ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This compilation of family history would not have been possible without the co-operation of a great many people, whom I cannot thank individually.

I particularly want to thank Louella Hazlett for her untiring work for the Davis family and for her moral support; Betty Shaffer for the Shanabarger family; Besse Hynson for the Family Bible records, for encouragement over a ten year period and for much help with the 5th generation Longs and the Stichler family; Wilbur Duncan for many of the photographs used herein and for the 4th generation John Long family in its entirety; Charles Wendell Long together with Lottie Wagner Brown for the Bible records of the Jacob T. Long family; Minnie Lee for her interest and help not only with the Swank family, but for her enthusiasm and help in contacting many of the cousins; Sarah Amlung for the Barbara Long family; and to express my appreciation to a patient and understanding husband.

FOREWORD

Macaulay said that "A nation that has no interest in the accomplishments of remote ancestors will never accomplish anything of which remote descendants may be proud".

In these days, when insecurity is a personal and national by-word, it is hoped that those who read the following pages will have a deeper sense of pride that our roots are deep in the soil of Colonial America; that we come from a family whose antecedents were pioneers who dared to face a New World with an ever-abiding faith in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

There is history, past and present in the following pages, interlaced with romance. I hope that those who read will experience some of the pleasure that I have had in compiling this family record.

Every care has been taken to set down the family records accurately. However, the excerpts from Family Bibles, Wills, Deeds and The Leedy Chronicle are open to error. First, by those who wrote the original and last by those of us who have copied. Only human hands have compiled this data. If your name is misspelled or a date transposed or incorrect, please forgive the unintentional error.

THE LONG FAMILY

John Long, the forefather of the Long Family of Hagerstown, Washington County, Maryland, could have been the first minister of the first Dunkard Church at Antietam. This church is now a National Monument. A search of church records by a member of the Washington County Historical Society has produced no authenticated record other than the fact that a John Long was the first minister.

The character of the man, shown by documents, by the characteristics of the family who followed, many of whom were ministers of the Dunkard (German Baptist) church serves to point to this probability.

Neither the date of his marriage nor the birth date of Margaret----has been established. We do not know for a certainty the date upon which he arrived in America. In Rupp's"..... 30,000 Names of Immigrants" pp.130-Jan.10,1739 "Palatines imported in the Bilander of London Joshua Pipon, Commander from London---60 passengers" are listed John Long and Henry Long. On pp.282-Sept. 27, 1752-"Ship President,----- Dunlop, Captain, from Rotterdam last from--- England, -----Johann Jacob Long".

Palatines referred to in the foregoing paragraph were former residents of the Upper Palatinate in northern Bavaria and the territory of Regensburg. The two chief cities were Heidelberg and Mannheim.

Following the Thirty Years War, French soldiers ravaged the Palatinate, especially in 1688-89. Recovery from old wounds was almost complete when the French Revolutionary Wars began (1742 1799), during the time of Charles Theodore. It was at this time that almost mass migration took place.

The Palatines fled to Holland and from there to England and then to the New World. Most landed at Philadelphia and adjacent ports. The dialect spoken was almost identical with the speech that we know as Penna. Dutch. Judge George R. Platt, of Barberton, Ohio, an erudite man, has told the writer that Penna. Dutch can be understood today in the Palatinate area of Germany.

The U. S. Census of 1790 for Washington Co. Md lists 4 John Longs, each of whom had in his family:

- 1 Free White Male Over 16
- 1 Free White Male Under 16
- 4 Free White Females

One can only wish that the census taker had been more accurate or that all of the Longs hadn't had the same number of children at home at the same time.

As a matter of record and in the hope that at some future time, the site of the original land of John Long may be established, there is included in the Appendix, excerpts from Deeds with such references.

John and Margaret Long of Hagerstown, Md. each purchased land in Bedford County, Pa. in 1784. This was the section known as Morrison's Cove. Those settlers who came up the old Forbes Road could not establish homes there for fear of being scalped by Indians. Details in articles describing those early days may be read in the library in Bedford, Penna.

Morrison's Cove lies north of Bedford. We take the route up over Brumbaugh's Mt. and make a stop about a third of the way down. There a plain spreads out before one which appears to be about 20 miles wide by 12 miles long. It is entirely surrounded by hills and gray mountains--truly looks like a cove. It is as neat as the proverbial pin; with clean fence rows well-kept barns and attractive farmhouses. The town of Woodberry can be seen in the distance. Many of the family will recall hearing the handsome white-haired old men saying that they had been born in "The Cove".

