of John Gainsford, of Crowhurst, co. Surrey, and Hampton Poyle, co. Oxford, by whom he had several children. He was knighted 26 May 1465, on the coronation of Elizabeth, Consort of Edward IV. He was a lawyer, King's servant in 1447, and Knight of the Shire (Member of Parliament) for Oxfordshire, 1450/1. He served as Sheriff of Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire often between 1438 and 1461. He was a Justice of the Peace often between 1439 and 1483.

A pedigree of the Grene family is given in Middlesex Pedigrees, Harleian Society Publications, Vol. 65, 1914, page 79 (arms: azure, a chevron argent between three bucks statant or). Walter Grene was a member of Parliament for co. Middlesex often between 1414 and 1446. His will is dated 6 December 35 Henry VI (1456) and was proved 12 Feb. 1456/7. (P.C.C.) He died 6 Dec. 1456.

In a book of Oxfordshire Church notes in the College of Arms taken apparently about 1500, three or four pages are devoted to notes concerning the coats of arms in Boarstall Church. Many drawings of coats of arms of members of the Rede family with their quarterings are given. Concerning Edmund Rede we find: Edmund Rede, Knight, sometime Lord of this town and Katherine his wife, which Edmund died 7 June 1487 and Katherine ob. 14 . . ., and Katherine and Agnes, his wives. By one wife v sons and ii daughters, the other iii sons and iii daughters. So far as is known this is the only statement as to the number of Sir Edmund Rede's children by each of his two wives.

The will of Edmund Reed (P.C.C.) is dated 21 Feb. 4 Henry VII, and was proved 30 June 1487. The will and the very long testament in Latin are found in P.C.C. Milles, 23. The testament in Latin is printed in full, with an English translation, in the Boarstall Cartulary, pp. 286-295. In his prefatory note, the Editor in error makes Elizabeth, wife of Richard Hall, a daughter of Katherine by her first husband Nicholas Gainsford (recte John). Sir Edmund Rede leaves to his son-in-law, Richard Hall, whom he makes one of his executors, a "book of assize of English Law," and to Elizabeth Hall, wife of said Richard, an ornament of gold. His wife Katherine and Richard Hall are made residuary legatees, and they and John Sampson, Clerk, and Robert Arderne, are made executors.

The will of Dame Katheryne Reed, widow, is dated 8 June 1498 and was proved at Lambeth 18 Sept. 1498 (P.C.C., 24 Horne). To her daughter, Elizabeth, wife of Richard Hall, Gentleman, she leaves a ring of gold with a sapphire "lope." She disposes of much plate and jewelry to her sons by her first marriage, George and William Gaynsford, and their wives. She died 9 August 1498.

4. ELIZABETH REDE, daughter of Sir Edmund and his second wife, Katherine Grene, married Richard Hall of Swerford, co. Oxford. For her further history, see the account of the Hall family.

THE HAUDLO FAMILY

Arms: Argent, a lion rampant azure, crowned, armed, and guty or.

As we have seen, Edmund Rede, who died in 1430, married Christina, daughter and heir of Robert James, and that Robert James married Katharine, daughter and coheir of Sir Edmund de la Pole, Knight, whose wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Richard de Haudlo. Edmund de la Pole died 31 July 1419, aged more than eighty years.

The best account of the Haudlo family is found in Vol. VI of the new edition of the Complete Peerage, pp. 398 ff. (1926). It will, therefore, be unnecessary to repeat the story here.

We note that Sir Richard de Haudlo married before 16 December 1330, Isabel, granddaughter of Almeric de St. Amand, and died in December 1343. She married, secondly, Sir Robert de Hildesley.

Interesting as the Haudlo family is, we concern ourselves here only with the St. Amand marriage, because it brings into the family ancestry some very important and distinguished people.

THE ST. AMAND FAMILY

Arms: Or, fretty sable, on a chief of the second, three bezants.

1. RALPH DE ST. AMAND married ASCELINE, daughter and coheir of ROBERT DE ALBINI, of Cainho, co. Beds. The best account of the Aubigny family is found in Vol. I (quarto series) and Vol. XIX of the Publications of the Bedfordshire Historical Record Society.

2. AMAURY DE ST. AMAND, of Millbrook, co. Beds, Gormanston, co. Meath, etc. died shortly before 12 Nov. 1285.

3. JOHN DE ST. AMAND was born about 1278. He was a Professor of Law. He was summoned to Parliament as Lord St. Amand from 22 March 1312/13 to 10 Oct. 1325. Of his marriage, G.E.C.'s Complete Peerage, Vol. VII, p. 8, says, "He is sometimes said to have married a daughter (called Joane) of Hugh le Despencer, Earl of Winchester, but her existence seems problematical." However there is ample evidence that he did marry Margaret, daughter of Hugh le Despenser, the elder.

By accident, the writer noted in Vol. 4, p. 525, of Ancient Deeds the following abstract of the agreement between Sir Hugh Despenser and John St. Amand concerning the marriage of John St. Amand and Margaret, the daughter of Sir Hugh Despenser: A. 10237. Indenture, being the memorandum of an agreement between Sir Hugh le Despenser, the father, and John de St. Amand, viz: that John shall take Margaret, Hugh's daughter, to wife; Hugh shall pay him 1000 marks, half at Easter and half at Michaelmas; John before midsummer shall enfeff the said Margaret of 300 l of land in England and Ireland, viz: at Gormanstone in Ireland, in the county of Meath, Ippelpenne in Devonshire, Cernoye in Gloucestershire, Hildesle in the county of Berks, for term of her life, with remainder to the heirs begotten between them, remainder to his own heirs; bond by John in 2000 l for performance of covenants. Westminster, 4 December, 7 Edward II.

Later, he found the text of the document in Norman French in Vol. XXX, p. 95, of "The Genealogist."

John de St. Amand died shortly before 25 Jan. 1329/30, his wife, Margaret having predeceased him.

The most recent pedigree of the family is found in Vol. XIX of the Publication of the Bedfordshire Historical Record Society (1937).

4. ISABELLA, daughter of JOHN DE ST. AMAND, married RICHARD DE HAUDLO, who died in March 1343. His widow, Isabella, married, secondly, before 1346, Robert de Ildesley. She died in October 1361. (Boarstall Cartulary, p. 74.)

5. ELIZABETH DE HAUDLO, daughter of Richard de Haudlo, married SIR EDMUND DE LA POLE.

6. KATHERINE, daughter of EDMUND DE LA POLE, married ROBERT JAMES, who died 16 Feb. 1432.

7. CHRISTINA, daughter of ROBERT JAMES, married EDMUND REDE. She died 26 March 1435. (See the account of the Rede family.)

The Boarstall Cartulary gives ample record proof of all these descents. See also the New Complete Peerage for the Haudio family.

THE DESPENSER FAMILY

Arms: Quarterly, Argent, and Gules fretty Or, over all a bend Sable.

A full account of the Despenser family is found in Vol. IV, 259 ff., of the Complete Peerage (new ed.), 1916. Therefore, little need be said here.

HUGH DESPENSER, the elder, father of Margaret, wife of John de St. Armand, was born 1 March 1260/1. He was created Earl of Winchester 10 May 1322. He married about 1286, ISABEL, widow of Sir Patric de Chaurces or Chawarces, daughter of WILLIAM DE BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick, by Maud, daughter of Sir John Fitz Geoffrey, of Shere and Fambridge. The wife of Sir John Fitz Geoffrey was Isabel, daughter of Hugh le Bigod, Earl of Norfolk, a Surety for Magna Charta, a son of Roger Bigod, Earl of Norfolk, also a Magna Charta Surety, whose wife was Isabel, daughter of William Marshall, Earl of Pembroke. After the King's (Edward II's) flight to Wales in October 1326, Despenser fell into the hands of the Queen, Isabella, daughter of Philip IV, of France, and with his son, Hugh, was hanged 27 Oct. 1326.

Despenser's father-in-law, the above mentioned William de Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, was son of William, fifth Baron Beauchamp of Elmsley, by Isabel, sister and heir of William de Mauduit, Earl of Warwick, and daughter of William, Baron Mauduit of Hanslope, by Alice de Newburgh, daughter of Waleran de Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, by his second wife Alice, daughter of John de Harcourt, and widow of John de Limesi.

Waleran de Newburgh was son of Roger de Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, a Crusader, who died 12 June 1153, by Gundred de Warenne, daughter of William de Warenne, second Earl of Surrey, by Isabel de Vermandois, widow of Robert de Beaumont, Earl of Leicester (from whom there is also a descent), and daughter of Hugh 'the Great,' Count of Vermandois in right of his wife, Adelheid, descendant of Charlemagne in the eleventh generation through the well-known Vermandois line. Hugh 'the Great' was a younger son of Henry I, King of France (grandson of Hugh Capet), by Anne, daughter of Yaroslav, Grand Prince of Kiev.