It has come to the writer's realization that many of the present generation of this family have never seen, much less heard of "The Leedy Chronicle".

As far as the writer can determine this publication was unique. I can only speak from recollection and from the copies that I have in my possession. As far as I know, the publication was started in 1897 and ceased in 1927. For 30 years, at least quarterly, this Chronicle was sent by mail to members of the Leedy relationship who paid the subscription price of $ 1.00 per year. It contained about 36 pp. and was bound with colored paper cover. It was printed and edited mainly by A. L. Garber of Ashland, Ohio. He operated a publishing company there. Much of the material was written by Mr. Garber. The Rev. Roy Leedy, now retired and living in Lakeside, Ohio, has contributed more than we can say toward the compilation of a family record of the Leedy Family. Uncle John Swank had been appointed historian for the Long Family and had done much toward the completion of a history of that family when he died. I have been informed that his records were inadvertantly destroyed when the Swank home was dismantled.

The publication carried articles of a religious nature as well as reprints of excerpts of letters written by members of the family from all parts of the United States. It was thru reading the Chronicles that the writer was able to contact Postmasters across the country, thereby locating the 6th generation Longs.

It is hoped that enough complete sets of "The Leedy Chronicle" can be accumulated in order that certain Genealogical Libraries can have a complete set in their files.

1- John Long	d	1791
m ---- Margaret ----	d	1809

Documentary evidence for the above is found in the Appendix, together with releases given to John Long-2 Exr. under the Will of John Long-1 John died in 1791 and Margaret in 1809. It is from their Wills accurate copies of which will be found in this book, that the second generation and part of the third has been established. Note the mention of the land in "the cove" in John's Will. For the sake of brevity the opening paragraphs have been omitted. Some of the wills have been briefed, with the exception of the Will of John Long-1. Certified copies of all documents are in the possession of the writer.

Nothing has been found that establishes the order of the births of the children of John -1 Since John-3 was 11 years old at the time of Catherine's marriage, it is logical to assume that John Long-2 was born at least as early as 1760. Catherine-2 married Abraham Leedy-2 and was probably among the eldest of the family.

The numeral which follows the name indicates the generation, starting with John-1 who was the first of whom we have record. Those who use this information for application for membership in D.A.R. or S.A.R. will of necessity reverse the numbering of the generations.

The Will of John Long-2 and that of his brother David-2 appears in the Appendix. David's is included as a matter of interest because he names his nephews, being especially concerned with those named David. Attention is also called to the reference to D.A.R. Ancestors Lineage Book.

THE LEEDY FAMILY

It was the original intention of the writer to include in this volume detailed information on the Leedy family. Gordon Connelly and Walton Leedy are now in the process of compiling a Family History, continuing the work so ably carried on by the Rev. Roy Leedy of Lakeside, Ohio now retired.

For that reason, the Leedy family data which is recorded here is intended only to clarify the close relationship of the two families and to furnish the data needed by those who are interested in completing their own genealogical history or who are interested in affiliating with patriotic and/or genealogical societies.

The Appendix will reveal references for the data which follows. The numeral which precedes the name indicates the generation (beginning with the immigrant forefathers) of whom the writer has record.

It is with reluctance that we resist the opportunity to record at least 2 or 3 later generations of the Leedys. Daniel was the forefather of the Rev. Roy Leedy, Elma Leedy Stichler, and Samuel the ancestor of Gordon Connelly, was to name just a few. "Uncle" John Swank was a descendant of Daniel and Susannah Holsinger Leedy Abraham Leedy-2 left York Co. (Lancaster) Penna. prior to 1778 and migrated to the vicinity of Hagerstown, Md. where he met and married Catherine Long. They had 3 children in Md.: John-David and Susannah.

They moved by horseback to Morrison's Cove, Pa. in about 1785. There, Abraham either worked at his trade of wagonmaker or at farming until the spring of 1798 when he bought 128½ acres on the north side of Meadow Branch of Yellow Creek in Woodbury Twp., Bedford Co. Penna. He lived out his life on this place.