THE ELKINTON FAMILY IN AMERICA

Our knowledge of George Elkington and of the circumstances of his coming to New Jersey is derived primarily from affidavits fortunately preserved in Liber AAA in the Office of the Secretary of State in Trenton, New Jersey. They were taken in 1733 for use in connection with a suit to recover certain property in Oxfordshire, the title of which had devolved on George Elkington and his heirs. How this came about is explained in the account of the family in England. He was baptised in Mollington, Oxfordshire, 7 December 1650.

John Gill, a member of the Newton Township, Gloucester County, New Jersey, family, became a lawyer and went to England to recover the property. He did so, and his account books were preserved. (Clement's "First Emigrant Settlers," Camden, N. J., 1877, pp. 135-136.) The most important of the three affidavits was made by John Wills. It is so valuable that it is here printed in extenso.

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN WILLS

Province of New Jersey, Set: Be it Remembered that at Northampton in the County of Burlington in the Province of New Jersey in America, the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven Hundred and Thirty-three before me, Revell Elton Esquire, one of the Justices of our Sovereign Lord the King that now is, the Peace in the County of Burlington aforesaid assigned to keep, &c., personally came and appeared John Wills Esquire, one of his Majesty's Council for the aforesaid Province of New Jersey, aged about Seventy four years. Passmore Elkinton, of Philadelphia, present head of the family, and to his son, Dr. J. Russell Elkinton, of Hamden, Connecticut, for interest and helpfulness.

New Settlements in America, took up a Resolution of removing there with his family, which Purpose being known and talk'd of amongst his acquaintance in and about Northampton aforesaid, several young men there offered themselves to goe over to America with this affirmant's Father in the Quality of Servants for four years (the usual time of servitude in such cases) and amongst others the said George Elkinton, being well acquainted with this Affirmant's ffather, offered himself for one, and was so desirous of going as to leave of his Business in which he had been for some Time then settled, to execute this new adventure. (Signed) JOHN WILLS

Affirmed before me, Revell Elton.

Recorded in Book A.A.A. of Commissions, folio 229.

Office of Secretary of State, Trenton, N. Jersey.

Little can be said in addition to what is learned from the affidavit in regard to George Elkinton's life in Burlington County. He was a hard-working and useful member of the community. He was an active member of the Burlington Meeting of Friends and his name appears often in the Minutes. Janet Whitney in her "John Woolman, American Quaker" tell us of an interesting relationship between George Elkinton and William Woolman, ancestor of the famous diarist, John Woolman. [Pages 12 and 13, and for the documents, pages 445 and 446.]

He married Mary Bingham January 30, 1683, but had no children by her (Burlington Court Records and John Wills affidavit above).

He married, secondly, Mary, daughter of Walter Humphries and widow of Enoch Core (Intention declared 6-6-1688, Burlington Monthly Meeting). She was born in Painswick, Gloucestershire, England, 8-6-1660, married Enoch Core there, 3-7-1682, and died in Burlington County, New Jersey, 1-24-1713/14. Enoch Core came to Burlington County and died there subsequently to 1684. Walter Humphries was a clothier from Painswick, Gloucestershire. He was owner of much land in New Jersey and has many descendants. For some unknown reason, he wrote his name Humphries alias Powell, and his descendants continued to do so for a considerable period. The will of Walter Humphries is dated May 28, 1698, and was proved November 26, 1698. He mentions his daughter Mary, her husband George Elkinton, and their children Mary, Elizabeth, Joseph, and George. Walter Humphries had already given George and Mary Elkinton a one thirty-second share of West Jersey propriety, October 5, 1695 (New Jersey Archives, First Series, Vol. XXI, p. 483). He also had one hundred acres from Daniel Wills, December 22, 1681 (New Jersey Archives, First Series, Vol. XXI, p. 350). January 10, 1694/5, Daniel Wills, Sr., conveyed to him 130 acres (New Jersey Archives, First Series, Vol. XXI, p. 483).

George Elkinton's will is dated October 15, 1713, and was proved December 19, 1713. He mentions his wife, Mary, and the following children: Joseph, George, Joshua, Thomas, Mary, wife of John Roberts, and Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Ballinger (New Jersey Archives, First Series, Vol. XXIII, p. 150). He died 8-19-1713.

Mary Elkinton, his widow, made her will December 28, 1713; it was proved May 11, 1714. She mentions the home farm of 180 acres, and a lot given her by her father Walter Humphries.