Abraham was blind during the later years of his life. It is said that he continued working at his trade of wheelwright and wagonmaker after his blindness.

The foregoing, together with the information included in the Appendix has been put together by the combined efforts of Wilbur H. Duncan, Gordon Connelly and the writer.

The family record of John Long-3 which follows is taken from his Family Bible record which appears in the Appendix. He is the John Long who is often referred to in "The Leedy Chronicles" as Pioneer John Long. He came to Ohio in 1813 after his brother-in-law John Leedy had settled in what came to be known as Ankneytown. John Long's Aunt Catherine had married Abraham Leedy in Hagerstown, Md. John-3 had complicated the relationship by marrying his first cousin, Susannah Leedy, the daughter of Abraham and Catherine Long Leedy. Susannah is reported by Aunt Tena Mock to have been a very large woman, capable of physical labor that would stagger most modern men.

John and Susannah Long were the parents of 21 children, 18 of whom grew to adulthood and married. Their family records follow. All will agree that their genes must have been right, for the family who followed are people for whom no apology need be made.

John and Susannah are buried in a little private cemetery north of Ankneytown in a corner of what was the original John Long farm. This is known as the Mutzbaugh or Teeter Cemetery. The headstones are still readable but are in bad condition. It has been the hope of the writer that enough of the descendants of this fine old couple are sufficiently interested so that these headstones can be preserved.

3- John Long	b 1- 8-1780
m -- -- 1802	d 6-25-1855
Susannah Leedy	b 9-14-1783
	d 7-14-1849

4- 21 children. Two infants died at birth. Wilbur Duncan informs the writer that the infants were buried beside the parents and that one was a twin of Barbara. See the Appendix for the family record of John Long family from the Christopher Saar Bible. The first 8 children were born in Bedford Co., Penna.

The writer had for sometime pictured this family making the trip to Ohio via a covered wagon. A reliable genealogist recently pointed out that covered wagons similar to those seen nightly on TV were common to migrations west from Ohio and probably from the Mississippi River. The migration trails were not suitable for such travel both because of the terrain and because of the forests. Mostly, these pioneers walked while horses carried their worldly goods by pack. Some did use wagons, but they, too, were used for transporting goods.

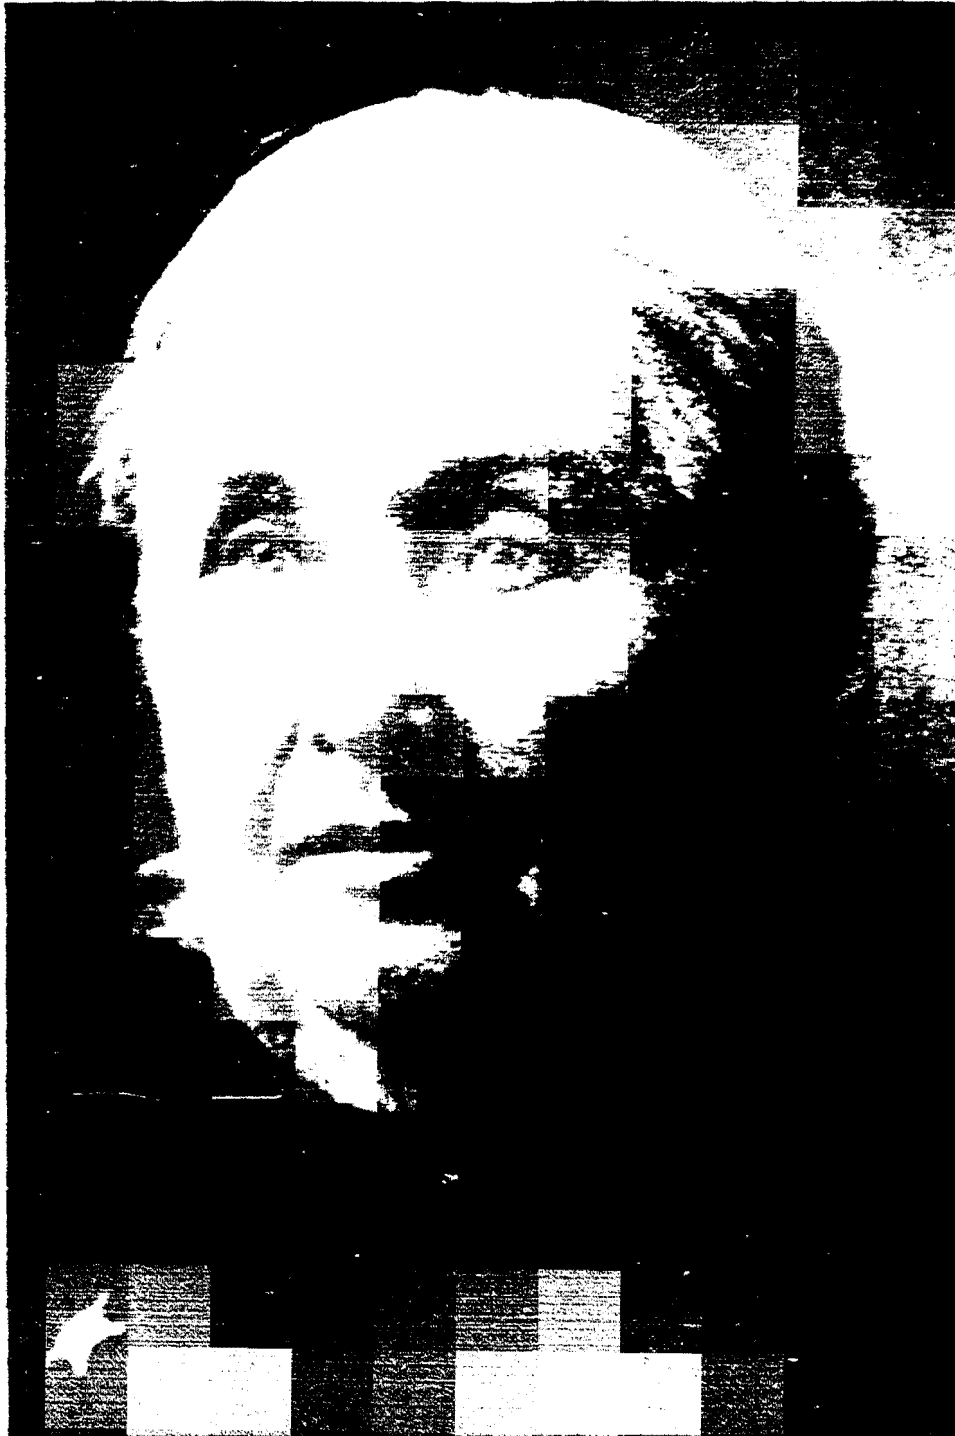

The eldest of the 21 children was John Long-4. Incidentally, he, too, was the father of 21 children. However, in this case, there were 2 mothers. We are indebted to Wilbur Duncan of Decatur, Ill., for the complete information on this family as well as for many of the photographs in this book.

Nancy Keplar	b 6-30-1808
	d 11-21-1845

5- 14 children--all born near Ankneytown, Ohio. See Appendix for Marriage Record of John and Nancy Keplar Long. She was the daughter of John Keplar, who according to family tradition was born in Stockholm, Sweden, Jan. 1, 1743, and died Dec. 12, 1845. D.A.R. records list the mother of Nancy Keplar as Helen de Avarie of Paris, France, born about 1745 /50, married in Northampton County, Penna. in 1780

Lydia Frank Royer was the second wife of John Long-4. She had several children by her first marriage.

Catherine Long was born in Knox Co. Ohio. James B. Walsh was born in Guernsey Co. O., and was raised there on his father's farms and in the vicinity of Bellville, Ohio. He learned the carpenter and cabinetmaking trades. James and Catherine were married by the Rev. Daniel Hetrick, her uncle, at her home near Ankneytown, O. Their first three children were born in O. They moved to Jay County, Ind. in 1853 where Catherine's uncle, Jacob Keplar was living. In 1854 they moved to Fulton Co., Ill.; in 1877 following several moves, to Monticello, Piatt Co. Ill. where both are buried. James Walsh served in the Union Army in the Civil War. Catherine had an excellent memory. She told her grandson Wilbur Duncan, of many incidents that she had experienced in the days of her youth in Ohio. She kept documents and manuscripts of family interest, which she passed on to her grandson. James and Catherine Walsh were the parents of 14 children, whose family records follow.