We have the ages of George Elkinton's children, as well as his own and his wife's, from a census of Northampton Township taken in 1709. It is printed in Volume 4, page 33, of the Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society, 1849/50.

2. JOSEPH² ELKINTON (*George*¹) was born about 1691, as we learn from the Northampton Census of 1709. He married Elizabeth, daughter of John Antrim, of Northampton, 9-17-1713. The marriage certificate is of record and includes the signatures of many witnesses according to Quaker custom (Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. II, p. 216). The John Wills deposition says he had five daughters: this is borne out by a deed made by David Stratton to John Deacon dated 15 of 1st mo. 1744/5, recorded in Book E of Deeds, page 245, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State, Trenton, New Jersey. It recites that Joseph Elkington died intestate, leaving five daughters: namely, Mary, wife of David Stratton; Ann, wife of Stephen Brooks; Elizabeth, wife of John Lippincott; Frances, unmarried; and Amy, unmarried. He died 1-5-1724.

The bond of Elizabeth, the widow, as administratrix, is dated May 10, 1725. She married by license dated April 3, 1728, John Wilcox. Her accounting of her first husband's estate, February 1, 1738, is signed by her as Elizabeth, "now wife of John Crosby," Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. II, p. 213, gives the date of her third marriage as 11-5-1737, and her husband's name as John Crosby.

3. MARY² ELKINTON (*George*¹) was born about 1694 according to the Northampton Census of 1709. She married John Roberts, of Northampton, Burlington County, New Jersey, 1-27-1712. For descendants, see the "Roberts Chart" a copy of which is in the Library of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, in Philadelphia. Mary (Elkinton) Roberts died 2-11-1759. Enoch Core, Mary Elkinton's half-brother, married a sister of John Roberts.

4. ELIZABETH² ELKINTON (*George*¹), born about 1696, married 3-28-1713, at the Meeting House in Northampton, Thomas Ballinger. He was a son of Henry Ballinger, from Gloucestershire, England, who married 9-4-1684, MARY HARDING, daughter of Thomas Harding, who came to Burlington County, from London. Thomas was born 6-12-1685. Letters of Administration on the estate of Thomas Ballinger, of Evesham, Burlington County, New Jersey, were granted to his widow, Elizabeth, August 14, 1739. Joshua Ballinger, of Evesham, brother of Thomas was a bondsman. Amariah Ballinger was another brother of Thomas. From their daughter, Mary, who married Thomas Garwood, of Evesham Township, Burlington County, New Jersey, in 1733, the compiler of this account of the Elkinton family descends. Thomas Garwood was born in Evesham Township, March 2, 1707, and died in Great Egg Harbor Township, Gloucester (now Atlantic) County, June 27, 1796. His wife Mary, a Minister among Friends, died there, April 6, 1764. Their daughter, Margaret, born Aug. 30, 1740, married John Adams. Their son, Daniel, born 1 April 1773, was the grandfather, and his son James Reading, born May 6, 1835, father of the compiler, who was born in Pleasantville, N. J., May 12, 1881.

5. GEORGE² ELKINTON (*George*¹), born about 1698, married Ann, daughter of Samuel Kemble, or Kimball, of Burlington. Samuel Kemble's will is dated March 2, 1728/9, and was proved March 29, 1729. He mentions Ann Elkinton among his children.

George Elkinton, of Northampton, made his will February 21, 1728/9; it was proved April 15, 1729. He mentions his wife Ann and his children George, Sarah, and Jemima. His widow married Samuel Lanning by license dated September 20, 1732.

Letters of Administration on his estate were granted April 19, 1749, to his widow. George Elkinton, evidently her son, was a bondsman.

6. THOMAS² ELKINTON (*George*¹). He was born about 1704, as we learn from the Northampton Census of 1709. He married Mary, a daughter of Samuel Kemble, and a sister of Ann Kemble, who married George Elkinton, brother of Thomas. Samuel Kemble mentions his daughter, Mary Elkinton, in his will. Thomas Elkinton's will is dated 20th of the 6th month, 1736, and was proved November 25, 1736. He makes his wife, Mary, sole executrix. He mentions his son, Joshua, and other children, but mentions only Joshua by name.

July 1, 1738, Edward Gaskill, of Northampton, gave Mary Elkinton, widow of Thomas, blacksmith, deceased, a deed for fifteen acres of land, reciting that it was sold to Thomas, February 10, 1726, but that the deed had been lost (Trenton Deeds, E, p. 430). March 14, 1738, Mary, widow of Thomas Elkinton, sold three acres of the tract to William Budd for £21 (Trenton Deeds, G-H, p. 499). May 15, 1749, she sold one acre of this tract to Francis Robinson for £18 (Trenton Deeds, J-K, p. 258).

7. GEORGE³ ELKINTON (*George*², *George*¹) was born 4-21-1727, and died 3-25-1809, aged 82 years. He married SARAH PIMM, by license of February 18, 1748. Sarah's father, John Pimm, gives his consent. In Volume XXII, First Series, New Jersey Archives, Index of Marriage Licenses, Sarah's name is incorrectly given as Perrine. The record of the births of their children appears in Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. II, p. 172, namely: John, 9-9-1767, Enoch, 8-4-1769, and Abraham, 10-1-1772. His wife, Sarah, died 10-3-1772; she was born 2-12-1731. He married, secondly, Elizabeth Tomlin. The marriage was reported to the Meeting, 3-6-1775.

George Elkinton's will is dated June 25, 1805, and was proved March 20, 1809. He mentions his wife, Elizabeth, to whom he

An account of the ancestry of Thomas French, as well as an account of his and Jemima Elkinton's descendants, will be found in "A Genealogy of the Descendants of Thomas French" by Howard Barclay French, Privately Printed, Philadelphia, 1909, in two volumes (Vol. I, p. 242).

His wife, Mary, 5-10-1770, received a certificate of removal to the Salem Monthly Meeting, which was received by that Meeting, 7-30-1770. In 1774, the family removed to Haddonfield; in 1779, they were back in Salem County. The widow, Mary, married William Silver, of Salem County, at Piles

10. GEORGE⁴ ELKINTON (George³, George², George¹), born February 11, 1761, died 10-1-1820, aged 59 years, 7 months, and 20 days. July 24, 1783, he married Beulah Wills, born May 16, 1762, daughter of Daniel and Meribah (Lippincott) Wills. Daniel Wills, of Burlington County, Carpenter, mentions his daughter Beulah in his will dated April 8, 1764. George Elkinton removed to Maurice River, Cumberland County, New Jersey, and became wealthy for the time and place. Beulah, his wife, died January 25, 1845. His will is dated October 1, 1820, and was proved November 5, 1820. He leaves bequests to many of his own and his wife's relatives. The data derived from his and his wife Beulah's wills have been utilized in the accounts of his brothers' and sisters' families, and need not be repeated here. The will of his widow, Beulah Elkinton, is dated 3-23-1840, and proved January 19, 1845. Among many bequests is one of $250 to the Maurice River Monthly Meeting of Friends.

11. ASA⁴ ELKINTON (George³, George², George¹) was born 3-15-1765. 11-13-1788, he married Letitia Lippincott, born 10-28-1766, daughter of Caleb and Hannah, of Woolwich Township, Gloucester County, at Piles Grove Meeting House (Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. II, p. 68). In 1787, he had removed from Burlington to Salem County. In 1797, he removed to Philadelphia. His wife died 7-26-1806. He married, secondly at the Mulberry Street Meeting House, Philadelphia, 2-4-1808, Lucy, widow of John Davis, of Southwark (whom she married at the Pine Street Meeting House, Philadelphia, 6-7-1797, and who died 7-9-1797), and daughter of Hugh and Catherine Low (Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. II, p. 513). She had at the time of marriage a daughter named Mary Gillespie. Asa Elkinton was a tailor by trade and prospered in his business in Philadelphia. He died 1-20-1824. His second wife, Lucy, died 1-3-1867. She signs her name Lucia on the wedding certificate.

The Friends records (Hinshaw, passim) and the family Bible show that Asa and Letitia (Lippincott) Elkinton had the following children:

Ananias Sayre, Jr., of Stow Creek Township, Cumberland County, made his will January 15, 1772; it was proved February 11, 1772. He mentions his daughter Rhoda, then under eighteen. See the Sayre Genealogy for her ancestry. John Elkinton moved from Burlington County to Salem County about 1783 and to Greenwich, Cumberland County, in 1789. His wife, Rhoda, died 2-27-1804, aged 32 years, 6 months, and 16 days.

He married, secondly, 9-3-1805, Ann E., widow of Joel Clark, and daughter of John and Rebecca Dallas, who was born 5-20-1764, and died 11-19-1842. Joel Clark died 3-27-1801.