John M. Royer was the son of the 2nd wife of John Long-4. by her first marriage. In 1912 Lewis M. Long, of Ravenna, Ohio, wrote to his half-sister Catherine Walsh that his half-sister Leah Royer was living with Jennie Weirick Royer and her daughter, Verna at S. Bend, Ind. This would indicate that there were more than the three children listed elsewhere. The above record and notes were furnished by W.H.D. from manuscript notes of Catherine Walsh which are in his possession.

Daniel E. Long, writing in the April 1915 issue of The Leedy Chronicle said that he served in the Indiana 88th Infantry in the Civil War; that he and his brother Joseph were in the same Brigade from Atlanta to the Sea. They were both wounded in the battle at Bentonville N. C. Joe lost one leg, and he, Daniel was shot thru the left leg. Neither of them knew the fact until 20 years later. Joe, being the eldest when their mother (Nancy Keplar) died -went west. He afterward came back and settled in Ohio and Daniel went to Indiana. The family had always supposed Joe dead, since they had never heard from him.

The two brothers met at a Regimental Reunion in Ft. Wayne. There were two other brothers in the War, Isaac and Abraham. Abraham was killed in the battle below Atlanta. (W.H. Duncan has his wallet.) Isaac didn't see action.

Many of us will remember "Uncle Joe Long " who lived in Harrod, Ohio. After he was wounded the army sent him to a New York Hospital and later fitted him with an artifical leg. When he came home, he claimed he couldn't wear it; so, he made his own for the rest of his life from hickory saplings.

This picture of Uncle Joe Long and Aunt Tena Mock was taken about 1915. Aunt Tena made her home with her nephew during the latter years of her life. The photograph on the table is of John Long-4, father of Joseph S. and oldest brother of Christina Long Mock.

ABRAHAM AND CATHERINE TEETER LONG

Abraham Long was a man of reserve, dignity and keen intellect. He is remembered for the quietness of his speech and for the innate kindness that he bestowed upon one and all.

Catherine Teeter Long, the mother, was the typical Penna. Dutch housewife. She knitted, it is remembered, as she rode from Ankneytown to Davis (near Perrysville) to visit her daughter Malinda. While she visited with Jacob and Malinda, her fingers were never still. They kept pace with the fast flow of conversation which was usually in the Dutch dialect. She had a good command of the English language but she could talk faster in "Dutch". She had been born in Bedford Co. Penna. and came to O. with her parents in 1826, walking all of the way.

THE ABRAHAM LONG HOME

We are indebted to Clifford Davis for the preceding photograph. The house was built in 1856-57. It is located Southwest of Butler, O. on the Divelbiss Road. The house fronted on a driveway not now seen. What appears as the front was then the rear. The interior is finished in walnut. The living room has a beautiful wainscote, each door and window has a pediment without the finial. The finish woodwork in this house is one of the best examples of the joiner's art that the writer has seen in Ohio. The author takes pardonable pride in the workmanship in this house because her maternal grandfather, Jacob A. Stichler was a young man learning the carpenter's trade when he met and married Malinda Long.

This was more than a house--it was an ideal Christian home.

Abraham Long, like his maternal grandfather, Abraham Leedy, was blind during the last years of his life. When Abraham and Catherine were aged and infirm they moved to Butler, across the street from their son John. They lived there until they passed to the Great Beyond. Both are buried in the Butler Cemetery.

In 1835 Abraham and Catherine Long became members of the Dunkard Church. They were among those who withdrew from the church because of a doctrinal dispute and formed what was known as the "Leedy Church". The differences were resolved in a short time and the Leedy Church, and two other congregations formed what came to be known as the Church of the Breth. Abraham and Catherine were devoted members of this Church all of their lives.

In 1831, Abraham Long bought 50 acres in Knox Co. for $ 150.00. He sold this land in 1835 and bought 120 acres in the SE Quarter of Section 36, Jefferson Twp. Richland County, Ohio.

Note: The carpenters, Samuel Yarger and his young brother-in-law, Jacob Stichler made Catherine Long a "stand" while they were working on the house. Later, Malinda Stichler used it in her living room, it was her plant stand and usually stood near the west window. When the Stichler home was dismantled, the stand was given to Phoebe Stichler McNeil. It is still in use as a lamp table and is a prized piece of furniture in the McNeil-Ogier living room at 524 Baird Avenue, Barberton, Ohio.

The old parental homestead of the Long family was near Ankneytown For ten years Abraham labored with his father in clearing the land and farming the new ground. At the age of 21 he built a log cabin for himself. In 1827 he married Elizabeth Jamison who died soon after giving birth to a son. Both are probably buried in the Mutsbaugh Cemetery which is located in a corner of the original John Long farm.

Abraham was the 3rd child of John and Susannah Long. He was born in Bedford Co. Penna. and came with his parents to Knox Co. Ohio. The Leedy Chronicle reported in the November 1918 issue " that the impressions of this journey of 240 miles over the trails of a new and wild country were never effaced from his memory. The life of more than two weeks in a covered wagon on this move of wearisome distance, the greater part of which he travelled on foot giving place in the wagon for the young children --for there were eleven of them----the youngest but a few months old; was a rigorous introduction to the severe toil and privations of the frontier life that he came to know."

Jacob taught school for a number of years and farmed in the vicinity of Ankeytown. Mahala was the daughter of Moses and Isabel Hammond whose family had also been one of the early settlers of that area. All of the children of this marriage were born in Ohio. It appears that Jacob made at least two trips to Iowa before he settled in Keokuk Co. with his family

A. R. Long also attended college in Pella, Ia. He taught school for some time, then studied Dentistry and practiced in Des Moines. Later the family moved to Seattle where he practiced until his retirement. It's interesting to note that he was known by the initials "A. R." as was the fine man for whom he evidently was named, his cousin, Abram Riley Stichler.

Malinda was the 4th child of Abraham and Catherine Long. Jacob was the son of Henry and Arabella Armentrout Stichler. He was born on the farm that his grandfather Jacob had purchased thru the Wooster Land Grant Office in 1829. He and Malinda lived their lives on the farm. The writer remembers their 50th Anniversary party at their home, when all of their children were present. Malinda made her home with her children following Jacob's death. The Leedy Chronicle for October 1920 said " Mrs. Stichler was a near faultless as a mother and woman as it is possible for any person to be in this unfriendly world. Kind, noble in heart intellectual, ready to do every good work her home duties would allow, and a constant, exemplary and devoted Christian.

Her life is a model as a wife, mother and neighbor for faithfulness, moderation, peacefulness and high ideals, which deserve praise and commendation. She was a member of the Leedy Church during its existence. Mother Stichler is living the beautiful old age and may the peace of God bless her way." It was my great privilege to have known my grandmother well. She loved music. She played the concertina and sang the hymns she loved so well. It is not too late to call to mind that all of the Longs seemed to have been born with music in their souls. The writer regrets that she didn't inherit some of this real talent.

m---- Rella Darling

Abram attended the old Perrysville Academy. He studied medicine for some time, but had to forsake this cherished dream because of a lack of funds. He taught and later was Supt. of the Butler Ohio Schools. Following his marriage to Rella Darling, he and Charles Weant operated a General Store in Butler. He retired to his farm in "The Darling Settlement" where he died. Both he and Rella are buried in St. John Cemetery, near Perrysville.

John W. Davis was the youngest son of Abner Davis, one of the early settlers of Richland Co. O.. He was an enterprising man who early saw the needs of the settlers. He sent wagons down the trails to Zanes Trace; met the boats that brought goods down the rivers from the East. He brought back everything from calico to plowshares to black pepper. Clifford Davis has his account book that records the sales to settlers, with credits shown in exchange for work on his farms. Abner Davis prospered and bought at least two other farms. The word of his prosperity spread. That undoubtedly prompted the robbery that occurred in the winter of 1852. The robbers were found some time later frozen to death in the vicinity of Bunker Hill Church. The McColloughs have his diary which is an illuminating record of those early times.

Malcomb Berlin Hazlett	b 9-14-1877

The Hazlett family were early settlers in Ohio. They came to Ohio from the vicinity of Greensburg, Penna. They were among the families who founded the Bunker Hill Presbyterian Church in Richland Co. "Mal and Emma lived the greater part of their lives together in Akron and vicinity. Emma and her daughter Louella live at 961 Bloomfield ave., Akron Ohio. The Hazlett family have been active and devoted members of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church. Two of their sons were ordained in the ministry of that congregation. The writer, at this point, would like to add a bit of philosophy :

it being her contention that Christians should be the happiest people on earth. The Hazletts to her are an excellent example to support the statement. Emma Hazlett has always maintained her happy outlook on life, no matter how serious a situation might be; she has made every one feel better for having talked to her. She has been blessed with a kindly sense of humor which trait she undoubtedly inherited from her father, John W. Davis.