The will of John Elkinton of Port Elizabeth, Cumberland County, New Jersey, is dated 8-14-1842, and was proved March 20, 1843. He mentions his wife but not by name. He mentions the children of deceased daughter Harriet Butcher; the children of his deceased daughter Rhoda Taylor; the children of his son Joseph Pimm Elkinton; the children of his son John A. Elkinton; the children of his deceased daughter Ann Dallas Clark Thompson; and gives his daughter Sarah Lore $50 a year for life. There is a codicil dated October 28, 1842, giving land in fee simple to his son Joseph P. Elkinton.

Both George Elkinton, brother of John, and George's wife Beulah, who died childless, made long and elaborate wills, mentioning many more or less close relatives and some persons, apparently close friends. The will of George Elkinton is dated October 1, 1820. He mentions Sarah Lore, daughter of John Elkinton and his former wife Rhoda, to whom he leaves a house and lot; his niece Ann Evans, daughter of his sister Hannah. Beulah Elkinton leaves to John Elkinton, brother of her deceased husband, George Elkinton, $200, and Sewall's History (Will dated 3-23-1840).

13. ENOCH⁴ ELKINTON (*George*³, *George*², *George*¹), born 8-4-1769. He was disowned by the Burlington County Monthly Meeting of Friends in 1789. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel Fenton. He was living as late as March 9, 1814, when he signed a deed as one of the Executors of the estate of Samuel Fenton.

That he had children is evident from the fact that John Fenton, of Pilesgrove, whose will is dated February 2, 1818, mentions the children of his aunt, Elizabeth, wife of Enoch Elkinton. Doubtless Fenton Elkinton, who married Elizabeth H. Hewling, 3-27-1817, was a son. Benjamin Sterling, of Burlington, married Elizabeth, daughter of Enoch Elkinton, April 19, 1819. He had married, January 2, 1817, Rebecca Elkinton, who died February 18, 1818, aged twenty-one years, seven months, and twenty-nine days. Probably she also was a daughter of Enoch Elkinton. Benjamin Sterling was a son of Major James Sterling, of Burlington, and was born there April 6, 1794. He died February 13, 1822; his widow, Elizabeth, died November 26, 1845, aged forty-three. There was one son by the second marriage, Benjamin, born September 18, 1820. He was graduated from Princeton University in the Class of 1840. He was a stock-broker, and died in Philadelphia, unmarried, May 30, 1898. The Sterling Genealogy calls the second wife Elizabeth Fenton, but the record of the marriage in the County Clerk's Office calls her, Elizabeth, daughter of Enoch Elkinton.

About the time of the Civil War, it was extended to include other kinds of manufacturing. At present, it is known as the Philadelphia Quartz Company, making silicate of soda, of which Joseph Passmore Elkinton, is one of the Vice Presidents.

He was an intensely religious man, and especially after his retirement from active business, traveled much on missionary journeys in behalf of the Friends. He was especially interested in work among the Indians.

UNPLACED

CHARLES ELKINTON, of Pennsgrove, New Jersey, married ELIZABETH BECKETT, according to the statement of his son Franklin Beckett Elkinton. The marriage records in the office of the Clerk of Gloucester County give the date 2-25-1830.

Charles Elkinton was an active business man and prominent citizen of Pennsgrove, Salem County, New Jersey. He made his will October 28, 1876, and made a codicil to it November 28, 1879. It was proved March 10, 1887. It is a long and elaborate document and disposes of a considerable estate, both real and personal, including shares of stock in the First National Bank of Woodstown, in the West Jersey Agricultural and Horticultural Association, and in the Pennsgrove Pier Company.

He directs that all his estate be turned into cash and the proceeds divided equally among his son, George H. Elkinton; his daughter-in-law, Susannah Elkinton, wife of his son, Joseph R. Elkinton, and their children; his daughter-in-law, Sarah B. Elkinton, wife of his son, Franklin B. Elkinton, and their children; and his daughter-in-law Sarah S. Elkinton, wife of his son James Elkinton, and their children. He provides that money owed to him by his sons shall be deducted from their respective shares. He leaves to Ida L. Clayton his piano. He does not specify the relationship, but she is evidently the Ida Elkinton of Pennsgrove, who married Renatus T. Clayton, of Middletown, Delaware, 3-9-1876. He names as the executors of his will John M. Springer and Joseph M. Brick.

Why he chose to leave the money to his daughters-in-law rather than to their husbands does not appear.

The following account of the family of Charles Elkinton is derived from a statement made years ago by his son, Franklin B. Elkinton, of Philadelphia.