Mairiam lives in New York City, where she is employed by a firm of actuaries. Although she has lived in N.Y. for many years, she seems to enjoy thoroughly the many opportunities that the great city offers. She is endowed with an intellectual curiosity that has taken her into many little known areas of the city. This same curiosity --- prompted her to fly to Kenya last year, for a look at one of the few remaining primitive areas of the world.

Jackson and Eva Stichler lived in Butler, Ohio for many years, where Jackson was a carpenter-contractor. The family later moved to Mansfield where he and his sons Roy and Oscar continued the business, building many fine residences. At the time of writing, Max Stichler continues the family tradition, started by his great-grandfather Jacob, of building homes. Eva was the sister of Malcomb Hazlett, husband of Emma Davis. She was a soft spoken lady who always thought first of her family. She died in Mansfield and is buried there. Later Jackson married Eva's sister Jessie Hazlett Bowman. Jessie had been a widow for years; had raised a family in Akron. Her children live in that vicinity.

George and Mary Long were married in Iowa. It is to be assumed that the Halfertys had moved to Iowa some time earlier from the vicinity of Ankneytown. The writer has in her possession daguerrotypes of a Mr. and Mrs. Halferty who were friends of her grandmother. She would be happy to pass these along to some member of that family who desires them. George and Mary Long lived on a farm near Richland, Iowa for the greater part of their lives. An inquiry regarding the Long Family Bible (see appendix) elicited the fact that their home burned, destroying many of their prized possessions. It was the writer's privilege to meet their grand daughter and husband recently when they visited a daughter in Columbus, O. She confirmed a supposition that Richland, Iowa was named for the birth place of many early settlers who had moved there from Richland Co., Ohio.

The writer regrets the lack of information on this family. When she began this project more than 10 years ago, Walter Fisher was most interested. He lived in Michigan, but arranged to meet the writer when he came to Butler to visit his mother. The Abraham Long home and the Mutzbaugh Cemetery were visited and photographed. He had accumulated much material. He wrote the day before he entered the hospital for what he thought was a minor ailment, that he would soon bring the completed manuscript. Walter died three days later.

Golden Wedding Anniversary 1921

Leah Long was the youngest of the children of Abraham and Catherine Long. John Swank was the son of Casper and Catherine Leedy Swank. In addition to the 14 Swank children, many have happy memories of this home. Uncle John Swank loved music and was a great story-teller. He was the historian for the Long Family for the Chronicle. He had accumulated much data on the family which was inadvertently destroyed when the Swank home was dismantled.

Mr. Ashbrook served as Representative for the 17th District for many terms in the Congress of the United States. He published in two volumes, the history of the Ashbrook family in which he recorded many interesting sidelights on the political climate of an earlier generation.

William A. Ashbrook, Jr. graduated from Dennison University and took his Law Degree at Ohio State. He was commissioned in the Navy during W W II; & studied during that time at Harvard and Columbia. His wife graduated from St. Frances DeSales in Newark, O. The Ashbrooks live in Johnstown, where William is Pres. of the Johnstown Savings & Loan.

Prior to his election to the Congress he had served as Pres. of both the State and Nat'l organizations of Young Republicans.

James Ashbrook graduated from Northwestern U. He and his family live in Johnston, where he operates a General Insurance Agency.

b 6-13-1812

Daniel Long was brought to Knox Co. Ohio with his parents when he was about a year old. Mary Teeter was also born in Pa. and came with her parents to Knox Co. O. when she was about 12 yrs. old. Mary Teeter Long was the sister of Catherine, the wife of Daniel's brother, Abraham. Daniel and Mary lived in Knox and Richland Cos. Ohio until 1849 when they moved to Williams Co. The family were members of the Church of the Brethren. Daniel and Mary are buried in Shiff-ler's Cemetery, Pulaski, Mich.

See Appendix for Marriage Record of Daniel Long and Mary Teeter. Following is a record of the 5th generation Longs. The writer had compiled the record of this family to the 7th generation. A few years ago, Gail Long-7, published the history of this family, which he called "The House of Long". His address - 3410 Binscarth Avenue Saginaw, Michigan. Those desiring the complete data on this family are urged to contact Gail Long. The latter generations are omitted here because a duplication would be superfluous.

About ten years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil S. Hill moved to the neighborhood of the writer, in Barberton, Ohio. The McNeils, Ogiers and Hills became good friends. At least two years later a chance remark brought to light the fact that Abraham and Daniel Long were the respective grandparents. "Sid" and Betty Hill have truly become "family", not because of the relationship, but because they epitomize the kind of folks who have made the Long and Leedy names of which to be proud.

CHRISTINA LONG MOCK - AUNT TENA

Probably the most widely known of the John Long family, was Aunt Tena. Once met, she was always remembered for her cheerfulness, her love of fun, her love of music, particularly "Dutch" songs.

She was tall, slender and supple; she possessed great powers of endurance and could perform gymnastic feats that astonished her friends. She possessed an agile mind and carried on animated conversations on many subjects. She and her husband were faithful members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. She spent her declining years with her nephew Joseph Long of Harrod, Ohio

If you could meet your ancestors
All standing in a row
There might be some of them perhaps
You wouldn't care to know;
But there's another question which Requires a different view;
If you could meet your ancestors,
Would they be proud of you?

The birth dates of the 21 children of John and Susannah Leedy Long were authenticated from the Christopher Saar Bible in which John-3 recorded in his own hand their names and birth dates. The Bible is written in German. The frontispiece (at the beginning of the New Testament) is translated as follows:

OUR LORD AND SAVIOR
JESUS CHRIST
after the German translation of Dr. Martin Luther with a short index of each Chapter and complete notations of similar passages as well as Gospels and Epistles

Third Edition

Printed and to be found at

The paper is brittle and deep yellow. The ink is faded. The handwriting of the record of Christine, Liddy and John Long's own data appears to be that of an aged person.

In 1761, Elizabeth Leedy, widow of John Leedy, deceased, late of Hallam Twp., York Co., Penna. asked that the court appoint a guardian or guardians for Barbara, Eve, Samuel and Abraham they being the children of said John Leedy, deceased. The children at that time were too young to choose their guardians." L.C.

"In 1761, John Leedy (minor orphan son of John Leedy, late of Hellam Twp., Yoeman deceased) aged 14 on the 9th September last, chose Philip Fishburn of York Twp. as guardian."

"In the same year, 1761, Jacob Leidy (Leedy) came into court, eldest son and heir-at-law of John Leedy, deceased, and asked the Court appoint someone to sell a certain tract of land, owned by his father, John Leedy."

Jacob, above, probably married Mary ----, because York Co. administration records show: "Jacob Leedy (Leidy) died without will in York Co. in 1779, his estate being administered by Mrs. Mary Leedy." They further showed that " Mary Leedy died in York Borough in 1808. George Sheffel was her administrator."

DAR Lineage Bks. record in 1896 the membership of Virginia Long- daughter of John James Long son of Daniel Long - son of John and Anna Scott Long. John Long served in the Revolution. As far as this family is concerned, this lineage has not been verified, but it is given here because of the likelihood that this is another line of direct descent from a Rev. War ancestor; namely, the 2nd John Long of whom we have record.

The book, "German Immigration into Pennsylvania" by Diffenderfer, pp.45, indicates that 8 shiploads of immigrants arrived at Philadelphia in 1739. Sept.3 1739, 3 ships arrived the same da. the Friendship from Rotterdam having Johan Marte Leid and his wife Elizabeth as passengers.

The Crow, Daniel Hetrick and Joseph Hetrick families came to Ohio and lived in Jefferson Twp. Richland Co. They are all recorded in the 1830 Census of Ohio. Daniel Hetrick's Will is included here. He was active in the Owl Creek Congregation of the Dunkard Church, which later became known as the Progressive Brethren.

Gordon Connelly recently wrote----"I have found the old Long property (bought by John Long, Sr.- father of Catherine Long (2) Leedy, in 1751 but do not know the address of the post office then in use for that vicinity. John Long's property was by the Broadfording of the Conococheague Creek, about 5 miles west by northwest of Hag - erstown; the postoffice address,-----may have been either Broadfording or Cearfoss."
